Chicago ceases to be a city today and becomes the arena of the greatest football struggle of the year.

The solid banks of maroon are striped with the black and orange of Princeton. Ten thousand Princeton rooters, more than 1,000 of the old grads and heroes are gathered to make the last stand of the east against the swelling football pretenses of the west.

For the first time in football history one of the Big Three teams plays in Chicago—and probably it is the first time that the colors of any of the big eastern schools will flaunt defiance to the claims of the west.

Stagg Field the Magnet.

Today all roads lead to Stagg field. [illegible] today all auto traffic in the vicinity of the University of Chicago will cease. No autos will be permitted at or near the field—and the hosts of the Maroon will bank in solid ranks against the massed striped section in which the Tiger rooters will snarl defiance and growl the old fighting growl of Nassau.

Thirty-two thousand of the lucky ones will see the battle—but all Chicago, all the country, will focus eyes and ears upon the battle which will decide the claims of supremacy of east and west on the football field.

Maroons the Favorite.

Chicago is the favorite, but the great bulk of the wagering on the game, wagering which grew lively when the hosts of Princeton gathered yesterday from all sections of the United States, was at evens. Some of the betting was at 11 to 10 and a few wagers were laid at 5 to 4 with the Maroons favorites.

As the rush of Princeton and the Tiger growl swept through Chicago, as the fighting spirit of old Nassau's sons rose with the gathering of their hosts past and present, even money ruled better. Not that the confidence of the Maroon supporters waned, but the fact that Princeton poured out its money, the Princeton grads swarmed from all sections of the country to back the team, changed the odds.

"Beat Chicago."

Princeton's team and the special train which bore the hosts of the easterners into Chicago was just the beginning of the rally. From all sections came old grads, heroes of past days. For Princeton, usually content to call any game with a western team an exhibition, had changed.

Knowing that this was the first time they ever had ventured into the west, knowing that in all probability no other Princeton team will meet a conference eleven, the cry of "Beat Yale" or "Beat Harvard" changed to "Beat Chicago."

Old grads, old heroes of the past who have fought under Princeton's goal posts against the Blue and the Crimson, declared they would rather beat Chicago than either eastern rival.

Princeton has "pointed" at last for a western team and came determined to wipe out the disgrace of last year's overthrow at the hands of Stagg.

Old Tiger Heroes on Hand.

The greatest gathering of Princeton men ever held outside of the shaded lanes of Nassau responded to the rallying cry of the Tiger. A great collection of old heroes gathered at the Drake hotel yesterday afternoon, and last night more than six hundred of its leaders, hailing from forty sections of the country, gathered at the banquet of the National Alumni Association of Princeton.

Led by President John Greer Hibben and Coach Bill Roper, the old grads stood and cheered as they sang and pleaded with the Tiger youngsters, nervous and white lipped, wait the whistle today to win and restore the prestige of the east in football.

The heroes of the past were there. Dr. John Finney, '84, who ripped them up when Princeton was a smal college and who, as one of the leaders at Johns Hopkins, still rips 'em, led the veterans. John Maynard Harlan, veteran of the early teams, pleaded for a victory. Big Bill Edwards had not come, but was

Police to Round Up Lundin, Newmark.

Board of education boodle of grafters, allied to the Lundin-Thompson machine, as shown by a preliminary and by no means complete audit of the board's books on order of State's Attorney Crowe, totals $1,469,025.50, the special grand jury was told yesterday by the United States Auditing company which is trying to disentangle the board's chaotic accounts.

The discovery of the enormous shortage lent zest to the special grand jury's search for the plunder and the plunderers.

Developments of the Day.

The day's developments included the following:

1 Trustee Hart Hanson's charge that Lundin-Thompson trustees have spent $10,000 of the taxpayers' money, appropriated to educate the school children, in an attempt to keep themselves from going to jail, and that unless their plans are frustrated they will spend thousands of dollars more for the same purpose.

2 A promise by Chief of Police Fitzmorris to Special Prosecutor Greenacre that the entire police force —6,100 men—will be used to hunt down the four men who are now blocking the special grand jury's probe. These "hideouts" are Fred Lundin, Mortimer B. Flynn, J. Roy Trautman, and Ben Newmark.

3 Attempts of Ald. Edward R. Armitage, Lundin-Thompson "yes man" in the city council, to thwart public demand for the ouster of Trustees Edwin S. Davis and Albert H. Severinghaus, under indictment in the school scandal, by refusing to call up a resolution in the council schools committee urging their ouster.

4 Testimony of Charles McDonough, employed by the Ready & Callaghan Coal company, that in order to collect a coal bill of $2,131 from the Lundin-Thompson school board, it was necessary to pay a $900 retainer fee to Attorney Charles E. Ward, recently indicted and one-time secretary to ex-Senator William Lorimer.

Audit Report Leads Interest.

But by far the most startling of the day's disclosures was the audit company's report contained in a letter to Assistant State's Attorney George E. Gorman and turned over to the special grand jury. The auditors itemized the shortage, second only to the grab of the city hall real estate and building experts, as follows:

Labor, material, and burden charges which cannot be traced	$ 456,248.74
No cost sheets produced	79,909.39
Funds unaccounted for in "work in process" account	470,707.09
Further shortage auditor's cost sheets, labor, and material substitute sheets will reveal	100,000.00
Checkup on material reveals shortage of	362,160.28
Total shortage	$1,469,025.50

Asset Shrinks $1,186,820.

Almost as shocking as the shortage tabulation is another set of figures on the building and repair fund. One item listed as an "asset" of $2,186,820 in the board's published statements will be reduced to less than $1,000,000, "even if data supplied to the auditors be accepted as correct," according to the auditing company's preliminary report.

"General repairs," the item under which some of the board's most outrageous expenditures were cloaked, was also shown up by the report.

"The amount expended for general repairs on buildings from the building fund in 1921 will show not $1,841,963.09 [as previously reported], an increase of 100 per cent over the year 1919, but an amount nearly 200 per cent greater than was needed in 1919 to take care of the board's general repairs on buildings and equipment, notwithstanding the almost general reduction in material prices shown by 1921 as against 1919," the report reads.

How Repair Bills Soar.

In addition to that statement the auditors tell the story of the zooming repair expenditures in the following set of figures: 1919, $920,013.24; 1920, $1,477,619.75; 1921, $3,153,169.32.

These figures are exclusive of what the auditors refer to as "an apparent material shortage at June 30, 1922, of $362,160.28" and the failure of the board's auditors to charge properly $320,000 in February, March and April pay rolls.

But the figures do not tell the whole

BANDIT IS SLAIN, 1 SHOT BY AGENT

Wresting a revolver away from one of two holdup men who attempted to rob the station till, Herbert Elliot, ticket agent for the Chicago and Western Indiana railroad at 47th street and Stewart avenue, last night shot one of the men dead and seriously wounded the other.

The wounded man escaped and fled into the railroad yards, where he was sought late last night by a squad under the command of Lieut. Samuel Rank of the stockyards station.

From cards found in the dead man's pockets the police believe he was James Ryan of 836 West Adams street.

Elliot Also Injured.

Elliot was taken to St. Bernard's hospital suffering from a scalp wound inflicted either by a bullet while grappling with the men or by aluminum knuckles.

Elliot, who lives at 5735 Indiana avenue, was alone in the station when the two men entered shortly after 7 o'clock. The strangers announced they were railroad men and inquired if there was any mail for them.

The ticket agent evidently was impressed by the men's story, for he opened the gate and allowed them to come behind the counter, which is against the rules of the company.

Elliott Gives Battle.

Suddenly one of the men whipped out a revolver and ordered him to hold up his hands. Instead of complying Elliot lunged forward and attempted to wrest the weapon from him. The second man came to his assistance and during the struggle the revolver was discharged. The weapon dropped from the robber's hand and both fled as Elliot picked it up and fired one shot at each of them at close range.

According to Elliott, there was only $236 in cash in the station safe and $10,000 in checks payable to the railroad.

GOTHAM COFFEE MERCHANT DROPS DEAD IN HOTEL

Entering his room at La Salle hotel last night, where friends he had invited to dinner were awaiting him, George Braudling, 64 years old, a coffee merchant of 611 158th street, New York, who, with his wife, was on a visit here, complained of feeling unwell, and a moment later dropped dead. Dr. Lewis McClenathan, house physician, believes death was the result of heart disease.

Mr. Braudling was about to dine with Mrs. Annette P. Crowley, 1129 Holly court, Oak Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mohr, 2024 Lemoyne street, when the attack came upon him. It is said that he has for some time suffered from a high blood pressure.

NICOTINE POISON REPORT STARTS QUIZ INTO DEATH

Investigation by the coroner's office into the death of Mrs. Hattie McEwen, 47 years old, 2549 Neva avenue, was begun yesterday following rumors that she had died from poisoning instead of heart disease.

When the death was reported Thursday, Dr. H. G. W. Reinhardt was instructed to make the customary post mortem. Neighbors told him of rumors that Mrs. McEwen had been given nicotine. He decided to make a full investigation. The viscera was removed.

W. D. McNally, coroner's chemist, will analyze the contents for traces of poison. Mrs. McEwen's husband died a year ago from heart disease.

BOMB DAMAGES B. E. SUNNY HOME

Labor Blast Also Breaks Neighbors' Windows.

A bomb said to have been thrown by labor terrorists, last night damaged the new home of Bernard E. Sunny, chairman of the board of directors of the Illinois Telephone company, at 4913 Kimbark avenue. With the exception of a watchman, the house was unoccupied and there were no casualties.

BERNARD E. SUNNY

The explosion, occurring just as many of the families of other prominent Chicagoans living in the neighborhood were leaving their dinner tables, almost caused a panic. Windows in nearby homes were broken, while in the residence of Jacob M. Loeb, former school board trustee, across the street, his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Hamilton Loeb, was thrown from a piano stool.

Built at Cost of $100,000.

The structure, of colonial architecture, had just been completed by Mr. Sunny at an estimated cost of $100,000 for his invalid wife, who is now in Italy. The residence was built under the Landis award, Mr. Sunny being a member of the citizens' committee to enforce it.

According to the police, it was remarkable that the house was not demolished or at least greatly damaged by the bomb. From the condition of one of the windows, directly above where the explosion occurred, the police believe that the vandals attempted to throw the bomb through the glass, but instead it hit the sash and fell to the sidewalk. When the bomb exploded it only broke a window, a glass door, and cracked the cement steps and sidewalk.

Other Homes Damaged.

The home of J. S. Llewellyn, 4932 Kimbark avenue, and more than 100 feet from the explosion, suffered more damage than the Sunny residence, two big plate glass windows in the parlor being blown out.

The next house south of the Sunny home, occupied by A. W. Harris of the Harris Trust and Savings bank, was not damaged, but the home south of that, owned by N. B. Higbie, an official of Swift & Co., lost a number of windows.

Woman Slays Noted Rector and Herself

Havre, Mont., Oct. 27.—The deaths of the Rev. Leonard Jacob Christler, known throughout Montana and the west as the "Bishop of All Outdoors," and Mrs. Marguerite Carleton in the Christler home early today were so plainly a case of murder and suicide by the woman that no inquest probably will be held, the coroner and sheriff's office announced tonight.

The tragedy took place in a small hall of the Christler home. Mrs. Carleton, who had been visiting the rector and his wife, had arisen to take her departure. The preacher accompanied her to the hall leading to the front door, Mrs. Christler remaining in the living room.

Finds Bodies in Hall.

Suddenly, according to the widow, two shots were fired in the vestibule. Hurrying there, Mrs. Christler said she found the bodies of the two, Mrs. Carleton's lying half across the rector's form.

Mrs. Christler immediately telephoned to Chief of Police Moran, Dr. D. O. Mackenzie, and Dr. A. B. Foss, friends of the dead man. They came at once and took charge of the bodies.

The pistol with which the two were killed was still clasped in Mrs. Carleton's hand and her finger was still on the trigger when he arrived, Dr. MacKenzie told the coroner. This revolver was a huge affair of large calibre. The owner of the weapon has not been found.

Who Owned Big Revolver?

Mrs. Carleton, according to Chief Moran, possessed a small caliber pistol, because she had shown it to him when he met her on the street early Thursday evening. She had told him she was carrying it to defend herself from any chance holdups.

Neither the murdered preacher nor his wife owned the large pistol found in the vestibule, according to Mrs. Christler. And the smaller weapon seen by Moran was not on Mrs. Carleton's body, nor has it been found.

According to friends, Bishop Faber of Montana, more than a year ago, investigated gossip linking the names of Dr. Christler and Mrs. Carleton and reported such gossip was untrue.

Unless relatives of the minister, who was rector of St. Mark's Church of the Incarnation, or of Mrs. Carleton, who was the wife of a former Montana District judge, insist on an inquest none will be held, it was announced.

Unable to Find a Motive.

After a day spent in hunting for a motive that would have induced Mrs. Carleton to kill the clergyman and herself, officers declared that they were unable to find one. It was generally believed that Mrs. Carleton must have been suffering from temporary insanity when she fired the two shots.

Investigation disclosed that before she went to the Christler home late last night Mrs. Carleton had partially destroyed a number of letters and other papers in her room in a local hotel. All fragments of these that could be deciphered, however, indicated that they were from her mother, daughter and husband, who now is in Los Angeles, Cal. The letter from her husband informed her he was sending her a sum of money.

Mrs. Christler's Story.

The first story told to the authorities by Mrs. Christler was repeated at different times during the day. Substantially, her account of the tragedy is as follows:

The Rev. Mr. Christler held services at the church last night. These were attended by a visiting minister. Afterwards Mrs. Christler suggested that the two ministers, several men who had attended the services, and herself go to a restaurant and have supper.

TAKE CREMONA, FLORENCE, PISA, MILAN; 6 SHOT

Movement Is "Not Against King."

LONDON, Saturday, Oct. 28.—[By the Associated Press.]—The Times prints a "message from Italy," without naming the source, saying: "The fascisti at 11:30 (Friday night) began a concerted action on several towns. They are now masters of some of the chief towns like Florence, Pisa, and Cremona. Communications between north, south, and central Italy have been interrupted.

"Everywhere in these towns they deposed the state authorities and assumed command. It seems there was no resistance and no conflict, except in Cremona, where six fascisti were shot. Everything is quiet in Milan, where there is a great display of troops. There is no news from other centers."

"To Give Italy Full Liberty."

Benito Mussolini, head of the fascisti, remained in Milan throughout all of yesterday and had numerous conferences with fascisti leaders and also a talk with a local prefect. A circular which the fascisti have distributed in Pisa and other places says:

"Officers, soldiers, citizens: The fascisti movement is neither against the country nor against the king. We want his majesty to be really king of Italy and not to submit himself to state actions which are cowardly imposed on him by his present weak ministers.

"We march on to Rome to give Italy her full liberty; to give the Italian people an Italy as was dreamed of the half million dead in the great war, and by our own dead who continued at war during peace.

"Marching with the sincere desire of peace and love, our greatest shout shall always be 'Long live the army; long live the king, and long live Italy.'"

FACTA OFFERS FAIL

BY V. DE SANTO.
[Copyright: 1922: By The Chicago Tribune.]

ROME, Oct. 27.—Premier Facta and his cabinet formally handed their resignations to King Victor Emmanuel today. This is supposed to indicate that Sig. Facta's appeal to Benito Mussolini, chief of the Fascisti, for a rapprochement has failed.

The crash of the cabinet came after former Premier Orlando's interview with former Premier Giolitti at Cavour, near Turin, after which he telegraphed Premier Facta late last night asserting that Sig. Giolitti was willing to form a cabinet without the Fascisti.

Minister of Public Works Ricci, who already has joined the Fascisti, induced certain other ministers to join him in precipitating a collapse of the government, which he further accelerated by resigning. Sig. Ricci hoped by his activities to prevent Sig. Giolittti from forming a cabinet without the Fascisti.

King to See Leaders.

ROME, Oct. 27.—[By the Associated Press.]—King Victor Emmanuel arrived in Rome today. He has a desire to consult tomorrow on the situation with former Premier Giolitti.

King Victor Emmanuel has requested Premier Facta and his colleagues in the ministry to continue their routine work until a new government has been constituted.

The police and military at Pisa, Siena and other places in Tuscany have adopted precautionary measures in view of the mobilization of the Fascisti in that region. There have been no disorders there.

The opinion prevailing in political circles is that the Fascisti are masters of the situation and that a new cabinet can be formed only by them, or with their consent or participation.

All observers of the political situation agree that the ministerial crisis came in consequence of Dr. Mussolini's determined attitude on Thursday, when he called together all the military leaders of his organization and ordered the 800,000 workers now members of the Fascisti to be in readiness for coöperation with the military sections. This action by Mussolini was considered as showing that he was preparing to keep his oath, taken at Naples, that the Fascisti would assume the reins of government either legally or by force.

In an interview in the Giornale d'Italia, Michele Bianchi, secretary of the Fascisti organization in Rome, said that if logic, common sense, and constitutional customs were to be followed, only Sig. Mussolini could be entrusted with the formation of a new cabinet. The meeting of the Fascisti at Naples and the speech delivered there by Mussolini has caused the present crisis, Sig. Bianchi pointed out, and therefore it was Sig. Mussolini who had overthrown the cabinet and must form the new administration.

The secretary refused to admit the possiblity of any other solution of the crisis, but, if for the sake of discussion, another course should be contemplated, the Fascisti, he considered, should ask a larger participation in the new cabinet than that mentioned by Sig. Mussolini in his Naples speech, when he said he had demanded for the Fascisti the portfolios of foreign affairs, war, navy, labor, and public works. He should also demand the portfolio of the interior, Sig. Bianchi thought.

PARIS EXPECTS WAR

BY HENRY WALES.

[Copyright: 1922: By The Chicago Tribune.]

PARIS, Oct. 27.—The gravest and most apprehensive views are taken in diplomatic circles here over the situation in Italy. If the Fascisti maintain their chauvinistic and bellicose program after attaining power, an Italian clash with Jugo-Slavia is regarded as certain.

The blackshirts, military organization of the Fascisti, have warned the Italian government that they will not make further concessions on the Adriatic and that Fascisti recognition means that they will never permit the Rapallo accord with Jugo-Slavia to become operative.

The Serbs have long threatened to take forceful measures if the Rome government does not fulfill the terms of the Rapallo pact, which is regarded as highly favorable to Italy.

Allies Desert Serbs.

Premier Benes of Czecho-Slovakia told the Serbs at Marienbad last August that his nation could not mix in any trouble between the Jugo-Slavs and Italians over the Adriatic question, which he said was quite foreign to the Prague government. He pointed out that the little entente—Czecho-Slovakia, Jugo-Slavia and Roumania—was primarly aimed against the restoration of the Hapsburgs in Hungary and Austria.

Premier Benes has just returned to Prague from Italy, where he conferred with Foreign Minister Schanzer. It is understood that he informed Italy that Czecho-Slovakia would remain neutral in any altercation. Mr. Benes is reported to have demonstrated to Sig. Schanzer the necessity of Italy's carrying out the Rapallo agreement, as the Jugo-Slavs made the most extreme concessions to settle the problem.

The Roumanian course is never to side against its ally, Italy, regardless of any other alliance, leaving the Jugo-Slavs alone and worried especially as there are internal differences between the Croats and Serbs.

Want Larger Navy.

The Fascisti's foreign policy is aimed at establishing Italy as a great power, equal in rank to the United States, Great Britain and France, and one of the first acts scheduled on their program is the reopening of the naval question which was accepted at Washington. The Fascisti claim that Italy's needs are not properly safeguarded, as they have two great sea fronts, the Adriatic and the Mediterranean.

Fascisti success also insures a row at the near east conference over the Dodocanese islands which the British wish to allocate to the Greeks.

A sharp change in the Italian policy towards Turkey is expected to develop as Fascisti organs and statesmen already are asking, "What are we getting by boosting Turkish sovereignty in Constantinople and elsewhere which means the abandonment of our commercial interests there."

MRS. LETTS WAS MOVING 10 MILES AN HOUR TOO FAST

Mrs. Frederick C. Letts Jr., Lake Forest's premier woman golfer, was overtaken in Winnetka yesterday by Motorcycle Policeman John Hanselman.

"Why so fast?" inquired he.

"Moving," said she.

"I'll say you were moving—about ten miles an hour too fast."

"I mean I'm moving from Lake Forest to 999 Lake Shore drive, Chicago, for the winter. That's why I was hurrying."

"From the looks of today winter ain't coming that fast," commented Hanselman, presenting her with a card which will necessitate her appearance in Winnetka's court Monday morning on a speeding charge.

BRITTEN URGES GREAT AIR FORCE AS PEACE SURETY

REAR ADMIRAL W. A. MOFFETT.

Under the Washington agreement the United States navy is permitted to develop to the fullest extent its aviation and submarine branches, and this should be done, Congressman Fred A. Britten, head of the naval affairs committee, declared last night at the Navy day banquet given for Rear Admiral William A. Moffett, chief of the bureau of aeronautics, at the Hotel La Salle.

"The 5-5-3 agreement says nothing about aviation," he said. "We should be ingenious and go ahead. We have a commerce to protect. There is trouble all over the world. Great nations are backing down and running away. England backed up because the Turks had the punch.

High Tribute to Moffett.

"The great right arm of our national defense is going to be aviation. Admiral Moffett, you may be called upon to save this country. You put across Great Lakes in defiance of Daniels. You and Palmer of the bureau of navigation saw, what he could not see, that the merchant ships and the convoy system would require a great body of trained men. You violated the orders of your chief and spent money like water out here. I don't think Daniels knew what was going on at Great Lakes. And the result justified your vision. The boys from Great Lakes were the best men in the navy."

The banquet was arranged by Admiral Moffett's former Great Lakes service men. Packey Schwartz, ex-Great Lakes cook, was the leader in the affair. Mayor Thompson was on the program to head the speakers, but he did not appear and no one was presented as representing him.

Judge Hugo Pam and Lieut. Charles G. Scheck, state commander of the American Legion, spoke. Capt. E. A. Evers was toastmaster and made an appeal for the naval reserve. Men are needed for this service, he said, and it offers opportunity for those who want to stay at home and at the same time get navy training.

Nation Dependent on Navy.

Admiral Moffett told a few sea yarns and said that the idea he had when building the Great Lakes station was that "if we did not have any navy we would not have any country." His dream was to make it a training place for 100,000 men and to keep the station there. There were 87,000 under training there at one time.

The present navy, he said, has 86,000 men and needs 120,000. It is not what it should be, because most of the men enlisted after the war. Great Britain, he said, exceeds us, in ships and men available for war now serving in her merchant marine. He said that he always got what he wanted from Secretary Daniels, but it sometimes took a long time to get it.

Gives Up $25,000 a Year to Teach at $5,000 Pay

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—John S. Worley of New York was today appointed professor of transportation railroad engineering in the University of Michigan. This is a chair created today by the board of regents. Mr. Worley is giving up a $25,000 a year job to accept this position at less than $5,000. He does this, it is announced, because he believes in service, and the offer from Michigan appealed to him as affording opportunity for a great and permanent service.

U. S. ENGINEER FAVORS CALUMET HARBOR SCHEME

Ground May Be Broken Next Spring.

Backers of the proposed new Lake Calumet industrial harbor considered the project a step nearer realization yesterday upon indication by Maj. Rufus W. Putnam, resident United States engineer, that he anticipated making a favorable report to the war department. Maj. Putnam's announcement followed a public hearing in his office attended by representatives of various organizations which have been active in behalf of the improvement.

"My recommendation will carry one proviso, however," asserted Maj. Putnam. "At least two miles of water front must be reserved by the city for municipal dock purposes until such time as better facilities are procured."

Seen as District Asset.

Favorable action by Washington, it is understood, will remove the last technical barrier to actual beginning of work on the harbor, which, its sponsors say, will prove an asset of incalculable value to the Calumet district.

If no unforeseen hitch develops, it is thought likely that ground may be broken by next spring. The cost of dredge work necessary will total $3,500,000, according to estimate. A city ordinance provides $100,000 as a nucleus. The balance will have to be procured from sale of riparian rights to industries.

All speakers at yesterday's hearing boosted the project. Ald. Ross A. Woodhull, chairman of the council committee on harbors, wharves, and bridges, outlined in detail the harbor plan as designed by Attorney Arend Van Vlissingen.

Organizations at Hearing.

Organizations represented at the hearing included the Chicago Real Estate board, the Cook County Real Estate board, the Association of Commerce, the Western Society of Engineers, and many civic organizations of the Calumet district. Benton F. Kleeman, assistant corporation counsel, appeared for Mayor Thompson.

CHILD BURNED AT BONFIRE.

Jerome Cavanaugh, 7 years old, 1312 West 64th street, sustained burns in a bonfire yesterday which may cause his death.

Rich Man Gets 45 Days for Driving When Tipsy

Kalamazoo, Mich., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—A sentence of forty-five days in jail was pronounced late this evening on Merrill B. King, president of the Rex Paper company, following conviction on a charge of driving while intoxicated. King was taken at once to the millionaires' cell, which had been occupied by John Duval Dodge of Detroit last spring at the time he was arrested on a similar charge.

2 WOMEN VALUE HERO AT $10,000 AND FIVE CENTS

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—Her war hero husband asked her to set a price on him, saying another woman was willing to "buy her off," Mrs. Agnes Thompson of Dearborn sets forth in her suit asking divorce from Clyde Thompson, according to the papers filed today.

Mrs. Thompson, it is alleged, was asked by her husband how much she would take for him. They both laughed about it at the time, and the wife jokingly told him he was worth $10,000 to her, one arm and other disabilities included, her attorney said. But Thompson grew serious and asked her what price she would take if another woman wanted him. The other woman is said to be Mrs. Dora Peltier, Thompson's former wife.

"Not satisfied in ruining her own hapiness," Mrs. Peltier said, "Mrs. Thompson has been trying to ruin mine as well by calling my husband on the telephone and telling him that I am trying to take Thompson away from her. It's utter bosh. I wouldn't give a nickel for both of them put together."

VOLIVA CALLS ON 20 TO JUSTIFY EPITHET, "RAM"

Wilbur Glenn Voliva, overseer of Zion City, on trial charged with criminal libel in Judge Edwards' court in Waukegan, yesterday called twenty witnesses in his effort to prove that when he dubbed the Rev. Thomas H. Nelson "a tomcat, an old ram, an old blatherskite," and other things he was actuated by "truth and good motives."

Testimony that made witnesses blush and spectators titter filled the record when court adjourned. Time and again Judge Edwards admonished women spectators to quit laughing under penalty of being ejected.

The Rev. Mr. Nelson, pastor of the Grace Missionary church of Zion City, must have his little joke, it appeared from the testimony, and he was fond of making it at the expense of a bride and a groom, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Sparrow.

TURMOIL RUSHING OVER OCEAN FOR AGED MILLIONAIRE

Wife and Alleged Affinity Nearing New York.

Muskegon, Mich., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—While Eugene Meurer, millionaire Muskegon paper manufacturer, bends over his cook stove preparing a specially improvised diet which a chronic malady demands, his former housekeeper, Margaret Wasserman, who was spirited out of the country and sent back to Germany at the behest of indignant relatives, is reported to be rushing back across the Atlantic to supply him again with the diet he says means life or death to him.

On the same boat, the steamship Reliance, or perhaps on a liner following, is the aged millionaire's wife, who left him twelve years ago and who is returning now only to combat divorce proceedings which he instituted on Oct. 15. At the Hotel Belmont in New York are his daughter, Mrs. Walter Voith, and her husband, referred to here because of his imperial and pin point mustachios as "Young Ludendorf," waiting to intercept the returning housekeeper and pack her off a second time across the ocean.

Same Sleuths on Both Sides.

The case may find its way before the immigration authorities there and various international questions may be involved if Mrs. Voith continues her fight to keep Miss Wasserman out of the country. Already the German consul at Chicago and a private detective agency have figured in the aged manufacturer's battle to keep his housekeeper.

Mrs. Voith started the trouble in September when she learned her father had presented Miss Wasserman with $40,000 worth of Liberty bonds. Charging that the housekeeper had matrimonial designs with a view to obtaining a large share of his wealth, she appealed to the German consul in Chicago to have the girl deported. When the consul refused to act, she employed a Chicago detective agency whose operatives spirited Miss Wasserman to South Bend and later to Germany.

Meurer is then said to have employed the same agency to bring her back.

"I do not think a man was ever treated more cruelly by his wife and children," said the old man as he fussed over the meal in the home in which he lives alone. "They have thought and said bad, miserable things about me. My wife left me twelve years ago. She complained continually of asthma. I built a home for her at Spring Lake and another in the north country near Traverse City where I was told asthma does not exist. Both places have rotted and decayed.

Will Made to Stay, He Says.

"I will not receive my daughter home again and if my wife comes she must live on one floor and I on another. There will be no reconciliation But I would give $100,000 if necessary to have Miss Wasserman back. Why not? She has been the only one who was good to me. I am suffering from a chronic trouble for which I must have a special diet and it was Margaret who prepared that diet as no other could. That is something money cannot buy."

And he rushed back to the stove where his meal was sizzling.

Peggy Marsh Resumes Her Old Name—Peggy Greene

New York, Oct. 27.—[Special.]—Peggy Marsh has decided to revert to her maiden name. She will henceforth be known as Peggy Greene. Her husband, Buster Johnson, is recuperating from his recent gunshot wound, and will follow his wife overseas in three weeks' time, she stated.

SAYS SINGER WAS DRAGGED TO BODY OF HALL; SLAIN

Hunted Down in Bushes, Mrs. Gibson Declares.

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—Three dramatic new features came to light tonight in reports of Mrs. Jane Gibson's eyewitness story of the murder of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills, his choir singer, at the Phillips farm on the night of Sept. 14.

The first development was that Mrs. Gibson had told the authorities that Mrs. Mills had run away from the murderers after Hall was shot and killed and that she had hid in the bushes between the crabapple trees and the abandoned Phillips farm house for a long period, while the murders hunted for her with a flashlight.

When they finally caught the choir singer, according to the statement reported to have been made by Mrs. Gibson, they dragged her, screaming and calling for mercy, for twenty-five or thirty yards over the rough ground to the spot where the rector lay dead under the tree. Then they shot and killed her by his side.

Woman Demands Explanation.

Previous to this Mrs. Gibson had told the authorities that she heard the woman in the gray coat, whom she ahd seen with a man companion in the glare of an automobile headlight a few minutes before, demand of Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills:

"How do you explain these notes?"

The reference was undoubtedly to the ten love letters from Mrs. Mills to Dr. Hall which the murderers left between the bodies after shooting Hall and Mrs. Mills and cutting the woman's throat. It was after Mrs. Gibson heard the question about the notes that the first shot was fired.

Found Woman Praying.

The third dramatic disclosure made by the woman eyewitness, it was learned tonight, was that she returned to the scene of the morder, compelled by curiosity, at 1 o'clock in the morning, when the moon was shining, and found the same woman in the gray coat kneeling by the rector's side, weeping and sobbing.

Unobserved by the woman she spied upon, Mrs. Gibson says, she was able to get very close to her in the bushes which spread from the rear of the farm house to the field of goldenrod beside the crabapple tree, and to get a good look at the woman at close range. At this time, she says, neither the man she had seen with the woman before nor any automobile was to be seen in the vicinity.

Information of these developments came from official sources, but in no case would the informants permit their names to be used. Neither Deputy Attorney Wilbur A. Mott nor his chief investigator, Lieut. James F. Mason of Middlesex county, could be reached for comment on these statements.

Believes Woman's Story.

The deputy attorney general and Detective Mason questioned Mrs. Gibson for three-quarters of an hour today. When he talked to reporters afterward Mr. Mott refused to make public any details of her story, but announced he was satisfied she was telling the truth.

Mr. Mott refused to say whether his investigation supported or disproved Henry Stevens' account of his movements on the night of the murder. To reporters who asked if he did not think he ought to clear Henry Stevens' name from suspicion if the latter's alibi was supported, Mr. Mott gave the advice not to worry about justice to "Henry Stevens, Mrs. Hall, or anybody else." He announced he had evidence detailing Mrs. Hall's movements "for a considerable period before 2 a. m." on the night of the murder, although Mrs. Hall's own statement is that she was at home until about 2:30 a. m., when she went out to look for her husband.

Case Not a Mystery.

The deputy attorney general also assured reporters that while the murder case is complex, he does not consider it a mystery. He repeated his statement of the previous day that he had enough evidence for an arrest, but was seeking further corroboration. It was reported tonight that Mr. Mott may lay the case before the Somerset county grand jury Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stevens, when told at their home in Lavellette, N. J., of the trend of events, declared they would welcome the action of the authorities if they put Mr. Stevens under arrest.

Henry then repeated his alibi, detailing again his fishing with friends, his return home at 10:30 o'clock the night of the murder. He gave the names of ten persons he said could testify in corroboration.

Ralph V. M. Gorsline, vestryman and choir singer at Hall's church, the Protestant-Episcopal Church of St. John the Evangelist, denied tonight that he was the "corroborating witness" referred to by Mr. Mott and denied rumors that he was the man who had found Mrs. Mills' love letters to Hall and taken them to some one story. Here, in summarized form, are a few of the conclusions of the auditors who have been trying to make "head or tail" of the board's accounts for more than four months:

BARE $1,469,000 SHORTAGE IN ONE SCHOOL DIVISION

Audit Reveals Vast Material Loss.

That "both records and files are in a chaotic condition."

No Source of Entry.

That in many cases expenditures of large sums have been "merely charged to a job number" and show no source of entry, "not even the year or month, when posted."

That many cost sheets have been lost, making an accurate audit difficult.

That the auditors are asked in many cases to accept explanations of expenditures without "supporting data" to prove the truth of the explanations.

That "burden percentages" charged directly to labor by board accountants were "absurdly excessive."

That accountants of the board admit that certain methods used in arriving at entries were "arbitrary and absolutely without foundation."

That no reconciliation of certain "chaotic accounts" has been attempted by board accountants since 1920.

That the board's auditors and the factory accountants admit that they are unable to identify certain items.

Only One Division Covered.

The first paragraph of the auditors' letter to Mr. Gorman shows that thus far only one division of the board's books has been covered. It reads:

"We herewith submit a synopsis of our work so far done on the factory division accounts of the board of education, showing in tentative form what has been developed and what is likely to be further developed on the completion of the work."

$10,000 TO FIGHT JAIL

Most of the $10,000 of the public funds expended by school board trustees in attempts to evade consequences of their contempt of Judge Kickham Scanlan's ruling in 1919 has gone to ex-Judge Jesse Holdom, who was defeated on the Lundin-Thompson 1921 judicial ticket, Trustee Hanson charged.

"I will take action at Monday's board meeting to block further expenditures of this kind," Mr. Hanson said. "I have information that the trustees who have not paid their fines or served their jail sentences are planning to throw thousands of dollars more after the first $10,000."

Mr. Hanson declared the time has come when the board must "stop squandering the public money in what amounts to a personal endeavor of William A. Bither, Albert H. Severinghaus and one or two others to keep out of a cell."

Mr. Hanson, who served three days in the county jail and paid a $300 fine for his acceptance of legal advice of Attorney Bither, former attorney for the board and now under indictment, said he will go more deeply into his charges against Bither at a luncheon today in the tea room of Marshall Field & Co.

CHIEF AGREES TO AID

Chief Fitzmorris' promise to coöperate with the state's attorney's office in the hunt for Lundin, Flynn, Troutman, and Newmark came as the chief emerged from a session with the regular grand jury.

Special Prosecutor Greenacre told the chief that deputy sheriffs and the state's attorney's police have done their best to find the "hideouts." They have failed and asked for police help.

"The police department is glad to coöperate," the chief replied. "I know Lundin, Flynn, and Newmark, but who is Troutman?" he asked.

Mr. Greenacre explained that an attachment has been issued for Troutman, who is secretary of the Pottinger-Flynn Coal company and who twice defied the jury in refusing to produce the company's books wanted to show school board coal deals.

Armitage Aids Trustees.

Ald. Edward R. Armitage of the Twenty-seventh ward trampled on the public demand, voiced repeatedly and emphatically that Davis and Severinghaus, indicted trustees, be ousted, when he refused to call up for action in council schools committee a resolution of Ald. James F. Kovarik asking Mayor Thompson to demand the trustees' resignations.

Armitage is one of the group of aldermen under the thumb of Ald. Louis B. Anderson, the mayor's colored floor leader. He said he didn't call up the resolution because members of his committee were "too tired from working on other matters to take it up." He even refused to call a meeting so that the resolution can be considered before the council meeting next Wednesday. This would delay council action at least two weeks, thus saving Davis and Severinghaus from council wrath for that period.

"I'll introduce a new resolution at Wednesday's council meeting and demand action on it at once," Ald. Kovarik declared. "I'm not taking orders from Louie Anderson or anybody else."

Corporation Counsel Samuel Ettelson yesterday disclaimed responsibility for clips delivered to his office by Sidney-Morris & Co. for the Apex company, as revealed to the grand jury. He said the clips came to him through the city purchasing agent.

Dogs Guard Lundin

Detectives, deputy sheriffs, grand jurors, or, in fact, any one interested in the whereabouts of Fred Lundin, city hall boss, had better not venture too close to the Sunset farm, Antioch, Mr. Lundin's summer home.

Of course if Caretaker Murphy and Mr. Lundin's famous German police dogs are not on the alert one may venture close to the grounds and gaze upon one of the most beautiful summer homes in the Fox lake region. If "Murf" and the dogs are uptown this daring feat may be accomplished. Otherwise life is too short to be taking such desperate chances.

Approaching the Lundin farm on the east shore of Fox lake, one gets the impression that there may be a buried treasure hidden within the foursquare white house that stands beyond. A huge chain stretched across the roadway, a "no trespassing allowed" sign, issuing its challenge to the stranger, are the first setback the uninvited visitor receives. Then, dashing down the roadway from the house within, yelling at the top of his voice "Get de hell out of that," came Caretaker Murphy, half dragged by those leaping, man eating police dogs of Mr. Lundin's.

"Naw, the boss [even Mr. Murphy calls him boss] is not here, and what's more, he won't be here," came his answer to the interrogative, "Mr. Murphy, is Mr. Lundin at home?"

"I suppose you're one of those smart reporters. Well, if it's any news to you, nobody is allowed to enter these grounds," chirped Mr. Lundin's faithful ground guardian.

"Don't come too close to that chain, me lad; these dogs won't stand for it," and Murphy pulled at the chain, which helped pacify those faithful animals, that were fairly licking their chops and waiting the word "action" from the lips of their master.

CONVICT BRYANT OF THREATS TO MRS. SHOTWELL

Eugene Bryant was found guilty late last night of extortion by threat, the legal description of his sending more than 200 letters to Mrs. Alfred H. Shotwell, 223 East Delaware place, but was found to be insane during the commission of the crime and to be still insane. The verdict of the jury which heard the case before Judge Marcus Kavanagh sends Bryant to a state asylum until such time as he shall be judged recovered from his insanity by a court.

$1,000 in U. S. Coin and Talk by Bonar Law Boosts Mark

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.
[Copyright: 1922: By The Chicago Tribune.]

BERLIN, Oct. 27.—The mark regained 300 points in its fight with the dollar today, reaching 4,000 this afternoon after having fallen to 4,500. Prime Minister Bonar Law of Great Britain was responsible for this new surge of optimism in Berlin through his "speech of common sense," as the Germans termed his address at Glasgow. It has increased Germany's hopes for a moratorium and an understanding with France.

Herr Hergt, chairman of the most radical group of nationalists, which is holding a convention at Gorlitz,, announced today in a sensational speech:

"The day for an agreement between German and French economic interests which are willing to work with Germany has come. We must not allow any consideration for England or America to prevent us from coming to an understanding. We demand that the foreign armies of occupation be withdrawn before reaching an agreement. We recognize France's right to demand securities.

"France's Best Guarantee."

"The German plants are working at full power, the willingness of the entire nation to collaborate and the inner political guarantees for greater production will prove better guarantees for France than the strongest army of occupation."

In the same speech Herr Hergt announced his party recognized the German republican constitution and was willing to collaborate with the other German parties.

This unexpected statement from the leader of the conservative party in the reichstag greatly contributed to the improvement of the mark. The government's announcement that the law against speculation would be altered to the advantage of business men also helped it. It brought a part of the foreign currency hoarded by speculators to the exchange where the sale of $1,000 was sufficient to allow the mark to increase 100 points.

Ask Foreign Experts' Help.

Meanwhile unusual activity is being shown by the German government in calling a conference of international financial experts and conferences of bankers and politicians.

This creates the impression among allied diplomats in Berlin that official Germany is preparing for the final act in reparations discussions. They believe that Chancellor Wirth officially hopes for a moratorium, for which he would even submit to interallied financial control until the Brussels conference, provided that the control is not too obvious.

Most important of all is that Premier Theunis of Belgium and the German representative, Herr Landsberg, are carrying on a conference at Brussels at present, and it is hoped that this will lead to a new compromise.

CHARGE FORGERY TO TREASURER OF MASONIC CLUB

George Granville Baker, 7244 Lafayette avenue, treasurer of the "Little Twelve" club, a subsidiary of a south side Masonic lodge, of which Joseph H. Birney, 7146 Michigan avenue, is president, arrested yesterday in Cincinnati, O., is charged with forgery and operating a confidence game.

He was trailed to the Oxford hotel in Cincinnati by operatives from the Pinkerton Detective agency, who followed his wife. Warrants for his arrest were taken out in Chicago yesterday by John F. Haley of the Illinois Trust and Savings bank, who said that withdrawal checks amounting to about $2,000 are involved. Birney's name was forged to them.

I. C. TO RESTORE PENSIONS LOST IN 1911 STRIKE

There was rejoicing in the home of James Walpole, 66 years old, 1355 East 75 street, last night. Mr. Walpole, among a large number of other "old timers" in the shop service of the Illinois Central railroad, was notified that he will not lose his pension.

Through action of the rairoad announced yesterday, all shop employés who went on strike in 1911, but who remained faithful to the road during last summer's strike, are to have their seniority rights restored. This means that many employés are immediately entitled to pensions. The Illinois Central, so far as is known, is the only road involved in the 1911 strike to take this step.

Besides Mr. Walpole, William Jeffrey, 7203 South Lincoln street, is immediately eligible for a pension on account of the ruling.

SHOES
—Fourth Floor—State Street

Back to nature—that's the idea that has made Billiken the recognized peer of Children's Shoes throughout the country. The last is a perfect double of the human foot.

To introduce nails or tacks into such a shoe would have upset the whole idea—for the makers were striving for perfection—so you'll find not a sign of a nail or a tack in Billiken footwear.

Shoemaking of the finest type, the best leathers, the most brilliant designing talent unite in Billiken shoes; there are none finer. Won't you let your children wear them?

Billiken shoes, style 2378, are the economical, sensible, natural shoes for girls and misses of the "teen" age—made not only to remedy foot ills but to PREVENT them—as flexible as a hand turned sole, yet durable as a welt; as comfortable as a stocking.

True nature shape. The illustration shows the high cut pattern. Finished with Flintstone oak leather soles. Sizes 12 to 2; at Billiken shoes, style 2369, for little boys and girls whose active little feet demand shoes that prompt them to play, bringing activity and joyous health. Billiken make the toes grow straight, make each tiny muscle perform its full duty in gradually bearing the burden of increasing weight.

And wear! Billikens, because made of only the best leather, sans tacks, sans nails, assembled with the perfect precision of master craftsmanship, wear and wear.

Look through our X-ray machine—see how Billikens do their work—a few minutes spent now will pay dividends of foot health in later years, such as every parent is in duty bound to insure to the next generation. Sizes 8½ to 11½, at

WIFE CONFESSES GIVING POISON TO HER HUSBAND

Mrs. Tilly Klimek, 1453 Tell place, yesterday confessed that she attempted to poison her husband, Joseph, who is now dangerously ill at the West Side hospital of arsenic. Breaking down after hours of questioning, she admitted to Lieut. Malone and Assistant State's Attorneys Lyons and Sharbare that she had sprinkled some "white powder" on his food.

Jealousy and not the fact that he had recently taken out life insurance policies in her favor prompted the act, she says. She was tired of the way he was "fooling around" with other women, and "wanted to get rid of him."

Other Deaths Unexplained.

The confession, while partially cleaning up the mystery, does not explain the demise of at least two previous husbands, and while the police and the state's attorney were checking up on the story, Coroner Peter M. Hoffman was making preparations to exhume the bodies for evidences of poisoning.

In her confession Mrs. Klimek stated that she had obtained the "white powder," which the police have since determined contained large quantities of arsenic, from a neighbor, Mrs. Nellie Kulek, and Mrs. Kulek, who was immediately arrested, confirmed this.

Tired of Her Mate.

Mrs. Klimek, according to Mrs. Kulek's story, visited her several weeks ago and told her that she was tired of her husband. Mrs. Kulek suggested that she get a divorce, but the other woman is reported to have said that she knew of a better way and then asked for some poison.

"I told her that all I had was some rat poison," Mrs. Kulek said, "and she told me to give her some. She didn't say what she was going to do with it, however, and I had no idea that she intended to poison her husband. I have no information about any of her previous husbands."

CHIEF DEFENDS HIS MEN AGAINST BEATING CHARGE

Chief of Police Fitzmorris appeared before the grand jury investigating alleged beating of prisoners by police officers yesterday in response to a subpoena. Before entering the jury room he said he was prepared to stand behind his officers and stated that Judge Marcus Kavanagh, who ordered the inquiry, has said repeatedly that criminals have been too much coddled.

"I believe the majority of charges against the police are unwarranted," said the chief. "There may be a few scattered cases. The case of Lieut. Grady is one in point. Though charged with beating a prisoner, it appeared in court the prisoner had tried to take the lieutenant's gun from him. Force was necessary."

EX-CHUM GIVES GORY DETAILS OF HAMMER SLAYING

Forced to Wipe Blood from Victim's Face.

BY EDWARD DOHERTY.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—Clara Phillips, charged with hammering Mrs. Alberta Meadows to death, lost her stoic poise today for the first time, and gave way to nerves.

Her chum of chorus girl days, Mrs. Peggy Caffee, was on the stand, telling the story by which the state hopes to hang the defendant.

She had described a shopping tour in the down-town district the day before the murder, had named the articles purchased, and had included among them a hammer.

At mention of the hammer a physical change came over the defendant. She seemed to lunge up from her chair. Her voice was hoarse, like the growling of an animal. "Tell the truth, Peggy," she said. "You bought that hammer.

Peggy looked at Clara and shuddered. There was terror in her voice as she answered Clara: "Clara Phillips purchased the hammer herself."

Forced Her to Put on Gloves.

Peggy told how, after the murder, Clara made her wipe away the blood that covered Clara's face.

"She made me do it. She gave me her handkerchief, and I did it."

The incident of the gloves:

"Clara's hands were bloody. Her gloves were dripping blood. She rolled up her gloves and dropped them into her purse. She made me give her my gloves—made me put them on her. She kept one hand on the wheel while I put the glove on the other."

The recital of the murder of itself—simple, horrible, vastly effective:

"Clara got out first and then Alberta, and I got out last. Clara said: 'My husband purchased you this car and those tires.' Alberta denied it. Clara said 'He did,' and struck her. She hit Alberta with the hammer on the right side of the forehead. Alberta's hat fell off. She ran down the hill, screaming. I ran up the hill, crying for help.

Was Herself Threatened.

"Then I heard voices and I started back. Clara and Alberta were coming toward me, arm in arm. As they got to the auto Clara said: 'He bought you a wrist watch, too.' Alberta said she bought it herself. Clara hit her again with the hammer.

"I stepped forward to take Clara away, to put my arms around her and pull her away. Alberta put her hands to her forehead and Clara swung on me and said, 'Damn you, I'll kill you, too.'

"I ran down the hill, screaming, until I couldn't run any more. I turned and saw Clara kneeling over Alberta's body. Her arm rose and fell, rose and fell. Her arm was red. It held a hammer. The hammer rose and fell, rose and fell. I guess I fainted. I don't remember any more except I was picking myself up and brushing off my skirt and Clara was right near me, tooting the horn of the machine. She told me to get in. I did. She said she would kill me if I told anybody. Her eyes were on fire. I was afraid of her."

Attorney Bert Herrington, counsel for Mrs. Phillips, questioned the little showgirl for hours, but did not shake her story in any particular.

Dairy Proprietors Fined in Pure Milk Crusade

Health Commissioner Bundesen's clean milk campaign bore fruits yesterday in the shape of four fines, running from $5 and costs to $100 and costs, levied by Municipal court judges on dairy proprietors. A. Griessemer, 1930 North Tripp avenue; Peter Bauer, 315 South Keeler avenue, and the North Shore Dairy company, 1822 Howe street, were fined for selling low grade milk and Alfred Nelson, 8931 Houston avenue, drew a fine for improperly capping his milk bottles.

home, one of the most impressive residences in Havre, to secure some keys. Approaching her home, Mrs. Christler said she saw the house lighted, and going in discovered Mrs. Carleton tearing up a number of photographs of the Rev. Mr. Christler and burning them.

Says Woman Talked Vaguely.

Mrs. Christler said Mrs. Carleton gave no explanation, but talked in an incoherent manner. After a while, according to the minister's wife, both women left the home together, Mrs. Christler joining her husband and friends and remaining in the restaurant until nearly midnight.

Returning to the Christler home with his wife, Dr. Christler commented that he smelled smoke. Mrs. Christler declared she did not tell her husband of Mrs. Carleton's visit, because they had discussed Mrs. Carleton in the past and she did not want to bring up the matter again.

The Christlers had been in the house only a short time when Mrs. Carleton entered, according to the minister's wife. The three engaged in an ordinary conversation for some time, said Mrs. Christler.

Pastor Goes to His Death.

When Mrs. Carleton arose to leave the house, Dr. Christler accompanied her into a small hall off from the room in which they had been sitting. Dr. Christler closed the door behind him. A moment later two shots rang out, according to Mrs. Christler.

The minister's wife said she opened the door and found the bodies. Mrs. Carleton's body had fallen across that of the minister.

Examination of the minister's body disclosed that a bullet had entered his right side and had pierced an artery. The bullet which caused Mrs. Carleton's death had pierced her heart. Neither the minister nor Mrs. Carleton spoke a word after the shooting, Mrs. Christler said, adding that she immediately telephoned Chief Moran.

Mrs. Carleton was regarded as one of the prettiest women in Montana. She was of miniature size, being scarcely more than 5 feet in height. She was a member of Mr. Christler's congregation and herself a public speaker.

Dr. Christler was a close friend of the Carleton family. His friends declare his interest was based upon his desire to aid the Carletons as a minister.

Later in the day Mrs. Christler sent telegrams concerning the shooting to relatives of her husband and of Mrs. Carleton.

Mrs. Christler also ordered the bodies taken over by a local undertaker and announced that burial of her husband would be in his old home in Cayuga county, New York, and that burial of Mrs. Carleton would be wherever relatives desired, Mrs. Christler assuming all financial arrangements in connection with both funerals.

Widow Is Niece of Senator.

Mrs. Christler is the daughter of the late David Wadsworth, wealthy manufacturer of Auburn, N. Y. She is the niece of United States Senator James W. Wadsworth Jr., of New York state. Mr. and Mrs. Christler were married in 1914.

Mrs. Carleton is the daughter of Don Davenport, formerly of Helena, Mont., now living in the Imperial Valley in California. Mrs. Carleton has a grown daughter by a former marriage.

Mrs. Christler is wealthy and contributed widely to charity during Dr. Christler's work in Northern Montana.

Dr. Christler was 46 years old. Graduating at St. Andrews seminary, Syracuse, N. Y., in 1896, he was four years rector of Calvary Episcopal church, Homer, N. J. He served as curate of the St. Peters church of Auburn, N. Y., from 1900 to 1907, coming to Havre in the latter year as missionary of the Milk River Valley.

A Giant of the Open Spaces.

The Rev. Mr. Christler was one of the picturesque figures of Montana churchdom. Standing 6 feet 1 inch in his stocking feet, built in proportion, and with a mass of brown curly hair, his oratory carried beyond the pulpit, and as a member of the Montana legislature his frequent rhetorical flights brought him the title in newspapers of the west of the "orator magnificent."

Covering a church area of several hundred square miles, from the Canadian border south to the Missouri river, which in Montana flows from west to east, he frequently traveled over a part of the country which has retained much of its rugged frontier aspects.

Speaking often in the open and hiking across country in leggings and khaki in pursuit of funds for the construction of a church edifice, he came to be known as "the bishop of all outdoors," for he claimed when on such financial errands that his parish territory was limited only by his ability to obtain transportation.

Through his efforts an imposing church was built at Havre and churches were established at Glasgow, Gilford and Malta, Montana. Dr. Christler and his work have been made the subject of many articles by magazines and other publications.

"BIG 4" UNION'S BANK WILL START WITHIN 90 DAYS

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers expects to establish a bank in New York City within ninety days, Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the engineers, asserted in an address here yesterday before the third annual congress of the Coöperative league. "We are going down in among the powers that be," he added, "and we are going to play the game with them."

Mr. Stone advocated control of credit by workers and farmers through organization of coöperative banks which, he said, would in time secure control of the basic industries and the railroads for the people. He predicted that ten more congressmen and senators will be added to the farmers' bloc at the next election, and asserted that twenty-nine directors of twelve interlocking financial systems control the railroads of the country.

MOTHER TRACKS KIDNAPED GIRL TO FLORIDA SWAMP

Finds Abandoned Child Near Starvation.

Mother love that urged a deserted Chicago wife to fight her way alone through trackless, swampy wilds of Florida until she at last found her abandoned 2 year old daughter, ragged and half starved, in a Negro hut deep in the everglades, brought its reward of happiness yesterday to Mrs. Harriet Travis, 4348 Greenwood avenue.

Clasping the object of her search in her arms, the happy mother laughed at the hardships which she had endured in her long hunt for the little girl.

Deserted Six Months Ago.

It was about six months ago that Mack Travis, her husband, deserted her. He always had been more or less of a ne'er-do-well. Even when he was working most of his pay went for his own amusement. He loved his daughter in those moments when she was not troublesome. He was a fair weather husband father.

Shortly before he disappeared he met a woman named Florence Penson. After that he spent less and less time at home. Then one night they skipped out together, taking little Helen with them. It was said to have been the Penson woman's urging that led them to take the child.

Police sent out the usual circulars describing missing persons, kept up the search for a day or two, and then dropped the matter in the rush of other routine.

But Mrs. Travis did not drop it. After searching for weeks she found where the Penson woman had last lived. Daily she visited the janitor in hope that some letter or message might come that would set her on the right track.

Tracks Child Into Everglades.

Finally she was rewarded. The janitor received a message from the Penson woman asking that her mail be forwarded to a place in Florida. Mrs. Travis caught the next train. She found her husband had tired of the Penson woman and fled, leaving the child with her. The Penson woman and baby also had disappeared.

From place to place Mrs. Travis tracked the pair. Finally she learned the Penson woman was traveling alone. Back Mrs. Travis went over the old route and finally learned the child had been carried into the everglades. Thither she followed.

She traveled alone through reptile infested swamps, slept in deserted cabins, and walked miles over jungle paths through which not even a flivver could thread its way. Five days ago she found the girl in a remote shack living with an old Negro couple, whom the Penson woman had given a dollar or two for the girl's care.

"But a few weeks of wholesome food and she'll be the same little dimpled girl she was six months ago," the mother prophesied happily.

GOTHAM'S 300,000 CLUB WOMEN WAR ON LONG SKIRT

New York, Oct. 27.—[Special.]—The New York City Federation of Women's clubs, representing 300,000 women, today opposed the long skirt. It adopted this resolution:

"As designers and dressmakers of women's apparel are now introducing garments whose edges very nearly or quite sweep the ground, and as such clothes bring germ laden dirt into the home, thereby exposing to great danger its hygiene and sanitation, the federation protests against such dictations and urges all women in the interest of health and safety to insist that their garments, including draperies and panels, be not nearer the ground than seven inches and cut in such manner and with sufficient material to permit of perfect freedom of all parts of the body."

LOVE TRIUMPHANT

G. O. P. NATIONAL CAMPAIGN FUND $721,359 TO DATE

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—Three Republican campaign committees—the national, senatorial, and congressional—filed preliminary reports with the clerk of the house of representatives today showing that $721,359 had been contributed to help elect Republican senators and representatives, of which amount $645,451 has been expended.

Heading the list of all contributors was R. B. Mellon of Pittsburgh, brother of the secretary of the treasury, who gave $25,000 through the Republican national committee. John D. Rockefeller was second with $15,000, and John D. Rockefeller Jr. gave $10,000. The Rockefellers, father and son, contributed also $750 each through the Republican congressional committee.

All told, there were seven $10,000 contributions, aside from one for that amount by John D. Rockefeller Jr. They came from Fred Upham, as treasurer, to the senatorial, in behalf of the national committee; William Wrigley Jr., Chicago; Dr. S. G. Kennedy, Tulsa, Okla.; the New Jersey state central committee; Frederick W. Allen, New York; D. A. Reed, Pittsburgh, and Henry F. Lippitt, former senator from Rhode Island.

The senatorial committee contributors from the $5,000 class were: William Wrigley Jr., Chicago; Samuel Insull, Chicago; J. A. Patten, Evanston; S. R. Guggenheim, New York; H. L. Doherty, New York; Otto Kahn, New York; Payne Whitney, New York.

E. F. Carry, Chicago, gave $2,000.

3 DIE, 2 HURT IN DAY'S TOLL OF AUTO MISHAPS

Mary Machiana, 6 years old, 700 North Tripp avenue, was killed instantly yesterday when she was struck by a motor truck at 3046 Ellis avenue. Kenneth Henderson, 3406 Ellis avenue, driver of the truck, was held.

Samuel Passero, 9 years old, 3026 South Wells street, died of injuries received in an auto accident a month ago. William Hoffmann, 5 years old, 1248 North Kedzie avenue, was fatally injured when he was struck by a truck in front of his home. Edward Hermann, 3555 Dixon avenue, driver, is in police custody.

Among those injured yesterday in auto disasters were Anna Michaleo, 8 years old, 1857 North Robey street, struck by a truck, and Abraham Rubin, 2907 Flournoy street, who was hurt when a north bound State street car collided with a south bound motor.

POLITICAL NEWS

At the third annual smoker of the Second Division association at the Hotel La Salle last night Probate Judge Henry Horner spoke warmly in favor of the Illinois bonus for ex-service men which is submitted to the voters on a referendum on Nov. 7.

Mrs. George W. Reinecke, chairman, announced that 943 women, many of them leaders in social, political and industrial activities, have accepted membership on a campaign committee working for Charles Ringer, Republican nominee for county treasurer.

Upon the motion of Dean Mary Ross Potter of Northwestern university, the Chicago branch of the American Association of University Women, a nonpolitical organization, voted to support Miss Helen Bennett, nominee for the county board.

James M. Dailey's press agent's announcement that the Dailey candidacy for sheriff had been indorsed by the Maywood Twentieth Century club is denied by Mrs. Frederick C. Hermann, president of that organization.

The recent appeal of the Municipal Voters' league for an early start toward the selection of good aldermen next spring is responsible for a meeting of Fortieth ward voters at the Monor house in Ravenswood Manor tonight. A nonpartisan association will be formed.

The World War Veterans have indorsed Henry A. Zender, Democratic nominee for Probate clerk, and John H. Lyle, Republican, for municipal judge.

Brunell Settles Suit of Mrs. Kalleen Out of Court

Admission that a "substantial settlement" had been arranged out of court led to dismissal yesterday of Mrs. Beatrice Kalleen's $50,000 heart balm suit against Frank H. Brunell, formerly publisher of Racing Form, by Judge Harry Lewis.

INDIANA G. O. P. WEARS SMILE OF CONFIDENCE

Counts on Beveridge Victory in Senate Race.

BY E. O. PHILLIPS.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—Albert J. Beveridge is picked by most of the Indiana political experts to be returned an easy winner for the United States senatorship, one week from Tuesday. An average of the obtainable forecasts from men who ought to know what is going on places the Beveridge majority over former Gov. Samuel M. Ralston at a shade better than 30,000.

The inner councils of the Beveridge campaign will listen to nothing short of a 100,000 to the good for "Bev"—as he is now hailed by Hoosierdom—and hope for a lead that will be sufficiently spectacular and impressive to convey to the nation generally the impression that Indiana agrees with Mr. Beveridge that he is foreordained to the Republican presidential nomination within the next six years.

The Beveridge enthusiasm of course is not shared by the Democrats, but there is a visible lack of pep in the claims made in behalf of Mr. Ralston. If the former governor takes down the prize, as the situation now seems to stack up, there will be some pleasantly surprised Democratic state leaders.

No G. O. P. Defection.

Some Republicans—very few however—are pessimistic over the Beveridge prospects. These come from the old stand pat crowd that has not become reconciled to the defeat of Senator New by "Bev" in the direct primaries, and the wish is father to the thought.

There is not the slightest symptom of an organized Republican defection such, for instance, as is occurring in Iowa, where the dissenting Republicans are out in the open working for the Democratic senatorial nominee.

The converse of the Iowa condition seems to exist in Indiana, and Beveridge probably is profiting by a disposition of certain classes of rural Democrats to decline to vote for Ralston. This Democratic element is figured sufficiently large to offset the loss of a big block of the organized labor vote, which Beveridge knows he is going to lose. Labor is reputed to be "off" Beveridge because he has no hesitancy whatever in smashing away at the Adamson law, and the railroad employés have marked him for slaughter.

Democrats Call for Cox.

Beveridge is in the open attacking the league of nations, and this, the Republicans claim, is of material assistance in Indiana, which is claimed to be thoroughly anti-league. Former Gov. James M. Cox is being imported from Ohio for the big closing Democratic speech, the first he had made outside of his home territory. All concerned are watchfully waiting to see whether Gov. Cox will step out for the league and the Wilsonian policies generally.

Incidentally there is some quiet criticism among Republicans, who say the Harding administration is not wearing itself into ribbons in Beverdige's behalf, particularly because, as the assertion goes, of the presidential possibilities that flit about Mr. Beveridge. As far as it can be judged, however, the Harding administration is doing as much for Beveridge as it is for most of the Republican senatorial and congressional candidates through the middle west, except possibly in Ohio.

SPURNED TIEUP WITH CITY HALL, DEMOCRATS SAY

Offered Machine Aid, O'Brien Announces.

BY PARKE BROWN.

In a statement centering about the charge that Republican forces are dodging real issues of the campaign, Martin J. O'Brien, chairman of the Democratic county managing committee, announced that city hall aid was offered their organization in return for silence concerning offenses of the Lundin-Thompson machine.

"We were told from the beginning of our campaign," he said, "through grapevine channels which usually carry that sort of information, that if we were good, or, in other words, if we would forget about the evils heaped upon the people of Chicago by Thompson and Lundin, they would support our ticket.

"We preferred that they go precisely to the place that is now their political home—to the headquarters of the campaign committee of the Republican organization."

First Admission of Proposal.

This was the first time any Democratic leader has admitted publicly that early rumors of a possible alliance between the hall and Democrats had some foundation. O'Brien's statement went on to make it clear that no such alliance is in effect today.

"The Republican headquarters," he said, "is running the campaign for Righeimer with a blare of horns. With due condescension, the city hall has permitted leaders of other factions to march with them under the black flag of graft and plunder. They are all of one mind about the necessity of reëlecting Righeimer, notwithstanding his success would be the equivalent of reincarnating Thompson as a formidable candidate to succeed himself as mayor.

"They have refused to meet this issue that is being thrown at their heads daily by the grand jury. They are distributing and posting lithographs and literature that come from presses of the Severinghaus Printing company.

Attack G. O. P. Slogan.

"In their distraction they have put forth the ancient and honorable full dinner pail, which sprang from the brain of Mark Hanna twenty-six years ago, as their outstanding slogan. We shall leave the question whether that is a pertinent issue to the millions of workers who, during the last two years under Republican auspices, have had their wages slashed to the bone and now find themselves facing mounting living costs which leave them the alternative of cutting down food supplies or going into debt.

"It seems to us that a more potent issue in this campaign is the full garbage pail. For three years households of Chicago have had to bear the disastrous consequences of failure on the part of the city administration."

FRATS CLASH WITH NONFRAT MEN ON N. U. CAMPUS

Rivalry between Greek letter students and nonfraternity and nonsorority students over the domination of social activities at Northwestern university came to the surface yesterday when Miss Dorothy Kruger of the Alpha Omega Pi sorority, chairman of the sophomore social committee, announced the membership of that committee. All were members of Greek letter societies.

RIGHEIMER GIVES PLEDGE TO CITY ON MAYOR RACE

In a typewritten statement sent to the newspapers County Judge Frank S. Righeimer yesterday made a "pledge to the people of Chicago."

"I want every voter, irrespective of party, faction or affiliation," he said, "to know that if I am reëlected county judge no man, no influence, no corporation, or no power except the qualified voter of Chicago will determine the results of the election next spring, and that this, my pledge, is made to the people of Chicago, to political foe and friend alike."

This promise was included in an attack on newspaper advertisements published by his opponent, Edmund K. Jarecki.

Better cheer prevailed at the Republican county headquarters during the day, and it was emphasized in a statement by County Chairman Homer K. Galpin.

"We are swinging into the last week of the campaign," he said, "with the prospects for our entire ticket growing brighter every minute. During the last week the whole city has awakened to the situation. The Republicans have conducted a clean, dignified campaign. They will continue to do so. There has been no mudslinging by our candidates and speakers, and there will be none. Voters, especially Republicans, resent vilification and personal abuse in campaigns.

"On the other hand, from the outset, the Democratic contest has been based on just that sort of thing."

Quickly Extinguish Blaze in Hospital

Fire, discovered in a molding near a chimney on the sixth floor of the West Side hospital at 1844 West Harrison street last night, was quickly extinguished by one of the internes. None of the patients even knew of the fire and the damage, hospital officials said, was only a few dollars.

Instant
Quaker Oats
Cooks to perfection in
3 to 5 minutes

Now there's a new reason for insisting on Quaker Oats. Our experts have perfected a quick-cooking Quaker which cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. So it means an oat dish almost ready to serve.

It has our super-flavor. All Quaker Oats are flaked from queen grains only. We get but ten pounds from a bushel.

But in Instant Quaker the oats are cut before flaking. They are rolled very thin and partly cooked. So the flakes are smaller and thinner—that is all. And those small thin flakes cook quickly.

Your grocer has both styles. Both offer incomparable flavor. Instant offers the quickest-cooking oats in the world. Say which you want.

TACTICS OF U. S. DEFENSE.

President Harding reveals a knowledge of tactics which should justify his position as commander in chief of the United States army in his letter to Secretary of War Weeks opposing further reduction in the size of the army. The President anticipates another campaign in congress to reduce the army to 100,000 men or less. He displays good generalship when he moves up his batteries and begins the attack to break up the enemy before they can perfect organization.

The situation is correctly summed up in the statement that "the army is now as small as should be contemplated, unless there should be a decided change in military conditions throughout the world." Europe, Asia, and the orient are armed camps. International politics abroad are a constant incitement to war. As long as that situation exists there is danger of developments which may involve the United States. It would be sheer folly for us, on a mistaken theory of economy, to wreck our army organization in such circumstances.

Yet that is exactly what is contemplated by the "little army" advocates. They have succeeded already, through the sentimental appeals of pacifists, and distorted arguments for economies which might easily prove disastrously expensive, in reducing the army to 125,000 men, which is well below the minimum advised by our best military authorities. Further reduction would be madness.

The President's letter reveals appreciation of this fact. Recognizing that appropriations already are insufficient, and asserting that expenditure beyond these estimates should not be approved, he still declares that there are limits in reduction beyond which we cannot go. There is no question but that that is true.

Even an army of 125,000 men is in itself insufficient in any such major operations as modern warfare requires. It is valuable for a real emergency only in so far as it provides the framework upon which an efficient modern army can be built quickly. In this framework, officers and noncoms are of vital importance. They form the bones of the skeleton which in emergency must be vitalized into a living force, capable of all functions. If a single bone is missing, the creation upon that skeleton is correspondingly crippled.

In the reduction of army strength, first to 175,000 men, then to 150,000 and then to 125,000, the provisions for maintenance of noncommissioned officers have been correspondingly reduced. Some 1,500 senior noncommissioned officers are facing reduction in rank and pay which is likely to drive them from the army. These are the men upon whom the nation must depend largely to train and direct recruits. They must be provided for.

Secretary Weeks has proposed an amendment to the national defense act which would provide for the maintenance of these trained soldiers. Even the contention that present estimates or appropriations should not be increased should go by the board in such a situation. There are emergencies in which no ordinary rules can stand. President Harding has shown wisdom in beating the "little army" propagandists to the punch on proposed reductions. But there could be no more serious reduction than the elimination of these experienced noncoms from the service. He should, we believe, go a step further and see that this heavy blow is not struck against our national defense.

NO STANDEES IN BUSSES.

While the Illinois commerce commission is debating the question of allowing the Chicago Motor Bus company to give Chicago much needed modern street transportation we would like to emphasize again the one condition upon which the franchises should be granted. That should be a provision allowing no standees in busses. No bus should be allowed to operate without providing a seat for each passenger.

That is the system in operation in New York, and it works. It can be made to work in Chicago if franchises are made conditional upon the observance of such a rule.

It is natural for a public transportation company to crowd all the passengers it can into a vehicle. When every passenger means a dime, the profit on standees is greater than the profit upon the limited number who can be seated. Of course many persons would rather stand than walk. That is proved in the indecent crowding of street cars and "L" trains. If the carriers can pack them in they will do so, and run fewer cars, thus reducing expense without reducing income. Now is the time to prevent such a development in the proposed bus lines.

A single clause in the franchise will do it. The result will be comfort and speed for passengers, and the development of a thoroughly satisfactory service. Standing passengers check speed. Stops must be longer to allow a seated passenger to crowd his way through a packed aisle to the exit. Stops must be longer to allow extra passengers to crowd their way into an overcrowded bus. Stops must be more frequent to allow the extra passengers to board and leave the vehicle. The rule of "no standees" eliminates these delays as well as the discomfort to both seated and standing passengers due to overcrowding. Without standees a bus could run steadily until a passenger wished to alight. Its stop then would be brief, and it could continue steadily until another passenger wished to board it or leave it. It is the only logical method of running a bus line for the convenience of the public.

Profits to stockholders is an entirely separate matter, which can be taken care of under existing law through negotiations between the company and the commission. But the matter of public convenience is paramount, and should be safeguarded by an inflexible rule against standees.

ADVICE TO NEGRO LEADERS.

The Chicago Defender is one of the leading Negro publications in the country. On the first page of its issue of Oct. 28 appears a two column cut of a Paris demi-mondaine on whose bare arm is a silhouette of Siki, the Senegalese prize fighter. Under this cut are the following lines:

> "Paris beauties not only carry Battling Siki, conqueror of the gorgeous Georges Carpentier, in their hearts, but wear him painted on their arms as well. These white women, living under the spirit of French belief in equality, liberty, and fraternity, are proud to honor their valorous countryman, although he is not white and is just a prize fighter. American chivalry is unable to rise to such heights of honest approbation."

We call attention to this matter because it illustrates a phase of the race problem as to which we think the colored people are being mischievously misled. Dr. Du Bois and others, black or white, who, in the so-called Niagara movement, and otherwise, have been propagandizing for the removal of social barriers between the whites and blacks, are sowing the wind. Whether the colored leaders like it or not, whether doctrinaires like Oswald Villard approve or not, there is and there will remain a profound instinct against race mixture. It is not a question of chivalry, it is a question of race self-preservation, and if the Negro leaders are willing to destroy their own race identity by intermarriage, white Americans are not. The social equality demanded by this branch of Negro leaders and sympathizers involves intermarriage and intermixture, which will not be tolerated in this country.

To encourage the colored people to seek and demand it is to invite disaster, not to the whites, but to the blacks. It is to foment a racial feeling which can have only a most tragic development, which will make any previous race violence seem paltry.

This ought to be realized by colored leaders, and is realized by some of them. But the preaching of social intercourse in the guise of social equality leads straight to destruction for the Negro in America.

"BIG TIM'S" ENNUI IS MUTUAL.

The nonchalance and ennui of "Big Tim" Murphy, under arrest at the detective bureau, smoking cigarets and ridiculing the methods of the law in a bored monotone, might be entertaining to one who did not know "Big Tim" and his record. Probably it is a delight and an inspiration to those of the underworld who admire and would imitate him. But the average Chicagoan, we believe, is becoming almost as much bored by the arrests and monologues of this notorious character as he himself could possibly be.

"Big Tim" gets arrested with such regularity and frequency that many persons are coming to believe with him that whenever the police or federal operatives cannot find the man they want they pinch him. Constant arrests, leading to nothing but publicity, seem to be making of "Big Tim" with reference to crime what a "carrier" is with reference to typhoid fever. He can spread the disease but he never succumbs to it.

The spectacle of a man constantly seized by the police, always sneering at the law as it touches him, and immediately justifying his contempt by appearing in his regular haunts, to be arrested again, is not good for public respect for law. It probably ceases to be even an irritation to the victim, and becomes an asset by making him an abused hero. It is such recurring illustration of the weakness of law enforcement as may convince many criminals that they can safely ply their trade.

"Big Tim" is under sentence to a federal prison in connection with a mail robbery. He belongs there, not in the detective bureau or in the headquarters of his bootblacks' union. If the authorities feel that "Big Tim" requires their attention they might put in the time now consumed in his arrests in an effort to get his appeal decided and to get him behind the bars for the crime proved against him.

Editorial of the Day

MURDERS AND EXECUTIONS.

[Columbus Daily Dispatch.]

Henry Barrett Chamberlin, head of the Chicago crime commission, addressed the American Prison association, at Detroit, Wednesday evening on "The Importance of Death Penalty for the Murderer." Ordinarily, at such meetings, one has come to expect little but opposition to severe penalties for crimes of any kind. To many the criminal seems to be primarily an unfortunate to whom our chief duty is to be kind.

Mr. Chamberlin, however, took a different tone. The murder rate is increasing in the United States, he says, and he is convinced from his study of the problem that at least one of the reasons for this increase is the misguided sentimentalism with regard to murderers which has led to a decrease in the resort to capital punishment. Experience shows, he holds, that the fear of capital punishment is a deterrent, and does reduce the number of murders.

The right of society to inflict that penalty, he says, does not spring from the gravity of the offense, but from the necessity of self protection. If the murderer is proved to be mentally irresponsible, he should not be allowed to remain at large for that reason, since society needs protection from the danger just the same, whether the person who causes it is responsible or not.

There has been a time in the past of most nations when penalties were severe beyond reason, but our extreme now is in the other direction. If we go much farther in the direction of penalties so light that the criminal classes think of them as insignificant, we shall reach the point where law abiding people will feel obliged to take their protection against crimes of violence into their own hands. Progress in civilization does not lie in that direction. Our attitude towards the legal repression of crime needs a decided stiffening up.

BLUFF.

Two beggar women met on the street the other day. "Fine coat you've got there. Where did you land it?" said the first one.

"Old Mrs. Gobsa Golde gave it to me," said the second beggar woman.

"Is that so? I've begged at Mrs. Gobsa Golde's a hundred times and she never gave me a cent. How did you work her?"

"Well, you see," said the first beggar woman, stroking her new coat complacently, "I didn't tell her I was begging for myself. I pretended I was begging for the heathen."—Pittsburgh Sun.

DOES A COLLEGE EDUCATION PAY!

Dear RHL: Let the self-made millionaires who still spell cat with a k and two t's sneer at a college education all they will! Does it pay? O she do, she do! A captain of industry and a malefactor of great wealth came out to the Midway to flaunt their gold in the face of some simple minded, poverty stricken student with a pale face, a hectic cough, and horn rimmed goggles and blackjack him out of his two tickets to the greatest football game ever pulled off east of the great divide. Heaven led 'em to me. They tried all the tricks of high finance, they sneered and they bluffed, but they finally came across with just exactly one hundred big, fat iron boys. Hoo lay, hoo loo, hoo roo! And besides I'll see the game anyhow because a janitor is going to let me and my girl sit on his roof for two dollars.

Wondering what you're going to do!

Tiger, tiger, burning bright,
Would you put on us a blight,
With our lads will you play tag,
Will you wreck poor A. A. Stagg?

Tiger, tiger, burning bright,
How we dread your awful bite,
In your firm Presbyterian way,
Will you our young Baptists slay?

Tiger, tiger, burning bright,
We hope to chase you out of sight,
And before this day grows pale,

KIDS' WINTER BATHING.

THE weather having put the "old swimming hole" out of business, shall we go unwashed until spring? That is a more important question than "Whom Shall We Elect to Congress?"

There are people who, in the natural course of human events, will decide the question in the affirmative. For instance, the children who are sewed up for the winter, and there are many thousard such.

The schools recognize the fact that a great many children reach school age with the no-bath-in-winter-habit and, in consequence, many school buildings are equipped with showers and pools.

The commissioner of public baths in Baltimore, Dr. J. E. Gichner, says that school baths are not a success unless they are connected with a gymnasium, and their use is part of the gymnasium work, or unless there is a pool and there is opportunity for the sport of swimming, or unless bathing is a part of the course of instruction, and time is given for it as part of the school work, and bathing attendants are provided.

When school baths are installed and offered to the children as a privilege, and the matter is allowed to drop there, they are not used and they soon become an idle luxury and a waste of public funds.

When the bathing habit has not been formed prior to 7 years of age and when, on the other hand, the child is addicted to the winter-sewed-up-habit at 7 years of age, something more than the privilege of bathing must be offered.

Dr. Gichner would have each school equipped with an individual shower and a separate, small dressing room capable of holding two persons, connected with the shower and with a bathing supervisor and a bathing period during study hours, twice a week.

To my mind, that would be expensive and not in accord with the spirit of youth. To tie a shower up unused, while a boy is undressing and dressing, is a waste of public money. If you wish, have a locker for each boy's clothes, though in summer time practice no harm except an occasional "chew bacon" results from leaving one's clothes on the bank.

Babies like to bathe or be bathed; older children hate to bathe alone or be bathed alone. But a bath in company is a riot.

Open showers in a large room, where profuse splashing is permissible, will be almost as attractive as a pool.

It will be safer physically than a pool or safer morally than individual showers with a dressing room for two.

SALT AND SALTS.

Mrs. F. writes: "I am told a professor of a medical university recommends the following for constipation:

"Take a tumbler of water upon arising, followed by four tumblers more in which one tablespoonful of salt is dissolved. Delay breakfast until bowels have operated.

"Would this be effective?

"Would its continued practice be detrimental?"

REPLY.

It would be open to the same objections.

SCALE ON FOREHEAD.

Mrs. S. M. writes: "My mother has a small crust or scale on her forehead. The scale, sometimes like a small piece of skin, can be clipped off. Then I touch with iodine and use an ointment, but it still stays. Would you advise leaving it alone, or treating with ointment—sulphur or zinc?

"She is a woman of 65 and never had a blemish on her face. This is very small and no annoyance except that it is there."

REPLY.

Let it alone. Do not pick at it or apply iodine.

If it becomes inflamed or oozes have a physician remove by X-ray or radium or carbonic snow.

REDUCING THE ABDOMEN.

A. B. writes: "Please print an exercise for reducing the abdomen."

REPLY.

Bending. While standing bend forward and touch the floor with your hands. Do this forty times.

Or bend the trunk while lying down by lifting the legs to the vertical, or by holding the legs horizontal and lifting the body to the vertical.

Spading is even better. Had you thought about that?

Of course you must cut your diet way down.

A FRIGID DIET.

Mrs. J. J. F. writes: "Will you please tell me if ice is harmful to eat. Before my baby was born I craved ice, and I ate quite a bit all day and at night before going to bed. Now my baby is 5 months old and I can't break myself of the habit.

"I was told that it is bad for the stomach. Is this so?

"I have pains in the pit of my stomach and between my shoulders."

REPLY.

It chills and blanches the lining of the stomach, and that begets thirst when the reaction comes.

NO INHERITED CONSUMPTION.

Mrs. J. S. writes: "My son is now in a government hospital being treated for consumption. While in the hospital his wife became pregnant.

"Is there any danger of the baby inheriting that dreadful disease?"

REPLY.

There is no danger of the child's inheriting consumption.

However, there is very grave danger that he will catch it if he remains in association with his father.

LOOKING FOR BONUS.

Chicago, Oct. 24.—[Friend of the People.]—I would like to ask if you can tell me what state I should receive a bonus from, according to the following facts. I lived in Florida until 1914, when I left and went to school in Virginia. In 1917 I left school and went to Des Moines, Iowa where I enlisted and stayed in training at Camp Des Moines for four months, where I received my commission as first lieutenant. Am I due a bonus and from where?
L. M. L.

Probably Iowa. It depends on the length of time you resided there immediately prior to your enlistment. The Iowa bonus law is not effective until confirmed at the coming November elections.

INTERFERING TENANTS.

Chicago, Oct. 24.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—I own an apartment building and have hired an experienced janitor. 1. Have the tenants a right to interfere with the janitor's work on the boiler of a building by putting on coal and wood and opening drafts, etc.?

2. Or should they put on excessive fuel to the extent that they damage the boilers?
C. M. P.

No, to both questions.
TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

SEEKS ANNULMENT FOR SON.

Chicago, Oct. 24.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—My son got married in Michigan in August, 1922, when he was only 19, but he said he was over 21. He is home now and I am wondering if I could have this marriage annulled. Where would I have to go and how should I go about it?
A. M.

It does not appear to be a case for annulment. If the wife left him he will be entitled to a divorce in two years.
TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

BAGGAGE IS STOLEN.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—I checked a piece of baggage from a Chicago depot and signed their receipt wherein it stated the company would be liable only to the extent of $50. On the night of the day it arrived at its destination, the baggage room was broken into, and among other goods my baggage was stolen. Is the company responsible for my loss?

A provision limiting the carrier's liability to less than the value of the goods is generally regarded as invalid unless such limitation is in consideration of a reduced rate.
TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

Chicago, Oct. 24.—[Friend of the People.]—My father was a foreigner. He did not take out naturalization papers until after I became of age. Am I an American citizen or not?
A. M. B.

If you were born in this country you are a United States citizen. If not, you did not become naturalized at the time your father did. In order to become a United States citizen you should apply for citizenship at the naturalization office, 776 Federal building, Chicago.

RENT RECEIPTS.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—To settle a controversy will you please inform me who is correct, "A" or "B"?

"A" states a landlord does not have to give a receipt for rent if tenant has no lease. "B" states a landlord does have to give a receipt for rent or no rent money.

In this controversy I contend a landlord is not compelled under the law to issue a receipt, and if party does not pay rent he can give him notice to move.
L. Z.

A is right. If the landlord refuses to give receipt the tenant should pay in presence of a witness or should pay by check or other instrument that will amount to a receipt.

MEMORY TESTS

1. Who discovered Florida and by whom was it settled and when did it become a part of the United States? Ponce de Leon in 1513. Settled by the Spaniards in 1565. Ceded to the United States and organized as a territory in 1822.

2. Who was "Fournier the American"? He was a murderous creole who had lived in New Orleans and took part in many of the bloody deeds of the reign of terror in the French revolution. He led in the prison murders in September, 1792, and massacred a score of prisoners given him to convey from Orleans to Paris.

3. What did Pope Calixtus III. do to Halley's comet in 1456? He exorcised and excommunicated it.

4. Who was Xanthippe? The wife of Socrates (a Greek sage, philosopher, and teacher), whose peevish scolding and quarrelsome temper have become proverbial.

5. What are five synonyms for the word acerbity? Harshness, acridity, tartness, acidity, and bitterness.

WHY ARE THEATRICAL PRODUCERS IN DIFFICULTIES?

Chicago, Oct. 24.—I have read quite a little lately about the failure of some good shows to make their stay in Chicago of any duration.

I came more than the length of the state of Illinois to see some good shows.

The ticket seller at the Apollo was very courteous. The others were not. They were not inclined to give out information. When they did it was in a "We have your money; gethell outa here" tone.

I went to another theater to get tickets. The box office was open, but I was called down hard again. "Not on sale yet," and with the last syllable was a dash of carbolic acid as an extra inducement to buy tickets.

Thinking I had presumed too much at the last place, I asked the next box office gentleman if the tickets were on sale. "Why most certainly," with some more carbolic acid.

I have reached the conclusion that your dramatic critic has been very kind to these shows in his writings.

LO, THE POOR INDIAN.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—While visiting the Glacier National park this summer I devoted some of my time in examining quite a number of children and adults of the Blackfeet tribe, whose reservation lies at the foot of the eastern part of the Rocky mountains. I found that practically all children were undernourished, anaemic and showed clinical manifestations of active tuberculosis. The medical survey seemed to be entirely inadequate and neglected. The rations which are supplied to the Indians do not contain enough caloric values to sustain them during the hard winter. The memoranda of my findings and suggestions for improvements were submitted to the Indian bureau at Washington. Any one who is familiar with the bureaucracy of the officialdom at Washington knows how slow and tedious the response will be.

The Glacier park, "the playground of the Blackfeet Indians," as one of our big railroads in its summer folder so proudly advertises, will be turned into a cemetery of the Blackfeet tribe before long.

The cry for help of these unfortunates rings every year into the ear of the Indian bureau, and yet this office remains deaf to their pleas.
DR. HANS NACHTIGALL.

"A CHANGING WORLD."

Chicago, Oct. 24.—Occasionally one human being can show another human where he is inconsistent. D. Davidson, writing on the race question in today's TRIBUNE, says: "Always there will be master and servant, leaders and followers, rulers and the ruled. . . . It is no small part of wisdom for one to know his place and keep it."

He seems ignorant of the fact recognized by all persons above the average of intelligence that this is "a changing world." Every individual in the world is constantly changing for better or worse. Many who attain leadership afterward fall back into the ranks of the followers. As it is with individuals, so it is with races and nations. They rise, they reach a zenith, they retrograde.

Mr. Davidson is biased in his reasoning because, like so many who are living under a cloud of race hatred, he wants [illegible] are different from the natural laws that apply to the rest of the so-called human race. [illegible] to know if Mr. Davidson knows his proper station and keeps it. Has he no ambition to reach a station higher than the one he now occupies? Hasn't every person of every color the right to aspire to a higher station in life? Hasn't also every race the same right?
W. S. LOWREY.

TRUE; BUT THAT ISN'T ALL.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Oct. 19.—The same old difficulty has arisen relative to the coal situation. During the spring, summer and early fall months all thought of getting a supply of coal for the coming winter is banished from the mind. The mines are idle; the cars are at a standstill; the miners have irregular work; the operators must keep the mines in condition at considerable expense; the consumer is the ultimate loser because of the consequent increase of price of coal.

Just before winter, and all at once, everybody orders coal for immediate delivery. Even though the mines could meet the demand, the transportation facilities of the country are inadequate to properly handle the situation. As a result, there is a coal shortage and a price boost due to the working of the economic law of supply and demand.

It would appear that if the public would obtain its coal during the dull summer months, the miners could be busy and earn steady money, the cars could be in use to the benefit of the railroads and their employés, the coal could be had, and the price would come down.

The writer suggests that an organized movement of operators, miners, retailers, and possibly the government as representing the public be conducted to educate the public, fully, as to necessities of the case, and urge and encourage it to stock up during the usual comparatively slack period of business for mines and railroads.

Saxton, Mo., Oct. 22.—I am writing to tell you that "William Wrigley" has perfect control of his "clock," which you so despise and dread. He is abundantly able to start and stop it at will, and has now willed that it shall start again with telling effect.

It will be exceedingly amusing and interesting to watch the traitorous politicians and the treasonable newspapers try to stop it.

PERMANENT REGISTRATION.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—They say the only way your tax bill can be cut down is to reduce the cost of government. Well, here's one way:

We have had three registration days and two revision days this year. It costs taxpayers $30 a day for each [illegible] in the city the registration and revision of voting lists costs us $397,650, plus the cost of printing, preparing and distributing paraphernalia in addition to this enormous cost of registration, and more than 10,000 voters have been disqualified.

The unreasonable imposition upon voters compels them to register on one of four days every two years, and costs the commonwealth loss of many votes. It should be [illegible] by a permanent registration with sufficient safeguards to protect the ballot.

Permanent registration has proved a success in other cities. There a person registers for voting purposes only once. When he first registers he gives a description of himself—height, weight, color of eyes and hair, and all particulars—and signs his name to a card on file. [illegible]

When the voter moves from one precinct to another he makes application to have his registration card transferred. Fraudulent registration is prevented. Periodically there is a canvass to prevent fraud in voting and opportunities for new voters to register.

BONAR LAW FINDS LLOYD GEORGE HAS WHIP HAND

Offers Olive Branch in British Election.

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Copyright: 1922: By The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, Oct. 27.—[By Tribune Wireless.]—A careful estimate of the strength of the various parties in the next parliament which has been made by Conservative managers is responsible for the olive branches now being held out in various parts of the country by Conservative organizations to Lloyd George candidates.

The Conservatives are convinced that they will only be able to govern the vote in parliament with the help of Mr. Lloyd George, who will have it in his power to turn them out at any time.

The new house of commons will consist of 615 members instead of 707, owing to the withdrawal of the Irish. The Conservatives expect to elect about 300 members and they estimate Mr. Lloyd George will have about 100 and Labor perhaps 150, leaving sixty-five to be divided among the Asquith Liberals and the Tory independent groups.

How Will Women Vote?

All this, of course, is based on the assumption that the women will vote like the men, but as this is the first general election in which they have taken part there may be some surprises.

Prime Minister Bonar Law returned from Glasgow this morning and began trying to complete his cabinet. He slipped into town almost unrecognized.

A couple of hours later Mr. Lloyd George left the same station en route to Glasgow, where he will speak tomorrow. He found a great crowd of his supporters at the station and all along the route crowds assembled wherever the train stopped, demanding speeches. He confined his speeches to a few words of thanks for the encouragement of his supporters.

Asquith Attacks Bonar Law.

PETERSBOROUGH, Eng., Oct. 27.—[By the Associated Press.]—Former Premier Asquith, speaking at Liberal meeting here today, said the independent Liberals still considered that the great need of the country was peace and retrenchment. He declared the final blow to the coalition was the mishandling of the near eastern crisis. Prime Minister Bonar Law's policy was largely negative, Mr. Asquith asserted, and when it was not negative it was gelatinous.

Lady Astor Sticks by Friends.

PLYMOUTH, Eng., Oct. 27.—[By the Associated Press.]—"Now that my late colleagues are down and out, I am not going to turn round and throw mud and insults at them," said Lady Astor, who tonight was unanimously chosen as the official candidate of the Conservative party for the Sutton division of Plymouth. "If you want me to join the people who are howling at Lloyd George, Balfour, and Chamberlain, who steered us through the war, who signed the Washington conference, don't come to me. The country owes a debt of gratitude to these men."

U. OF M. IS GIVEN GIANT TELESCOPE BY CHICAGO MAN

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—President M. L. Burton of the University of Michigan today announced a gift of $40,000 to the university by Robert P. Lamont of Chicago for the completion of a huge telescope and its mounting which will enable Prof. W. J. Hussey, director of the Detroit observatory, to complete astronomical work he commenced while he was at Lick observatory in California twenty years ago. He and Prof. Aiken of that station, working independently at first and afterward together, began a chart of the heavens.

The telescope gift of Mr. Lamont is intended primarily for the completion of the charting of the southern heavens, and it will be taken either to some place in South America or to Australia upon its completion.

The telescope, with its twenty-four inch refractory disk, will be the largest refractor in the United States, and Schott & Sons of Jena, Germany, from whom the disk is being obtained, may add three more inches to the size of the disk if it is found to be possible.

FREE STATE BID TO ULSTER WILL GET QUICK NO

BY PAUL WILLIAMS.

[Copyright: 1922: By The Chicago Tribune.]

DUBLIN, Oct. 27.—Two coming events of great importance in Ireland which already are accepted as facts are the approval of the Free State constitution and the decision of Ulster not to join the Free State. Plans are being made as if these had already happened. And the makers of them are more determined than cheerful. It was announced in Belfast tonight that Ulster will refuse to join the Free State when its parliament meets Dec. 12.

The executives of the six county government and the executives of the twenty-six county government see a long and hard winter ahead, which will be much more bitter than if they accepted the same administration building. The canny folk of Belfast will not erase their boundary until the Dublin Irish have proved conclusively that they can run the country.

Plan Early Election.

Meanwhile the provisional parliament here must enact the adult suffrage act so all citizens 21 years of age may vote very early in 1923, the first election under the Free State. The provisional government could continue for a year, but it has decided to hold an election as soon as the new and greatly enlarged voters' register is compiled.

Early in December President Cosgrave and the parliament will choose sixty men to compose the first senate. A considerable number of Protestants without a chance for election at the polls will be nominated for the upper house. Parliament will remain in session until dissolved for the election, passing the laws provided for by the constitution.

Ulster to Act Quickly.

BELFAST, Oct. 27.—[By the Associated Press.]—The Ulster parliament adjourned today until Dec. 12, when, Premier Craig announced, Ulster will "contract out" of the Irish Free State. He added the Ulster parliament is anxious to sit at the earliest time possible in order to prove to the world that it has no hesitation in the course it purposed taking.

HUNDREDS SEE GROUND BROKEN FOR NEW ZOO

Ground was broken yesterday for building the new 300 acre park and Chicago Zoölogical garden between the Des Plaines river and Salt creek, with hundreds of persons present at the formal ceremonies which marked the occasion.

John T. McCutcheon, president of the Chicago Zoölogical society, presided and among the speakers who outlined the history of the plan made possible by the gifts of Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick were Charles H. Wacker, chairman of the Chicago Plan commission, and Daniel Ryan, president of the county board.

The zoo will be included in the county's forest preserve system and under control of the forest preserve board. Dr. George Frederic Morse, curator of the Boston Zoölogical gardens, recently chosen as first director of the local zoo, will assume his duties on Jan. 1, Mr. McCutcheon announced.

A pleasant Sunday with tomorrow's great COLORoto MAGAZINE

THE COLOROTO MAGAZINE in The Sunday Tribune has become vastly more than just a section of the Sunday paper. It is the great magazine of the people in the five states known as the Chicago Territory. Lovers of fiction discuss the stories. Connoisseurs of art, printing and color reproduction watch eagerly for the magazine. Children clamor for the dolls and The Teenies. College men pin the pictures to their walls and others hang them in expensive frames. The list of noted writers and artists contributing to tomorrow's magazine includes:

Will Payne	W. E. Hill
Harold MacGrath	Corinne Lowe
Maude Martin Ellis	Mae Tinee
Penny Ross	William Donahey
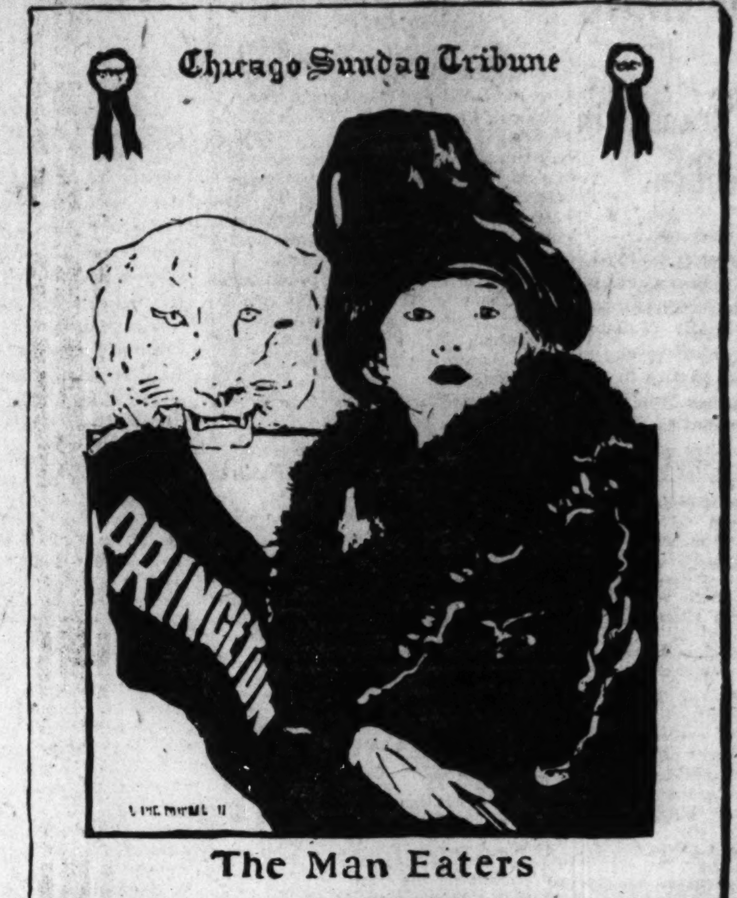
Adrienne Thum

Don't miss this 32 page, beautifully color-illustrated magazine, free with tomorrow's Tribune.



The Man Eaters

ART

PHOTOS

WHAT do you think of donkeys as polo ponies? Has the ex-kaiser picked a cathedral or a tiny chapel for his wedding? What do you think of Parkin, spectacular Hawkeye quarter back, in action? How does a lady tree climber in the Philippines look while emulating the apes? You'll find the answer in some of the fine photographs reproduced in rotogravure. Movie fans will be interested in a full page picture of Tom Meighan.

for the CHILDREN

ANY child who doesn't get The Teenie Weenies every Sunday is missing an important part of childhood. And "The Angel Family" colored paper dolls are adored by every small girl who sees them. Five hundred walking-talking dolls are to be given away for the best dressed dolls. The "Sub-Debs" appear tomorrow.

FICTION

"If a man takes the gate money," said the Boss; "he ought to play the game."

Will Payne's stories of crime have fascinated the whole English-speaking world, but none is more powerful than "The Boss' Bounty," which appears in tomorrow's Coloroto Magazine.

In "The World Outside," Harold MacGrath has written an incomparable serial of love and adventure. Read the synopsis of the story thus far, and get the big thrills coming in the remaining installments.

W.E.HILL

THE DEAN of men at one of the big middle western universities says that he recognizes "The Only Son" at a glance. W. E. Hill, in his delightful comics, pictures "The Only Son" and the only son's equally interesting mother in two pages of rich humor and sarcasm. Don't miss this big laugh tomorrow.

FASHIONS

TWO OR THREE girdles to a gown will not be unusual this year, according to Corinne Lowe, whose interesting pages on fashions occur regularly in the Coloroto Magazine. No woman who watches this department ever needs to worry about what is proper in good clothes.

Nine dresses, beautifully illustrated in colors, are shown tomorrow—afternoon frocks, coat dresses and evening gowns. They will charm the imagination of every woman who ever talked about clothes.

CANADIAN BOAT SEIZED BY DRY NAVY RELEASED

Emerald Reloads 1,000 Cases of Whisky.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—The Canadian schooner Emerald, recently seized about eight miles off the coast of New Jersey by prohibition officers, was ordered released today by the treasury department officials, whose action was based on recommendations from Secretary of State Hughes.

New York officials reported late today that the vessel had been turned over to her captain and was being loaded with her cargo of 1,000 cases of whisky, preparatory to sailing.

No Proof of Contact.

The exact finding of Secretary Hughes, giving his reasons why, from an international point of view, the seizure and holding of the Emerald was not in accordance with the laws of nations, was not made public. It was understood to be based on the broad general principle that the Emerald was not shown to have established contact through her own boats with the shore. This being the case, the vessel did not come within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States and therefore was not subject to the prohibition laws thereof.

This action closes an international incident which establishes an important precedent in the efforts to check liquor smuggling. If a vessel remains outside the three mile limit and does not establish contact through her own boats with the shore it would appear that all such vessels would be exempt from seizure.

U. S. Ships Dry World Over.

New York, Oct. 27.—[By the Associated Press.]—American steamships cannot carry or sell liquor in any part of the world, Federal Judge Hand held today, in a decision dismissing the suit of two American steamship companies to enjoin enforcement of the Daugherty prohibition ruling.

The ruling supplemented the one given Monday dismissing the application of foreign ship lines attacking the validity of the Daugherty ruling holding that no ship could enter or clear from an American port with liquor on board.

MENTAL PATIENT DISAPPEARS.

Police are searching for Rudolph Mianke, 36 years old, 1751 Lull place, alleged to be slightly demented, who disappeared yesterday from the Gibbs sanitarium, 4415 South Michigan avenue.

N. Y. COURT'S ACT SHAKES BANKS IN MEXICO CITY

Big Runs Are Laid to Decision.

BY JOHN CORNYN.

[Copyright: 1922: By The Chicago Tribune.]

Mexico City, Oct. 27.—The failure of the Bank Eulalio Roman on Wednesday has caused a run on a dozen banks here and in Vera Cruz. The Lacoud brothers, upon whom the run was heaviest, opened the doors earlier than usual in order to give depositors a chance to withdraw their funds.

The esizure of funds of the Mexican government in New York undoubtedly has contributed to the uneasiness of the public. It is reported that five of the largest commercial houses in the capital are about to close their doors on account of the commercial depression.

Millions Are Withdrawn.

All these rumors caused the withdrawal of millions of dollars from banks in the capital yesterday and today.

A charge is made by one of the largest daily papers here that the government is about to attempt the establishment of a soviet government through a union of the municipal government and the suppression of participation of the states, as outlined in THE TRIBUNE a week ago.

HUGHES CALLS FOR ACTION

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—Secretary of State Hughes today wired to Gov. Miller of New York asking him promptly to secure an adjustment of the diplomatic incident which has arisen over the attachment declared by the New York Supreme court on the property of the Mexican consulate in New York City in connection with a claim against the government of Mexico.

On Wednesday Manual C. Tellez, chargé d'affaires of the embassy in Washington, sent a communication to the state department protesting against the action of the New York court on the ground that this violated international law.

Orders Consulate Closed.

Today Señor Tellez telegraphed instructions to Rafael Musquiz, the Mexican consul general in New York City, ordering him at once to close the offices of the consulate in view of the attachment served by the New York court, which is regarded at the Mexican embassy here as a violation of that country's sovereignty.

The origin of the incident of the attachment by the New York court, according to Señor Tellez, was a suit against the Mexican government by the Oliver American Trading company for a claim of $1,250,000.

CHICAGO BOYS IN MATCH BIKE RACE PROGRAMTONIGHT

CARL STOCKHOLM.

The three cornered match race for the professional championship of Chicago will be the feature of the sprint and match race meet at the Coliseum tonight, which will precede the six day bike race starting tomorrow night.

The match will bring together Ernest Kockler, Carl Stockholm, and Roy Mobeck, three of the best riders ever developed in this part of the country. The race will be run best two in three heats at one mile each.

Yanks-Belgians Match Race.

Freddie Hill and Eddie Madden will wear the red, white and blue in a special match race against Alphonse Speissens and Marcel Eyckman of Belgium. Each American will race each Belgian in one mile match races and then all four will clash in a team match race.

Another event will bring together Alfred Goullet, Alfred Grenda, Bobby Walthour Jr., and Orlando Piani, champion of Italy. There will be a half mile handicap and a ten mile open in which all of the thirty professionals will compete, and the local amateurs to the number of nearly 100 will meet in a half mile handicap and a two mile open. Twenty events are carded.

Riders Try Out Track.

All of the professionals were on the track yesterday and pronounced it the fastest they have ever ridden. The Hawthorne club has taken more than 4,000 tickets for tonight and tomorrow.

PURPLE FROSH HOLD VARSITY ELEVEN WELL

Northwestern's varsity eleven closed its first week of drill for Illinois yesterday afternoon by trouncing a picked freshman team, 14-0, in a loosely played game, featured by the unexpected manner in which the frosh backs tore through Coach Trafton's line. The yearling's carried the ball within a few yards of the varsity goal twice, but were prevented from scoring by fumbles. Wallace Banner, Carleton Johnson, Baldy McLean, and Chuck Bouschor comprised the freshmen back field.

Bob Wienecke and Chuck Palmer scored the two touchdowns for the varsity. Capt. Paterson place kicked both goals. Bob Blythe piloted the team through a variety of formations, centering chiefly in cross bucks, long end runs, and short forward passes. Substitutions were frequent in the line.

George Leffingwell and Otto Henry, freshmen tackles, broke through the varsity line frequently and threw the backs for losses. Paterson, Palmer, and Wienecke all came in for their share of humiliation.

GREB STOPS NEW ENGLAND CHAMP IN FOUR ROUNDS

Providence, R. I., Oct. 27.—Harry Greb, American lightheavyweight champion, knocked out Larry Williams, light heavyweight title holder of New England and challenger for the national crown, in the fourth round of a scheduled twelve round bout at Mariville tonight.

Williams took the count of nine after Greb's right swing to his chin and as he tried to rise Referee Joe Thomas stepped in and stopped the bout, declaring Greb the winner by a knockout. Greb weighed in at 166 and the challenger at 183 pounds.

Frager Battles to Draw with Logan Across Lake

Benton Harbor, Mich., Oct. 27.—Sammy Frager, Chicago, and Eddie Logan fought a fast eight round draw in the windup of the local Elks' boxing show tonight. Two knockouts developed in the prelims, Bud Bradley flattening Jack Ryan in two rounds and Young McCormick stopping Andy Anderson in the second.

Nine Horses in $25,000 Race at Laurel Track Today

Laurel, Md., Oct. 27.—Nine thoroughbreds are scheduled to face the starter in the $25,000 Washington handicap tomorrow. The race will be over the mile and a quarter route. Clear weather and a fast track are predicted.

LAUREY ROLLER WINNER.

Joe Laurey of Youngstown, O., won the two mile professional roller skating race at Riverview last night, finishing in 6:39 4-5, ten feet ahead of Al Krueger. In the half mile handicap, Kohler, who skated from the seventy-five yard mark, was the winner, with Nack, scratch, second, in 1:28.

ST. VIATOR AT LAKE FOREST.

St. Viator's academy will journey to Lake Forest to meet the academy there. Last year St. Viators was defeated, 35 to 0. Lake Forest today will miss Marvin, 180 pound guard, who was taken to the hospital on Tuesday for an appendicitis operation. Rising and Lipe also are injured.

Jack ["Kid"] Wolfe, who boxes Sammy Mandell at Kenosha Monday, arrived in Chicago yesterday and stepped four fast rounds at Ferretti's gymnasium. After spending over an hour on the gym floor the Cleveland man called it a day.

Mandell, who has been in training here for the last week, is fitting himself for the contest at the Arcade. Sammy boxed six fast rounds yesterday and will go the same amount today. Both men will take light workouts tomorrow afternoon.

Walter Liginger, chairman of the boxing commission, came to town yesterday and stamped the pair O. K.

Bud Taylor, Terre Haute bantamweight, left yesterday for his home, where he is scheduled to box Battling Chink of Cincinnati in a ten rounder. Taylor was here helping his stablemate, Sammy Mandell, prepare for his bout with Jack Wolfe at Kenosha.

Jim Mullen has matched Mike Dundee, Dick Curley's featherweight, and Frankie Schaefer to meet in the star bout of ten rounds at his opening show at Aurora Nov. 10.

RUSSIA TO SEE GEORGES IN ROLE OF DIPLOMAT

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Georges Carpentier, former heavyweight boxing champion of France, passed through Berlin today en route to Russia on a special trade mission for his country. In an interview he admitted that he had hopes of being a second Herriot (M. Herriot is the Socialist mayor of Lyons who recently visited Russia, where he was reported to have accomplished much towards a rapproachement between the two nations).

ACQUIT O'ROURKE IN ASSAULT CASE

New York, Oct. 27.—[Special.]—Thomas F. O'Rourke, 70 years old, former deputy boxing commissioner and matchmaker for the Republic Athletic club, was acquitted today of an assault charge in the Court of Special Sessions, Brooklyn, brought against him by James E. Forbes, a sports writer employed by a Brooklyn newspaper.

Forkins and Welch Box Fast Draw at Davenport

Tunney's Aggressiveness Defeats Chuck Wiggins

Boston, Mass., Oct. 27.—Gene Tunney, former American light heavy champion, on his aggressiveness, was awarded the decision over Chuck Wiggins of Indianapolis after ten rounds of slow fighting tonight.

Woods and Waters by BOB. BECKER

FROM A BEAR "BLIND."

Waiting for bear! Sounds mighty thrillin', and sometimes it is, but on evenings when there is nothing doing, when the bears aren't stirring and it's cold and wet, and you're tired and hungry, the bear game is not so thrilling, and the little log cabin with its roaring fire looks good. One evening while waiting at the mouth of a salmon stream for Mr. Bear to show up I amused myself by making the following notes on the bird life as observed from my waiting place:

Another eagle! Bet he wouldn't sit so close if he could see us behind this stump. Here comes a pair of mallards. What a double a fellow could make on them. They are looking for a place to spend the night. Splash! Down they go into that little pool to the left. Sounds like a woodpecker over there in the woods. Seven more mallards. As a bear blind, this seems to be a good place for ducks. Hear some geese honking—guess Henry must be coming with the boat. If the flock comes this way I'll give them a scare. I hear the whistling whir of surf ducks rising and flying. Zowie! but there must be a bunch of them. Here come some ducks. Teal, this time. Green wings, too. Man, O, man! What easy shots they would be! Wish I had the .20 gauge instead of this big cannon. Another eagle, and right over my head, the nervy cuss. No doubt about it being a bald eagle, either; his head is white as snow. The coho salmon in the stream are bringing the eagles around without doubt. Quack, quack, quack, say the mallards, about sixty yards from me. No bear tonight, I guess.

SETS STAR PACE

RALPH GREENLEAF.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 27.—Ralph Greenleaf of New York, national pocket billiard champion, outclassed Benny Allen of Kansas City in their second block of the challenge match for the title tonight, leading 310 to 124. Greenleaf made 152 points tonight and Allen 34. The high run was Greenleaf's, 38, ten of which, however, came from an unfinished run last night. Next high was the champion's 25 in the thirty-fifth inning.

STEFFANSON IN WIN IN CHICAGO BILLIARD LEAGUE

Steffanson of Reading's broke into the winning column in the Chicago Billiard league by defeating Charles Le Gros [50], 42 to 39, in 62 innings at the Casino room last night. Le Gros had high run of 7, Steffanson's best mark being 3. In the other match at Schilling's Bert Tredick of McGarry's room, making his first appearance, defeated Helberg at Schilling's, 47 to 42. Helberg having to play 46 points. The loser had a high run of 5.

A run of 10 by Forrey, state three cushion champion, marked his victory over Tom Shea, in the Bensinger room tournament at Mussey's Madison street tables. Forrey won, 50 to 24, in 54 innings. In the balk line tournament, Bob Campbell defeated Frank Lyons, 250 to 106, averaging 6¼.

In the class A three cushion tournament at Bensinger's Wabash avenue room, Kelly defeated Rehm, 50 to 47. In the class B tournament, Bevacco defeated Trnax, 40 to 22.

Maupome defeated G. Sunde, 50 to 37, in 65 innings in their match at Mussey's Jackson street room. His high run was 5. Maupome will play Ed Fisher tonight.

L. Appleton defeated L. King, 75 to 27, and W. Levey beat F. Levey in last night's play in the handicap tournament at the Uptown Billiard hall.

E. ENGLER SLATED FOR GLEN VIEW PRESIDENT

Edward A. Engler, veteran member of the Glen View club, will be its next president, being at the head of the regular ticket which will be voted on at the annual meeting to night. There is no opposition. Mr. Engler was secretary of the Western Golf association in 1908, treasurer in 1909, and vice president in 1910. The other officers on the ticket are:

Vice president, John C. Slade; secretary, Varl R. Latham; treasurer, Edgar C. Rowe; directors for three years, Rufus C. Dawes, J. H. Fall Jr.

The Ridgemoor club will hold its annual meeting and election at the clubhouse tonight, the regular ticket, to which there is no opposition, being as follows:

President, Charles K. Anderson; vice president, D. E. Upton; secretary, E. R. Hoyt; treasurer, C. J. Swain; directors for two years, Frank B. Woltz, R. U. Simpson; one year, Judge R. E. Gentzel; holdover directors, E. A. Herrick, Judge Francis X. Busch.

John McElhatton, who has been professional at the club for several years, will leave at the end of the season to devote his time to the new Budlong Woods course, of which he is one of the promoters.

Olympia Fields Country club will hold its annual election of directors today from 12 to 6:30 p. m. at the clubhouse. The nominees on the regular ticket are Charles M. Smalley, Everett C. Brown, J. J. Pelley, A. Alonzo Stagg, Dr. A. F. Henning, Lee W. Barber, and William W. Harless.

Somebody dropped a shot in telling of the formation of the new Devonshire Country club. The club purchased 144 acres, 100 more than was stated in the story.

SENIORS WIN IN INTERCLASS MEET AT PURPLE GYM

With Stewart Crippen, captain of the varsity track team, setting the pace, Northwestern seniors romped away with the interclass track meet with 58 points at Patten gym last night. Sophomores, with 33, were second, and the juniors and freshmen, with 19½ and 9½ points, respectively, trailed to third and fourth places.

Crippen captured the mile, the pole vault, and the high jump for individual honors. Olie Dahl, senior, conference shotput champion, with a record of 42 feet, heaved the weight 41½ feet for an easy first. A preponderance of varsity men made the senior victory easy.

FORMER OSWEGO MAYOR DIES AS SON CARRIES BALL

Oswego, Kas., Oct. 27.—Pabez Zink, former mayor of Oswego, died today during an exciting point in the Oswego and Cherryvale High school football game, just as his son, Curtis Zink, Oswego quarter back, carried the ball to a point near the opponents' goal in a spectacular run.

A. P. Veteran Dies.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 27.—Frank H. Lewis, veteran Associated Press operator, dropped dead here this afternoon while attending a high school football game. He is declared to be the man who installed the first telephone in China.

Walter Smith Rolls 280 Game at Crsytal Alleys

Walter W. Smith set a high score for the Columbia Circle bowling league last night when he hit the 280 mark in a game at the Crystal alleys. Smith had eleven strikes and his performance brings him a $10 prize offered for any score better than 250.

AT THE FOOTBALL CAMPS

AT WISCONSIN.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—The Badgers took a light workout today, saving the heavy scrimmage for tomorrow, when they will stage the first open practice in weeks in a contest with the "frosh" and "all-Americans." They were given practice in hard tackling. Coach Richards is still shooting new formations to the team, and a slight change in lineup can be expected tomorrow. The squad is being pointed for the Michigan clash.

AT INDIANA.

Bloomington, Ind., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—Indiana will face the Michigan Aggies tomorrow with a team of cripples. Five mainstays, who were knocked out in the Wisconsin game and are still nursing bruises, will be allowed to rest up for the Notre Dame scrap one week hence. The Aggies arrived this forenoon and held a workout on Jordan field. According to their coach, several men also are in the hospital list. Indiana's final workout was a light signal drill and kicking practice. Half Back Thomas is developing into a real toe artist under the tutelage of Coach Murray.

AT HARVARD.

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—Another capacity crowd will look down from Harvard's stadium tomorrow, this time to watch the Crimson in the first football match it has played against Dartmouth since 1912. The Hanover eleven came down from New Hampshire today and is the huskiest aggregation Harvard has been called on to play against all season.

BIG TEN RULE BARS IOWA-NEBRASKA GAME

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 27.—Hopes for a post-season football game between Iowa and Nebraska have apparently been blasted. The proposal made by officials of the Ak-Sar-Ben was met with enthusiasm at Nebraska, but Coach Howard H. Jones of Iowa wired that a post-season game was impossible because of conference in prohibition. Last efforts are to be made, however, to obtain consent of Western conference schools.

Little Hope, says Jones.

Iowa City, Ia., Oct. 27.—Since there is an express rule against post-season games by Western conference teams, Coach Howard H. Jones of the University of Iowa said he did not see how the Hawkeye team can meet the Nebraska Dec. 9 at Omaha. He said Nebraska has a great team and that he would like to see the two teams play, but he could not see how the Big Ten could set the precedent.

KNOX GRID TEAM TO CLASH WITH BELOIT TODAY

Galesburg, Ill., Oct. 27.—The Beloit football team arrived today for its game with Knox as the feature of the eighty-seventh annual homecoming at Knox college tomorrow. Alumni are returning here and enthusiasm reached a peak last night when a crowd of more than 300 paraded the downtown district.

MICHIGAN GOLF TITLETOWATROUS

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 27.—Al Watrous of the Redford Golf club today won the Michigan professional golfers' title with a 72 hole total of 300 strokes.

Davey Roberson, Country club, finished second with 302; Charles Hilgendorf, Lochmoor, third with 306, and Mike Brady fourth with 311.

PLAY FOR TITLE.

The Buckeyes became a 10 to 9 favorite today with the definite announcement that Minnesota's best linesmen, Cox and Abrahamson, would be unable to start tomorrow.

It was evident during the final signal drill of the Gophers that Pederson would start at full back, with Oster second choice. Ohio will use the same lineup that started the Michigan game, although there was a rumor today that Hoge Workman, Ohio's star, was suffering from indigestion and would not start. Coach Wilce denied this.

All available seats are sold. This means a crowd of 25,000, and 20,000 requests for tickets have been refused.

CARDS AND BEARS END DRILL TODAY FOR "PRO" GAMES

The Cardinals and Bears, Chicago's crack professional football teams, conclude training today for tomorrow's games, both of which are among the most important for each this season. The Cardinals meet the Columbus Panhandles at Comiskey field, while the Bears clash with the Canton Bulldogs, the oldest professional football eleven, at Cubs park.

New players will be seen in the lineup of the Cardinals, one of whom is Karsh, tackle, who starred at Ohio State. Stevenson, lineman, saw service at Notre Dame, and Krieger, end and full back, is a former captain at Ohio university.

Grid Teams Trample Girl Crossing High School Field

Nashauk, Minn., Oct. 27.—Miss Rose Cream, 14, was recovering tonight from injuries she received when, while crossing the high school football field, she was knocked down and trampled by the teams engaged in scrimmage. Her left arm was broken.

NO INJURY TO TILDEN.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 27.—Physicians at the Germantown hospital, where William T. Tilden, national tennis champion, is being treated for an infected finger on his right hand, expressed the opinion today that the infection will leave no permanent injury.

HERB STEGER. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—Michigan will present a patched up eleven when the Wolverines clash with Illinois at Ferry field tomorrow. There have been changes in both the line and back field, caused by the loss of regulars through illness and injury.

Vandervoort and Roby, who were injured in the Ohio State game, will be unable to play. Rosatti, who was slated to play at guard, has been shifted to Vandervoort's berth at right tackle, while Johns was lifted from right guard to Rosatti's position.

Herbert Steger, the Oak Park star, has been selected to fill Roby's vacancy at left half. Although Harry Kipke is recovering rapidly from his light attack of flu, he may be too weak to play and will be replaced by Keefer.

Coach Yost is likewise suffering from a severe cold and was unable to attend Friday's drill. There is a possibility that he will be unable to coach the team in Saturday's game.

The game will attract one of the big crowds of the year here, with all seats sold before game time.

ILLINI DRILL AT DETROIT

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 27.—Keyed and ready for Michigan, the Illini took a light workout in the University of Detroit's stadium here today. George Dawson will pilot the Illini, Rune Clark being out, and Richards will replace Rokusek at right end. Illinois worked on an aerial attack.

ROOTERS FOLLOW ILLINI

CENTRE NOT TO PLAY ARIZONA

Danville, Ky., Oct. 27.—Announcement was made here today that Centre college football team would decline the invitation of the Phœnix chamber of commerce for a post-season football game with the University of Arizona eleven.

20,000 SOUTHERNERS TO SEE GEORGIA TECH BATTLE NOTRE DAME

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—Twenty thousand people are expected to attend the grid classic of the southern season when Notre Dame meets Georgia Tech tomorrow. Visitors from all sections of the south have congregated.

Preceded by the prestige of many successful years, Coach Rockne and thirty-four Notre Dame players arrived here at noon Friday and limbered up for an hour at Grant field.

Georgia's defeat by the Navy last week has not disturbed Tech supporters, who consider the Tornado invincible on its home field. No southern team has ever defeated Georgia Tech at Atlanta and the south calls on its men to uphold the tradition.

Red Barron and Paul Castner are conceded by local papers to be the stars of each eleven, and the duel between these men is regarded as the pointer to victory. The lineup:

	Notre Dame.	Georgia Tech.

GREAT CROWD TO SEE YALE-CADETS BATTLE

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—With West Point and Yale elevens gathered under the New Haven roof tonight, awaiting the referee's call for the football game which tomorrow may surpass all American attendance records, the effusive betting, the clamoring crowds lacking hotel accommodations, and the rah-rah chorus of undergraduates was lacking.

The city housed only a few hundred of the advance crowd, wagers were few, because Yale was timid and unwilling to advance odds. The ticket sale insures an attendance of approximately 80,000, with tickets never scarcer.

Both elevens practiced in the bowl this afternoon. Both ran through their signals, and both tried punting under the weird air currents that flitted over the subway field.

The West Point squad, headed by Maj. Charley Daly, afterward was whisked to Derby, where they will remain at the Hotel Clark until the game.

Yale awaits the stormiest test of its defense for forward passing which has been given it this fall, with Field General Smythe tossing the oval, and with such stellar receivers as Ends White and Storck.

NAVY FULL BACK OUT OF TODAY'S PENN CONTEST

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—Skipper Folwell and a big delegation of navy notables were whisked in Broad street station at noon and immediately taxied to the Bellevue. There Head Coach Folwell, looking glum for the first time in his career, announced that Steve Barchet, the flashy little full back, will not start tomorrow's game against Penn.

Barchet is said to have a bad ankle, but it is evident the Navy will hold back until the psychological moment. Hughes, a 145 pounder, will fill in for him. Still another change has been made in the Navy lineup, Walker replacing Shewell at right tackle.

"It will be a great game, with either team having a chance to win. Further than this I do not care to comment on the result."

This was the statement of Bill Roper, coach of the Princeton football team, which will meet Chicago today on Stagg field. From the tone of Bill's voice and the determination on the faces of his players, the game will be featured by aggressive football on the part of the Tigers.

The men from jungletown arrived at the Chicago Beach hotel shortly after noon. Their train was late, and after a hasty luncheon they repaired to Stagg field, where Roper sent them through formation drills and permitted Cleaves and Von Gerbig to do some punting. Forward passers and the receivers came in for attention, but most of the time was spent in getting acquainted with the surroundings and learning about the air currents which shoot through the many exits and channels around the field.

Bear Marks of Action.

The Tigers showed the effects of the hard struggles engaged in this year. Some carried colored eyes and others wore patches on their noses. Some limped badly, but in general it is a good looking squad, evenly balanced in weight, with a few players over 6 feet tall. Although determined, the men were in a happy frame of mind despite the delay on arrival.

Needless to state there were many alumni of the Tiger institution on hand to greet Coach Roper, Trainer Keene Fitzpatrick, and the squad.

Among those on hand to welcome the Tigers was A. A. Stagg, coach of the Maroons. The Midway mentor waited until Princeton arrived to see that the reservations were satisfactory and to ask Coach Roper if there was anything he wanted done at the field. Stagg also told the Princeton coach he could use the field for the entire afternoon.

Gorman to Pilot Team.

With the exception of two positions, right end and one of the back field berths, Coach Roper has practically decided upon the lineup for the first kickoff. Either Tillson or Stout will start at right end and either Caldwell or Emery at one of the back field positions. The Tiger mentor, however, asserted he will make many changes as the game wears on.

Gorman, a diminutive looking fellow who weighs 156 pounds, will pilot the team from the quarter back position. According to Don Lourie, last year's Princeton quarter back, Gorman has great possibilities and gets more drive out of the team than any of the other quarter backs. He also is a sure handler of punts.

Cleaves and Crum will be the other players in the Tiger back field in addition to the final selection between Caldwell and Emery. Cleaves is the man feared on the Midway for his punting and open field running. Von Gerbig, who did so well in the Chicago game a year ago, is sure to get into the battle at some stage.

Plan Running Attack.

Makeup of the Tiger back field indicates Coach Roper will use a powerful running attack. Formations may be started from back field shifts and behind unbalanced lines. The kicking game will be used whenever the oval rests dangerously in Tiger territory. Passes will be called into play only when in Chicago's field.

Princeton is bent on winning, but it will not show any of the formations which are being held under cover especially for Yale and Harvard. The team will use everything else it has been taught, including many plays especially for today's contest.

The last minute switch of Coach Stagg in placing Otto Strohmeier at quarter back will give Chicago more offensive strength. Strohmeier knows a lot of football, and his selection of plays should aid the Maroon attack greatly.

Maroons Excel in Plunging.

On the eve of battle neither eleven can be said to have a decided advantage. The Maroons may excel in line plunging, with John Thomas and Zorn, while the Tigers should have the best of the end running if any of the men are successful in skirting the Maroon flank players. In open play Chicago is sure to try all sorts of forward passes. They will be short and long.

Cleaves and Von Gerbig should have a slight advantage over Strohmeier, Pyott or any other Chicago kicker. The accuracy with which these kicks are placed will determine in a large measure the yardage to be gained on exchanges, although the cleverness with which they are handled will have a great bearing also.

The field is in perfect shape. The turf is secure enough to insure firm footing. Coach Roper and his players were well pleased with the playing surface as they scampered over the sod.

Following an agreement between Stagg and Roper, teh central board on officials selected two from the east, while Prof. R. W. Aigler of Michigan, chairman of western conference coaches' committee on officials, named the other two.

IN the WAKE of the NEWS

MAROONS VS. TIGERS.

OTHER things being equal, or nearly equal, the eleven with the greater fighting determination wins in football. If one could know in advance the mental attitude of Maroons and Tigers, his choice of victor this afternoon would be less precarious.

Chicago invaded Princeton last fall keyed to high tension in the desire to achieve success and add prestige to western football. It accomplished its purpose. Reports from the east lead us to believe Coach Bill Roper has instilled some of this same spirit into his Old Nassau charges. Princeton is prepared for and expects a hard game.

On material, as judged from last year's contest, Chicago has a team which should rule a slight favorite—if it had shown strength this season. Form of the Maroons against Northwestern or Purdue, however, should not defeat any representative Princeton squad. Unless Stagg's young men realize they are engaged in a serious affair, they will come a cropper.

Reports from Midway practice up to Tuesday were not encouraging. We rely upon the veteran master of strategy, Stagg, to remove any easy self complacency enjoyed by his veterans. It will take better football than yet shown to beat the Tigers. Whatever Stagg has had held in reserve will be unleashed this afternoon.

If Chicago plays the football it ought to play and which it has not yet played this season, we anticipate a Maroon victory. Mental attitude will have a large part in determining the result.

Nickel! Nickel! Who's Got the Nickel?

[Place—Public Booth.]

Where do all the nickels go?
I dunno—I dunno.
"Number, please," I hear her drone
In that weary monotone.
Plain I answer, very quick—
A buzz, a whir, a knock, a click.
"Line is busy. Call again."
"Give me back my nickel, then."
"O, I'm sorry, sir, to say,
Your nickel went the other way.
Give your address, sir, then I
Will return it." I comply.
A score of times this thing I've done,
But never has my hard earned mon
Wandered back to me, and so—
Where they go—O, I dunno.

DIES FROM GRID INJURIES.

expected. His absence was supposed to double the seating capacity of the Princeton section.

Hildebrand on Hand.

At the head of the heroes sat Arthur "Doc" Hildebrand, greatest of all the heroes of Nassau, just down from his ranch in Dakota, and it is well for Chicago he is not in the lineup today.

Sammy White, the greatest baseball leader and one of the greatest football men of history, sat with Eddie Hart. Bill Spencer, the track and football man, came on from Erie, forgetting his D. S. C. and croix de guerre in pride of his Princeton records.

Three of the Poes were there—Nat, leader of the Omelettes, the Princeton scrubs, for years; Arthur, who was on Big Bill Edwards' team; and Gresham. Don Lourie, worn from the final work of preparation of the team, came to the rally, and with him Gilroy, now out of the limelight, but working bravely to help the team. There was Trimble, captain of one of the greatest of Tiger teams; Dayo, the pitcher who made history; Harold Opie, center, and a fighter; Puffy Bigler, leader in '19; Ralph Bard, '06, who has songs sung about him still when the sons of Nassau gather; Phil King, '14, son of one of Princeton's greatest, and himself a hero; Herbert McCoy, '02; Ralph Hoagland, '95; Dick Dwight—a host of them.

Old Grads Pour In.

There were more than five hundred old grads registered at the Drake, and still they poured in through all the afternoon and evening.

At night President Hibben and Prof. Christian Gauss, who knows almost as much football as he does of modern languages, and Coach Bill Roper inspired the Tigers to greater efforts.

At the Chicago Beach, where the team and its handlers gathered, and the Drake, where the grads assembled, the Tiger growl drowned the Maroon yells.

The banquet at the Drake last night was the day's climax. Frederick H. Scott, '00, president of the Princeton club of Chicago, presided, and President Hibben made the chief address. Then Roper, leading the band of coaches and former stars who have whipped the Tiger team into shape, appeared, and the grads broke loose.

St. Louis Grads in Flocks.

Before midnight the black and orange of Princeton spread over the city—and it was just the beginning.

CLOSE OFF STREETS

AUTOMOBILES will not be allowed to enter Stagg field today. The streets surrounding Stagg field, 56th and 57th streets between University and Ellis avenues and University and Ellis avenues between 56th and 57th streets will be closed to traffic after 12:00 to assist the ushers in handling the crowd.

The incoming trains from the east late last night and this morning are packed with Princeton rooters. The 8,000 seats assigned to Princeton are held by Princeton men—yet only a favored few, less than fifty, of the undergraduates were able to join the invasion. The St. Louis Princeton alumni came in automobiles by droves, reaching Chicago during the early evening.

This morning the Drake will be the rallying point, and the committees of the graduate council will meet.

Last minute efforts of the fans to secure tickets, and the despairing attempts of belated applicants to secure seats, brought an acute climax. In spite of the reports of many tickets being in possession of scalpers, extremely few were to be had at any price. Fifty dollars each was offered in vain for a pair.

Helps Others, Loses Himself.

Prof. Christian Gauss, who distributes the tickets at Princeton and heads the public relations of the university, was so busy fixing others he forgot to get his own press ticket, and was appealing for assistance.

Information among the old grads was that Princeton is a better team than it has been given credit for being, with a big IF as to how it will hold its head in the first ten minutes. Their scouts have given bearish reports on the Maroon line. But the old grad doesn't care for that; when the Princetonian sings "Old Nassau" he'll bet the fortune or the flivver on his team.

MAROONS CONFIDENT

Chicago students, thousands strong, paraded the campus last night and staged a "pep" session for the Princeton game. "The Old Man"—Coach Stagg—made a short talk in which he predicted victory for the Maroons "if they play as well as they did against Princeton last year." Capt. Lewis also expressed confidence in victory. Mandel hall was crowded to the doors by the "pep" enthusiasts.

WHAT TRAINING MEANS TO A FOOTBALL PLAYER

BY GENEVIEVE FORBES.

Don't raise your boy to be a football player unless you want him to be afraid. Afraid of girls, of cream puffs, of muddy days, of flunking in his studies. Afraid of everything but the game.

"For if a fellow plays football he can't think of anything else," said Capt. Mel Dickenson, head of the Princeton eleven (there are thirty-seven of them), which meets the University of Chicago team this afternoon at Stagg field.

"Training doesn't mean simply eating and drinking the right thing. It means staying away from dances. It means forgetting all about girls, almost. It means eating baked potatoes until you're ashamed to crack open their skins."

Spud Backbone of Squad.

Baked potato, Capt. Dickenson explained, is the backbone of the squad. Luncheon yesterday consisted of cold meat, toast and baked potatoes. Supper presented them with meat, two kinds of toast and baked potatoes. And today at 11:15, when the boys eat their luncheon, it will be cold meat, hot broth and baked potatoes.

Capt. Dickenson never would get a job in a college play, as the football hero. He doesn't look dirty enough, off the field. He is tall and slim. His tenor voice is soft; not even mud can cover up the dimple in his right cheek, and he does use a comb. Once, when he missed a pass, he forgot himself and mumbled, "O, boy!"

"He plays the game with his brain and his body, not with his tongue," explained Coach Roper.

Different on Field.

But half an hour later, these same gentlemen trotted out on Stagg field. They wore no gardenias, and they wiped, undismayed, the sweat from their cheeks with dirty fists.

"Don't take any more pictures," pleaded Capt. Dickinson, "these guys are football players, not prima donnas," and he waved away the camera men. They went.

"Training," Dickenson explains, "never bothers a real guy who wants to play football. And if he isn't real he won't last very long."

Asked whether or not players get excited before a game, he didn't seem to know just what the question meant. If it means "you can't wait to start, then you bet we're excited. If it means afraid, then we're not. Why, I've known many a fellow who never lost his nerve on a forward pass who turned white at his own wedding."

Princeton men have just one superstition. They won't get their hair cut before a game. But they slick back their locks with water and a comb and even the most zealous souvenir hunter couldn't claw away enough for a finger full.

Long "Off Feet" Ordeal.

The hardest thing a player has to do, the men all agreed, is to "stay off his feet" the morning of the game. Between the hour of breakfast this morning, 7:30, and the 11:15 luncheon, the men wil be "carried off their feet" if they attempt to walk around. During these hours of enforced rest the men won't discuss the game.

Girls and football? The bulky letters which stuffed the well creased trousers of the sartorially correct footbal squad weren't the kind that mother writes.

IOWA TACKLES PURDUE TODAY IN FINE SHAPE

Iowa City, Ia., Oct. 27.—[Special.]—The reorganized Iowa university eleven awaits the battle with Purdue tomorrow in better condition than followers of the Hawkeyes had earlier anticipated. Coach Jones sent the squad through a snappy workout, despite excessive heat, and Kritz, Otto, and Nugent, all new men, showed well and will start the game.

There is little chance of Parkin getting into the game, but Capt. Locke has surprised even his most ardent admirers by the way he is playing quarter back. Two thousand Iowa Shriners will witness the game.

Coach Phelan and his Boilermakers arrived today and the squad had a light practice on Iowa field.

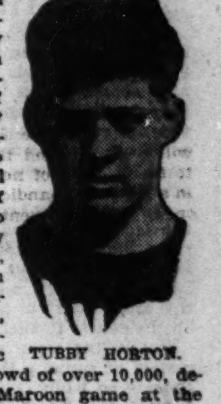
BY LARRY DAILEY.

Pointed throughout the season with their meeting as the great objective, Hyde Park and Lindblom High elevens clash today at White City at 2:30 o'clock in a game that promises to be one of the most bitterly fought this season in Chicago prep football. Championship of the Chicago league probably will be decided, and this fact, with the intense rivalry of the schools, assures a memorable scholastic conflict and a crowd of over 10,000, despite the Tiger-Maroon game at the Midway.



TUBBY HORTON.

Hyde Park, 1921 champion, enters the scrap with a heavy team, now at the top of its game. But despite its beef and prestige the Blue and White is not favorite to win. The veteran and powerful Lindblom eleven has exhibited a resourceful attack and sturdy defense this season. Lindblom defeated Englewood, 32 to 0. Hyde Park was held, 19 to 0, by Englewood.

Duvall Brilliant Leader.

Coach Scanlan of Hyde Park has built his attack around Chuck Duvall, brilliant captain-half back. A great forward passer, kicker, and runner, and with a powerful line, Duvall has been enabled to work all three attacks in past games. Duvall and Horton, full back, form a constant menace.

Lindblom, too, has a brilliant back in Walter Marks, as great a ground gainer as there is in the league. Marks is ably assisted by Harry Carlson, quarter back.

Austin Meets Senn.

Oak Park and Evanston meet in the feature contest in the Suburban league. The Evanston affair should determine which team shall be the one to challenge Proviso for the commuter circle title.

MAINE BEATS PARKER.

NEW BASIC LAW OPENS WAY TO SPEED JUSTICE

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

ARTICLE NO. 10.

One radical change in the courts contemplated by the proposed new constitution which goes to a vote Dec. 12 gives the supreme bench exclusive power to prescribe rules of pleading, practice, and procedure in all courts. Its aim is to reduce the law's delays and to speed up the administration of justice.

Under the old system the legislature has had the power to pass laws prescribing the rules of pleading, practice, and procedure, and the result has been the accumulation of a cumbersome pile of junk that has helped to slow up the courts and clog up the calendar. Any observer who has sat on the sidelines at Springfield has seen how the present system works. A country lawyer or a city lawyer comes a cropper in the courts due to some rule or lack of rule.

Laws Pile Up.

At the next session of the legislature up bobs a bill dealing with the subject. Sometimes it lands in the pigeonhole and sometimes it passes. The pile keeps mounting with no coherency and the net result after a few decades is something fearsome to behold. So some of our most excellent judges maintain.

For years they have loudly criticised the lack of systematized, up to date rules that would chuck away the useless litter and put the courts on a basis that would mean prompter justice and would pin down responsibility on the courts themselves.

Out in the country districts the old system of running the courts does not operate so badly, but in the great industrial centers it works like a traffic jam with no crossing policeman on the job. Cases are strung out for years, until the witnesses grow white haired or disappear, and the delays often have meant a denial of justice.

Premium on Crime.

Fervent views on this are uttered by police authorities and by leading members of the bench and bar—for years they have been declaring that the law's delays put a "premium on crime."

The delegates in their address submitting the new draft point out that "protection against possible abuse of power by the Supreme court in making its rules is afforded by a provision which permits the general assembly to set aside by special law any rule of pleading, practice, or procedure."

For one thing the abuse of habeas corpus may be checked. Lawyers point out that in Cook county each one of the forty judges of the Circuit and Superior courts has power to issue the writ of habeas corpus and to discharge prisoners in the custody of the police or the sheriff.

Last winter the police department heads complained loudly when prisoners in some cases were "sprung" from their custody before they had even been brought from the place of arrest to headquarters. In more than one instance the offenders had been caught with the goods.

Under a highly developed gang organization, criminals now operate with a legal and financial backing. The crime commission has pointed out that in some groups the apparent method its to call up at stated intervals, every hour or so. If the robber or snatch purse fails to pull the box, the word is sent to the lawyer who at once gets busy with habeas corpus on the theory that a "pinch" has been made.

Or, if one of a predatory crew working in a gang, is caught those who escape rush to a telephone booth and start the habeas corpus lawyer on his way to a courtroom. And the way in which lawyers sometimes have been able to rush from one courtroom in which a client has been convicted into another courtroom where a release on habeas corpus is effected has been denounced for many a year.

Full Remedy Provided.

Lawyers do not seem quite to agree on how far the Supreme court can go in quelling abuse of habeas corpus. Hiram T. Gilbert, however, "father of the Municipal court act," who for twenty years and more has followed legislation affecting the courts closely at Springfield, in his commentary upon the proposed new judiciary article declares a full remedy for the evil is provided.

He maintains that in the exercise of its rule making power the Supreme court can "forbid the indiscriminate issuance of habeas corpus by any one of forty judges" and can provide that these writs shall be handled by some specified branch or department of the new consolidated Circuit court. He points out also that the supreme tribunal will have powers to prescribe rules to protect individuals from illegal or improper arrest and detention and from improper treatment while under arrest, which will lessen the resort to habeas corpus.

"Unscrupulous members of the bar may be displeased with this reform," he says, "but law abiding people will not be."

C. A. C. COMMITTEE URGES RATIFICATION OF NEW CONSTITUTION

Through a resolution adopted by the executive committee of the Chicago Association of Commerce yesterday that organization indorsed the proposed new constitution for Illinois and pledged itself to work for its passage at the special election on Dec. 12. The resolution reads:

"Resolved, That in the opinion of the executive committee of the Association of Commerce the question of whether or not the new constitution shall be adopted is the most important question upon which it has had the duty of taking a position since the world war, and is the most important question, considered from the point of view of citizens of the state of Illinois, that has arisen in many decades; that the new constitution contains in its provisions many reforms of the most vital character absolutely required for the future growth and prosperity of this state; that the Association of Commerce indorses in the most emphatic way possible the draft of the new constitution and hereby pledges itself to use its utmost endeavor to urge in all proper and legitimate ways the adoption of the new constitution by the voters at the polls at the special election to be held on Dec. 12."

FIRE COMMITTEE ADOPTS 2-HEAD PLAN ORDINANCE

ALD A. O. ANDERSON.

Joint rule of the fire department by a civilian commissioner and a fire chief appointed from the uniformed rank came a step closer yesterday when the council fire committee approved the new fire ordinance with only three unimportant changes in the draft prepared by the city law department.

Ald. A. O. Anderson, supported only by Ald. Arthur F. Albert and John J. Coughlin, introduced fifteen amendments to the measure, prepared by Attorney Lester L. Falk, representing ten important civic and property owners' organizations, but one by one they were voted down by the committee.

The committee's action opens the way to Mayor Thompson to name a fire commissioner and it is reported that his selection will be Business Manager John F. Cullerton, who is a Democrat. On this theory the Democratic members of the committee, with the exception of Ald. Coughlin, voted as a unit for the administration's draft of the ordinance.

Anderson and Albert concentrated their fight on an attempt to put the marking of the efficiency of the uniformed rank in the hands of the fire chief. The proposed ordinance gives the power to the marshal and the commissioner jointly. When they were voted down Anderson and Albert charged that the committee was bent on making Chief Seyferlich a "figure head."

The only changes of any importance which got by the committee were an amendment which would give the fire chief power to prepare his own financial budget and another which makes the fire marshal and the drillmaster members of the uniformed rank.

Failure to include the fire chief in the uniformed rank, taken with a section which gives the commissioner full power over all civilians in the department, was declared by Ald. Anderson to be a trick to put the fire chief under the commissioner's jurisdiction.

ASSERTS BUSSES WILL BUILD UP A STREET OF SHOPS

Conversion of South Michigan avenue into a district of high class shops if bus service is permitted was predicted by John A. Ritchie, president and general manager of the Chicago Motorbus company at the franchise application hearing before the Illinois commerce commission yesterday.

"Bus service here," Mr. Ritchie said, "ultimately will do what it has done for Fifth avenue in New York—build up a thoroughfare from a lowly residential aspect into a street of smart shops. This will enormously increase property values."

Col. Frank L. Smith, president of the commission, indicated an appeal eventually would have to be made to the state Supreme court to determine whether busses may operate on streets other than boulevard, necessary in looping around, for a turn-back without a special city ordinance. While Attorney J. G. Condon contended this was not now prohibited, he was challenged by Attorney H. P. Weber, of the Chicago Surface lines. Secretary Nockels of the Chicago Federation of Labor also will oppose them granting the company license.

SYNOPSIS.

Horace Abernethey, a miserly musician, willed his musical library unreservedly to Saxe Temple, a young musician and the son of the woman he had loved in his youth, and left him three hundred thousand dollars in gold, contingent on Saxe's finding, within a month of Abernethey's death, the chest in which the old man had secreted it. The rest of his property, including his house in Maine and the grounds surrounding it, he had left to a young cousin, Margaret West. If Saxe failed to locate the gold within a specified time, it was to be divided by his lawyer, half to go to Margaret West, and the other half to be used as a foundation for a home for disabled musicians.

Saxe is determined to find the money in order that he may devote all his time to the composition of operas, so he enlists the aid of his three indomitable friends, Billy Walker, Roy Morton, and David Thwing, who agree to accompany him to the old miser's home in Maine and there conduct a systematic search for the treasure.

May Thurston, the pretty young secretary of Abernethey, had been asked by the lawyer to remain in the house after the musician's death. She is engaged to Hartley Masters, an engineer employed in the neighborhood. He is an unscrupulous fellow and when May tells him of the strange will he makes up his mind to beat the rightful heir to the treasure, if he can. May tries unavailingly to get him to give up the search.

When the four men arrive at the old man's home, Margaret West and her mother are already established there. The two women received the gold hunters graciously.

Saxe and his friends, with Margaret West and May Thurston helping whenever and however they can, ransack the house and grounds for traces of the gold or clews leading to its hiding place. It is all a great deal of a lark at first. Saxe's interest in the gold hunt is intensified by his pleasure in Margaret's winning smile and her genuine sympathy in his search for the fortune, while Roy Morton finds an ever increasing pleasure in the companionship of May Thurston.

Masters, while still secretly seeking the gold, is now openly devoting himself to winning the beautiful and lovable Margaret West.

INSTALLMENT XVIII.
IN THE WOODS.

She was as amiable as the most exacting lover might require, but she displayed none of that coyness or confusion for which Saxe looked as a sign that her heart was engaged. He did not dare overmuch, for the brief length of their acquaintance seemed to forbid. But this restraint caused him torment on account of jealousy, since Masters appeared soon as an open rival in the wooing of the girl. Margaret's treatment of the engineer was of such a sort that it drove Saxe near to desperation. She was unfailingly as amiable to the one as to the other of her suitors. It was, to Saxe, utterly inconceivable that any woman could be guilty of such folly as to love a man like the engineer, yet the girl's attitude toward Masters filled him with alarm, so that he pressed his own suit with more insistence and came to hate his adversary exceedingly.

Masters, too, suffered under the curse of jealousy. His love for Margaret was a sincere passion, and the hate Saxe bore for him he returned in overflowing measure. Through all his emotion of love, however, there remained in undiminished vigor his desire to possess himself of the gold hidden by Abernethey. And presently there grew in him a desperate resolve, brought into being in part by greed, in part by hatred of his rival.

May Thurston was another who was in the throes of anguish, and that from no fault of her own. Her love for the engineer had involved her in almost unendurable humiliation. His ostentatious worship of Margaret West at first filled May with the agony of outraged affection, then forced her to the wrath of revolt against such treachery. This mood endured. The little hypocrisies of loving which Masters attempted on the rare occasions when the two were alone together did not deceive her in the least. Yet the final break between the two was delayed for lack of courage on her part to accuse him openly of his guilt. The matter stood thus between them when, one morning after a sleepless night, May got from her bed before sunrise, dressed herself hurriedly, and left the cottage, hoping that the freshness of the dawn might serve to soothe her wearied nerves.

She wandered aimlessly hither and yon through the woods bordering the shore, and did, indeed, win some solace for her soul in the radiance of the summer day. She was distant about fifty yards from the cottage, descending the slope that ran to the shore, when she heard a slight noise among the bushes in front of her. She halted instantly, curious to know what manner of creature might be at hand and welcoming any distraction from the distress in her heart.

Herself hidden by a screen of foliage, she peered forth cautiously, searching with her eyes the thicket beyond. At first she could distinguish nothing, and, after a little, became convinced that she had been deceived by the dropping of a rotted branch.

May was on the point of advancing again when another and louder sound arrested her. It issued from a place somewhat farther to the right than that she had scrutinized, and now, as she watched intently, she made out the dim form of some object moving slowly within a clump of high bushes, from the center of which grew a thick leafed sapling. Another minute of inspection convinced her that the object was a man, and immediately an intuition bore upon her that it was Masters himself. Sure of his identity, she went forward quickly, following the impulse of the moment, and called him by name.

Masters—for it was in truth the engineer—whirled and faced the girl with an expression of terror, which, however, vanished so swiftly that May afterward found herself wondering if in fact she had not merely imagined it. Moreover, he smiled on her with more tenderness than he had exhibited in his manner for days, and his voice, when he spoke, was caressing:

"You, May!" he cried. His tones indicated a joyous surprise over the unexpected meeting. "You, too, are rivaling the lark this morning, like myself. I woke up three hours ago, and, when I found there was no chance to get to sleep again, I decided to commune with nature. I've been trailing a wonderful moth, but I've lost it at last, I'm sorry to say. It was a beauty!" He paused from the flow of words, which had been perhaps a trifle too rapid for entire sincerity, and regarded the girl with a glance that was at once fond and quizzical. "And did you, too, have a touch of insomnia?" he inquired.

May nodded, rather listlessly. For some reason that she could not understand, she was not convinced by the specious suavity of the engineer's utterance. At the back of her mind was a belief that the man was lying, though she refused to allow the accusation place. Her instinct revolted against the disloyalty of the fellow. Nevertheless, her heart was moved to a last struggle in behalf of the love to which she had once so joyously surrendered herself. She determined on an appeal to that better nature which she believed the engineer to possess.

"Hartley," she said softly, "I wish you to do something for me—no, for yourself. I want you to give up this mad idea of securing the gold Mr. Abernethey hid." The gaze of her dark eyes was full of affectionate pleading.

The reply of Masters was prompt, without any least trace of hesitancy. He put out his hand and took hers, pressing it tenderly.

"Dear[illegible]" he said softly, "you have been right, and I have been wrong. I see it now. I was carried away for a little while by my longing for money. I wanted it for you, not for myself altogether—you must know that. Now, I have repented. It was my conscience that kept me awake last night. I have already abandoned the idea of trying to get hold of a fortune that doesn't rightly belong to me. Can you forgive me, dearest? I've been a little mad, I think." He paused, and, in the silence that followed, drew her to him, and kissed her gently on the forehead.

May accepted the embrace—knew not, indeed, how to refuse it, although it failed to thrill her with that rapture which she had once known in his arms. Instead, she sighed in a confusion of emotions, which she herself was far from understanding. As a matter of fact, however, this was the beginning of the end. At last, under the stress of doubt inflicted persistently on her higher nature, the physical attraction exerted by Masters, which, unknown to her, had been the impelling cause for the activity of her imagination in making him an ideal, this potency of sex charm was overwhelmed by the essential antagonism between her soul and his.

A certain shyness held her mute, so that Masters was well content with the effect he had secured; but, in this, his self-confidence and the seeming passivity of the girl led him far astray. In truth, May felt assured that Masters lied, and the failure of personal contact to yield any emotion save an actual dissatisfaction set the instinctive disbelief in bold relief. When, soon afterward, they separated, May was secretly aware that her first romance had come to an inglorious end.

It was in the evening of this same day, at dinner, that the element of tragedy was first injected into the situation. In addition to Mrs. West and her daughter, May Thurston, and the four young men, there was present Hartley Masters. He had been invited frequently to dine at the cottage, and had for a time accepted every invitation. Latterly, however, the evidences of strained feeling between him and the other men had become so pronounced that he had usually offered some excuse for declining the kindly hospitality of Mrs. West. Another reason that influenced him in this was his own lack of confidence in his self-control, since the incident at the boathouse, which he had had some difficulty in explaining satisfactorily to May. Nevertheless, tonight, he had chosen to rely on his powers of self-restraint, and had accepted at once when Mrs. West suggested his remaining for the evening meal.

The construction of the cottage was such that the dining room was at the back of the house. On the left, as one entered the hall, was the large music room, which occupied the entire ground floor of the added wing. On the right the first room was that which had served Abernethey as an office. Beyond this came the dining room, with one window at the back, and one on the north side. Mrs. West sat at the head of the table, in such a position that she faced the window to the north. Margaret sat opposite her, while Saxe was placed at her right hand. Beyond him was May Thurston, and beyond her Roy. Billy Walker was beside the hostess on the left, and then David Thwing, while Masters filled the place next to Margaret.

The conversation at the table went pleasantly enough, despite the latent hostility between the engineer and the other men. The antipathy of Saxe and his friends was certainly not shared by either Margaret or her mother, unless they concealed their feeling with much skill, for the daughter addressed herself to Masters much of the time, and Mrs. West often included him in the conversation. By tacit agreement of the party, the subject of the miser's gold was not touched on by any one, and the desultory talk ran the usual gamut of art, literature, the drama, and those innumerable topics that serve as the transient vehicles for individual wit and seriousness.

Isadora in Calm Dance Portrays Art

No Surprises in Program of Miss Duncan.

BY EDWARD MOORE.

You must, if you would appreciate the phenomenon known as Isadora Duncan, dissociate from your mind all ideas of the technique of the dance, or even of programmatic interpretation. If you can do that successfully, you may find something to interest you.

This historic figure, responsible quite as much as any one person for what afterward developed into the modern Russian ballet, gave a Tschaikowsky program at the Auditorium last night. There was nothing with any particular element of surprise about the performance, nothing at all such as, if the press dispatches are to be believed, caused part of her Boston audience to make for the doors the other night and the other part to move up closer to the stage.

What came to pass was a good orchestra in the pit, with a talented conductor, Modest Alschuler, presiding. On the stage in front of some unobtrusively tinted hangings, was a woman, barefooted, clad in the tunic and chiton of classic Greece. As the music rose and fell, she moved from pose to pose, reflecting, perhaps interpreting, the mood of the music. She bowed her head, she extended her arms, always her robe draped in graceful folds about her.

Generally speaking, she indulged in slow movements. Throughout the first movement of the "Pathetique" symphony she was part of the time in first speed, the rest in neutral. It was better so. Miss Duncan has never learned the trick of the graceful leap or even the running step, though occasionally, when in cheerful mood, she tries it.

It can hardly be maintained that her theory of art worked out entirely successfully. No one person can interpret a symphony, at all events such a symphony as the Tschaikowsky "Pathetique." But every once in a while in her slower manifestations she struck a pose that was strikingly sculptural, that had mood and positive values. Some were even imaginative and lovely.

She will adapt herself to the music of Wagner this afternoon.

Alfred Wallenstein, the new occupant of the first chair in the Chicago Symphony orchestra's cello section, was the first soloist of the season in yesterday afternoon's concert. By that token, he confirmed a prognostication made about him two weeks ago, when he played a briefer bit. He scored a decisive and unarguable success.

Saint-Saëns' Concerto in A Minor was the exhibition piece, an excellent work for a cellist who can handle it properly. It contains much seemly melody and plenty of passages intended as brilliant displays of fireworks. Mr. Wallenstein had it under such excellent control that he was able to play it in accordance with Beau Brummell's dictum, to the effect that a gentleman may be in haste but never in a hurry. He has a fine tone, perhaps not the largest in the world, but tempered to a smooth and efficient edge. Altogether, he would seem to be a person from whom much may be hoped, and he won his audience without dissent.

Mr. Stock conducted a new composition, George W. Chadwick's "Anniversary Overture," a well made and workmanlike piece, but containing little to add to this talented composer's reputation. Also on the program was Vaughan Williams' "A London Symphony," which is big and distinctive, and "The Kremlin," by Glazounow, which is not. It is, however, noisy.

Of 140,000 school children whose teeth have been examined by health department dentists, 88,000 have defective teeth, Health Commissioner Bundesen said yesterday in announcing that arrangements have been completed for a limited number of school children to receive free dental treatment at Northwestern University Dental school.

BEG YOUR PARDON!

An account of a battle between Mrs. Alvina Whitten, 1025 East 43d street, and a burglar, published in THE TRIBUNE on Oct. 25, gave the impression that when Mrs. Whitten dropped a nickel in the phone to call the police the money was returned without the police being notified. Records of the telephone company show the police were called promptly. It is customary to return nickels to the customer on emergency police calls.

The New York agency of the Mercantile Bank of India denies that its agency in Hongkong, China, lost $200,000 through theft as reported in a story in THE TRIBUNE on Oct. 13 under a Shanghai date line.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Tribune will pay $5 each for questions which are accepted for the Inquiring Reporter to ask. Send in your name and address with your question to "The Inquiring Reporter, Chicago Tribune." No questions will be returned. Wallace Moffatt, 695 West 5th street, Dubuque, Ia., was awarded $5.

The Question.

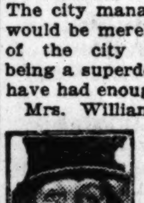
Where Asked.

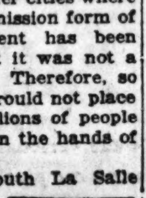
Michigan avenue at Van Buren street.

The Answers.

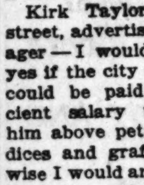
L. R. Wahalen, 811 Sedgwick street, paper and twine jobber—I think the best way would be to have a commission plan where each department would be managed by one man. The city manager plan would be merely a case of the city manager being a superdepartment head, and we have had enough of that now.



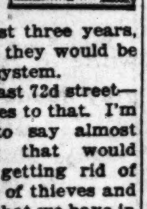
Mrs. William Severin, 1132 Morse avenue—No; I believe the city manager plan would not be successful in Chicago. In many of the smaller cities where the commission form of government has been tried out it was not a success. Therefore, so large a city as Chicago could not place the management of millions of people and millions of dollars in the hands of a few.



Kirk Taylor, 327 South La Salle street, advertising manager—I would answer yes if the city manager could be paid a sufficient salary to place him above petty prejudices and graft; otherwise I would answer no. In trying out the plan they should take at least three years, as during the first year they would be handicapped by the old system.



Mrs. S. J. Neill, 2458 East 72d street—I'll say yes to that. I'm willing to say almost anything that would help in getting rid of the gang of thieves and grafters that we have in control now—I mean that have control of us now. If a city manager scheme could be worked out here it would eliminate a multitude of sins.



Frank L. Lanoue, 2720 Jackson boulevard—Well, I like the idea of it all right. For financial and other reasons it would seem that a business manager instead of a political manager should be in charge of such a large business as the city of Chicago. That is about the only salvation we have for lower taxes. In that case public funds would go into the city treasury.

Salvation Army Lassies Will Sell Doughnuts Today

"Buy a doughnut and save a life." This is the official slogan of the Salvation Army today. Not the tough kind nor the one camouflaged with sugar, but the real old fashioned doughnut with the hole in the middle.

That's the kind of a doughnut which will be offered for sale by Salvation Army lassies throughout Chicago today. They will be prepared in booths and sent into the crowds on trays. You can buy one for a nickel or you may get one for a dollar or a "five" or a "ten."

The more you give the better. The money received will be part of the $498,000 fund that the Salvation Army is attempting to raise before midnight on next Tuesday. At present the books show that little more than half the amount collected.

A special corps of lassies will storm Stagg field.

THEATER NOTES

Harry Lauder, the incomparable Scot, will spend Thanksgiving week in Chicago. Arrangements were completed yesterday for his coming to the Studebaker on Nov. 27, following the forthcoming engagement of "The Hairy Ape." Lauder will stay six days only, offering, as usual, a program composed of several of his old songs and a few new ones.

"The Rose of Stamboul," a stately operatic extravaganza, sung, as to its principal rôles, by Marion Green and Miss Tessa Kosta, is tentatively named as Al Jolson's successor at the Apollo. Jolson is still enormously prosperous, but Dec. 2 has been definitely set as the date of his departure. Mr. Ziegfeld's "Sally," at one time listed for the Apollo, is now destined for the Colonial, where it will follow the "Music Box Revue," arriving on or about Jan. 7.

Miss Irene Bordoni wil step out of her character in "The French Doll" at Powers' next Friday afternoon to offer a program of songs in costume. The concert will be given in three languages, with groups of songs in French, Spanish, and English, and will, it is announced, be made the occasion for the display of something new and dazzling in the matter of gowns.

Miss Nance O'Neill, having had some profitable seasons in "The Passion Flower," by the Spanish playwright, Jacinto Benavente, has produced another drama by the same author. "Field of Ermine" is its romantic title, and it will be revealed in Boston on Monday.

Dr. A. J. Ochsner Will Head Surgeon's Society

Boston, Mass., Oct. 27.—Dr. Albert J. Ochsner of Chicago was elected president of the American College of Surgeons today. Dr. Franklin H. Martin of Chicago was chosen as director general.

ASK ME! ASK ME!

By Mae Tinée.

P. D. G.: Cecil De Mille is to be reached care of the Paramount Studios, Hollywood, California. Y'wekkum.

Little Girl: Clara Horton is a big girl now. I have heard that she is soon to appear in a picture called "Knight in Gale." Yes, I like her. Some times better than others. Been writing scenarios since you were five? How old are you now, for pity's sake? And where did you get the typewriter? Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for a personal letter—please.

Gus: Happy though married in the movies? Sure! Why not? If you fans don't quit believing everything you hear I don't know what I'm going to do with you. You know how stories grow as they circulate. On Main Street the same as in Hollywood. Keep that thought in mind if you can and your prognostications won't be such gloomy ones. Certainly I like to hear from you—but say "Cheerio!" some time, will you?

D. R.: Harry Beaumont is a director. He married Hazel Daly. Yes, both were once with Essanay. Bryant Washburn has played in pictures with Miss Daly but has never married her. Got that little tangle all straightened out?

Mrs. J. J. T.: Lillian Gish directs sometimes. Don't believe she cares much about it though, from what I have heard. Dorothy Gish has light hair. Those raven locks you used to see were made for her by a wig man.

ARTHUR: Don't weaken.

LOONEY LOUIE: I suspect that I have seen you. Well, it is not often the world recognizes real poetry when the world sees it. The fact that yours bore the earmarks was probably hidden from a GREAT many people. You are hereby appointed Optimist of this corner. Only throw in a little pessimism now and then for good weight. An optimist who WORKS at it is awful. Just sort of glow, will you?

NORMAND FAN: The lady hath returned. Recent photographs show her much as she was before she took the bawths. Of course there is quite a little water in California.

X. Y. Z.: Sorry!

CLOSEUPS

Jackie Coogan's latest picture, "Fiddle and I," is almost completed.

Mack Sennett is planning to amuse his players healthily between scenes and pictures. On his thirty-two acres of studio property will be tennis courts, swimming tanks, etc., and even a miniature golf course. That sounds like sense, doesn't it?

James Cruze is coming right to the fore as a director. He will guide "The Covered Wagon," by Emerson Hough, for Lasky. The company plans to make quite an imposing historical affair of the film.

Reported Need of Financial Aid Calls for Denial

THE LATE LIEUT. COL. REDDEN.

MRS. CURTIS G. REDDEN.

Mrs. Curtis G. Redden, widow of the late Lieut. Col. Curtis G. Redden, of the 149th field artillery, wishes to deny through THE TRIBUNE the rumors which have been circulating among her friends that she is in need of financial assistance.

Lieut. Col. Redden died of pneumonia while with the army of occupation at Coblenz, Germany, in January, 1919. He enlisted as a private and served in the Spanish war, afterwards becoming captain of battery A, 1st Illinois F. A. on the border. This regiment became the 149th F. A. on the outbreak of the great war, by which time he had risen to command. His body was brought home and buried at Danville on Aug. 4, 1920.

Mary McCormic Returns to U. S. with New Laurels

BY HENRY WALES.

[Copyright: 1922: By The Chicago Tribune.]

PARIS, Oct. 27.—Mary McCormic, a young star of the Chicago Civic Opera company, is taking home with her when she leaves on the Mauretania tomorrow added laurels in the form of a successful debut in Italy.

She and Mary Garden, whose protégé she is, are the last of the leading members of the Chicago Opera company to leave Europe. Miss Garden also had booked passage on the Mauretania, but up until midnight she had not arrived. Ulysees Lappas, the Greek tenor of the Chicago company, also is sailing on the Mauretania.

Miss McCormic made her Italian debut at the opera house at Asti, where the critics proclaimed her voice one of the greatest ever heard in Italy. She sang the part of Santuzza in "Cavalleria Rusticana," and her Italian accent was so perfect that she was not recognized as an American, as she was billed under the Italian name equivalent to McCormic.

On her third successive night a great celebration took place in her honor. She was presented with a huge bouquet containing the Italian and American flags crossed by the municipal officials of Asti.

John D. Jr., Assails the 12 Hour Day

Issues New Statement on Rights of Labor

New York, Oct. 27.—[By the Associated Press.]—A sweeping statement declaring his personal stand for the eight hour day in industry and condemning the twelve hour day and the seven day week as "unnecessary, uneconomic, and unjustifiable" was issued today by John D. Rockefeller Jr.

The statement appears in the form of an article signed by Mr. Rockefeller in the current issue of the Survey Graphic and follows an arrangement of working conditions in certain oil fields of Wyoming in the same magazine by R. S. Lynd, who spent three months investigating conditions.

The statement today is the second within a week that Mr. Rockefeller has given out in behalf of the laboring men. The previous one, issued last Wednesday, took up the cudgel in the interest of coal miners in Somerset county, Pa., and particularly those employed by the Consolidation Coal company, of which he is a stockholder.

"I believe that, generally speaking, the twelve hour day and the seven day week should no longer be tolerated in industry, either from the viewpoint of public policy or of industrial efficiency," the oil magnate says in his more recent statement. "I believe that both have been proved to be unnecessary, uneconomic, and unjustifiable."

Even in those industries where the so-called "continuous process" is a feature Mr. Rockefeller says he believes the routine should be so adjusted that the employés can have at least one day's rest in seven and can obtain that share of leisure for self-development which accompanies the work day of approximately eight hours.

With regards to living conditions, even in isolated localities like oil camps, Mr. Rockefeller declares that it is not only possible but necessary to make reasonable provisions for the health, comfort, and contentment of those who labor there in behalf of the entire community.

The article of Mr. Lynd which called forth Mr. Rockefeller's statement is an intensive study of conditions in the Elk Basin crude oil producing field of Wyoming, where, according to the author, "one man in three works twelve hours a day and seven days a week and all other classes of labor, including office personnel, work a nine hour day, six and a half days a week."

Turks Predicted Fall of Smyrna, Mission Man Says

"Diamond bedecked" church members, sectarianism and war were scored by Fred B. Smith of New York, who spoke yesterday at the Morrison hotel at the final luncheon of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions.

Incidentally Mr. Smith uttered a few "damns" to illustrate how Kemal Pasha feels toward America and to express his own sentiments in regard to those who differed with him.

"The orient," he said, "welcomes Christianity, but it is not the kind certain church members exhibit. I talked with a good Presbyterian who told me it had cost him $16,000 to get his daughter ready for college. She wore a $6,000 diamond lavalliere and rode to school in her car. The authorities sent her home and told her father to dress his daughter with more modesty.

"The orient doesn't want the denominational differences we have in America perpetuated over there. Any one who will now plant a Baptist, Presbyterian, Methodist Episcopal or Congregational church in China, Japan or India ought to be choked at the dock before landing."

In urging the duty of the United States to enter into the near east entanglement Mr. Smith quoted a statement made to him by Hamid Bey, whom he called the "unofficial spokesman for Kemal Pasha." "Your country won't do a damn thing," said Hamid Bey.

Is Mary Baker Back in U. S.? Reporter Says She Is

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

LONDON, Oct. 27.—The Daily Sketch tomorrow morning will print a dispatch from its New York correspondent stating that Mary Landon Baker has returned to America incognito. The correspondent says that Mary's father admits her return, but refuses to comment.

Edward McCormick, brother of Allister, at Weybridge today said: "I know Miss Baker is still in England, and I believe in London. Where Allister is I do not know. As far as I know Miss Baker is still going to marry my brother."

The Boss' Bounty by Will Payne

A powerful BLUE RIBBON story in the new Coloroto magazine of Tomorrow's Tribune

DAILY HOROSCOPE
Doris Blake Says:

TODAY IS LUCKY FOR THE SELF-CONTROLLED.

Mercury and Uranus rule today, in aspect and not exactly benefic. Self-control is urged for all. During this rule the tongue should be held in leash, as the temptation to utter unkind criticism may be strong. Gossip and scandal should not be indulged in at any time, but the stars particularly warn against it because of evil consequences, which may revert to the idle tongued. Persons whose birth date this is have the augury of a year in which they will attain prominece and recognition. A child born on this day has the prospect of a brilliant career. An interesting life is assured the Oct. 28 birthday, filled with incidents of unusual occurrence. Some of these happy; others the reverse. You must learn to judge human nature in a more coldly critical way, and not be governed by emotion entirely. You are inclined to place too much faith and trust in people. You are warm hearted, deep, and sincere in your love affairs. Even though marriage is not happy, you can make the best of circumstances. Your intellectual and spiritual qualities are highly developed. You are fascinating in personality, enthusiastic, impulsive, and utterly unselfish, and show great kindness of manner and speech.

She Became Angry.

"Dear Miss Blake: A few months ago I met a fellow of 21. On account of not keeping his telephone appointment, I became angry at him and did not speak to him when he called to see me. He told a girl friend of mine he would call me up the following day but I did not hear from him. I have not heard from him as yet. I love him dearly. I await your advice

"MOLLIE."

How, how ridiculous, Mollie! And really ungenerous of you. How do you know but what there was a misunderstanding over the call which a work of explanation would have fixed happily for you?

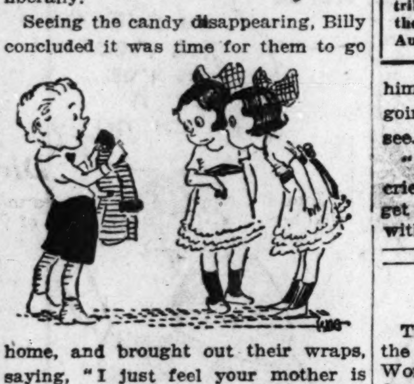
The twins next door came over to play with Billy.

There was a plate of candy on the table, to which they helped themselves liberally.

Seeing the candy disappearing, Billy concluded it was time for them to go home, and brought out their wraps, saying, "I just feel your mother is worried about you." J. W.



Alex wanted to go and play with some boys who had congregated on a vacant lot nearby. His mother told him that there wouldn't be anything going on there that he would care to see.

"O, I don't know about that," Alex cried, "some of the boys most always get into a fight before they get through with it." N. T.

"Women in Italy."

The fall meeting and luncheon of the Chicago Council of Administrative Women in Education will be held today at 12:30 at the Chicago Woman's club. Countess Cipriani will speak on "Women in Italy." Miss Hermine Schwed, field secretary of the National Association for Constitutional Government, will also speak.

A FRIEND IN NEED

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

Mother Is Ill.

"Will you please find some one who would be kind enough to give to me or my brother a pair of shoes, size 2½ or 1. My mother cannot buy them for us because she can't work. She has been sick a long time, and dad is dead. We have only what we get from others. It is so cold going to school. We are good boys and help our mother. I am 11 years and my brother 9.

"TOM."

Joy for Children.

"I have to offer to some boy an ice sled, also a pair of ice skates.

"MRS. D. D."

Some little fellow will be happy, I know, to take advantage of your offer and be ready to strike out when the first ice appears.

Handicapped by Deafness.

"A young man who has been ill for four years and whose hearing is affected could be helped to a great extent by a hearing device. S. L. C."

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Cooking Cocoa Shells.

Cocoa shells are inexpensive. They have within recent years cost but 10 cents a pound. An excellent beverage may be made with them to take the place of coffee for those who must not drink the latter beverage. It will have as excellent a flavor as that made with the most expensive sweet chocolate to be purchased; that is, it will have the real cocoa bud flavor, which is worth knowing. It has been forcibly extracted from most chocolates, much to their loss in delicacy and true character.

To make a cocoa shell beverage, add one quart of boiling water to one cup of cocoa shells, which have been well washed, and gently cook in a covered kettle for one hour. Strain, sweeten to taste, and serve with a little hot cream. Or chill it and serve it with whipped cream.

The best way to sweeten this and other hot chocolates, it seems to me, is to use a hot sugar sirup. Add one-fourth cup of water to one-half cup of sugar, stir until it dissolves, and cook for five minutes. Some people keep a sirup like this on hand to use for many purposes, and call it a stock sirup.

A cocoa shell beverage will suit those who do not like a thick, well cooked chocolate for breakfast any more than does Mrs. Gainsborough in Compton Mackenzie's novel, "Sylvia Scarlett," who complains when she is in France: "I miss my morning tea, Sylvia, and it's no use me pretending I don't. I don't feel like chocolate in the morning. I'd just as leave have a slice of plum pudding in a cup. Why, if you try to put a lump of sugar in it, it won't sink; it keeps bobbing up." If you have that experience, use sirup!

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

She's Still There.

I had just worked one week at my new position when I made a bad impression on my employer.

He gave me some statements to typewrite and then left. Books are my weakness. I was so absorbed reading that I didn't hear the boss come in. Just then the telephone rang. The story was so interesting I couldn't bring myself to put it down, so I tried to reach for the phone with my face buried in the book. To make matters worse, I couldn't get the right name and number.

But the boss wasn't an ogre. I suppose he must have realized how a poor little girl of 17 loves to read romance. I am still working at the place, but I am a wiser stenographer than when I began. H. G.

So He Called "Ma."

My most embarrassing moment was one warm evening when I sat out on our front porch at 12 o'clock w for my brother to come home. I two huge policemen advancing the lawn with flashlights and revolvers, and heard one of them "Shoot low."

So I thought the best thing be as high up as possible. I was embarrassed to open the front step in, so I made a flying the railing and dashed up an stairway, finally got my breath to yell "Ma!" a couple of times it dawned on the police that I there and it wasn't necessary at all.

They had been sent to burglar in the neighborhood mistaken me for him. P. S.

Princeton Visitors Among Guests at Season's First Ball

Nearly 500 guests, including a large group of Princeton men, attended the first ball of the season given by Mr. and Mrs. William H. Mitchell II. and Mr. and Mrs. James C. Hutchins last night at the Blackstone hotel.

The ball room and the small tables laid in the art room adjoining were gay with yellow chrysanthemums and Princeton flags in deference to the visitors and to Mr. Hutchins, who is a Princeton man of the class of 1909.

Mrs. Hutchins wore a striking, brocaded gown of pale green and silver and Mrs. Mitchell's gown was of the same soft shade, fashioned of crepe de chine, in long, simple lines.

Noted among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. John J. Mitchell Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garfield King, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Armour, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Stevenson, Mrs. Kenneth Sawyer Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. A. Watson Armour, Mr. and Mrs. Leander McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Farley Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. T. Philip Swift, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Chatfield-Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell Blair, and Mrs. J. O. Heyworth.

The formal opening of the smart new quarters of the Opera club, at 18 West Walton place, will be held on Halloween. Anna Ludmilla, premiere danseuse of the Chicago Civic Opera association, will be the chief feature of the evening's program. Among those who will have guests are Messrs. and Mmes. Knowlton L. Ames Jr., Ralph R. Richardson, Benjamin H. Marshall, Emil C. Wetten, Francis Waller, Alexander H. Revell, Frederic W. Upham, Carleton J. Holdrege, Harrison Lobdell, Arthur M. Reynolds, Truman W. Brophy, E. C. Kohlsaat, Benjamin Taylor, Thedore W. Robinson, Russell J. Mathias, John R. Jelke, Harold Pynchon, Don Sebastian, and Robert Upham, and Miss Alice Voigt, Eames MacVeagh, Charles H. Swift, Buell McKeever, and Charles F. Glore.

The date has been set for the annual charity ball given in Evanston for the benefit of the Illinois Children's home. It will be given on December 20, at the Evanston Country club, with Mrs. Charles N. Bosworth as chairman of arrangements.

Mrs. Parmalee J. McFadden, formerly of 10 East Schiller street, and her daughters, the Misses Eleanore, Frances, and Marion McFadden, have taken an apartment at 219 Lake Shore drive. They returned recently from an extended European trip.

◆

Miss Katharine Rowland Cooke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Cooke of 42 East Cedar street, has set Saturday, December 2, as the day of her wedding to George Waller Blow, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Preston Blow of La Salle, Ill. The ceremony will be read at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at the residence of Miss Cooke's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus D. Curtis will close their Lake Geneva residence next week for the winter. A family gathering is occupying the spacious summer establishment for the weekend and the sons of the family have a number of guests for a farewell hunting and fishing party. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis will spend the winter at the Webster hotel.

"Ceylon court," the Lake Geneva residence of the John J. Mitchells, will also be closed during the week and the family will return to 1550 North State parkway, where, on Dec. 4, Miss Louis Mitchell will make her debut. The Lake Geneva house will be opened again for the usual holiday gathering of the children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell.

Mrs. Edward Goodwillie of Cleveland, O., and her son and daughter, James and Jane Goodwillie, have arrived in Chicago to join Mr. Goodwillie, who came here on Oct. 1, and have taken a house in Riverside, where they plan to reside permanently.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Meeker of 3030 Lake Shore drive will give a dinner dance this evening for their debutante daughter, Miss Mary Meeker.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Parkin, who spent the summer in Pentwater, Mich., have returned to Highland Park. Their daughter, Miss Margaret Parkin, is in Washington, D. C., where she attends the Cathedral School for Girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Lander Jones of Highland Park have sold their house and will spend the winter at the Moraine hotel.

Letter of Condolence Opened Kaiser's Romance

BERLIN, Oct. 27.—[United News.]—The romance of former Kaiser Wilhelm and his affianced princess began shortly after the death of the kaiserin, it has just been disclosed. Hans George, son of the princess, sent a letter to the ex-kaiser, conveying condolences on behalf of himself and his mother. The former kaiser not only thanked George Hans, but dispatched a separate letter to the princess conveying his appreciation. This was the beginning of a correspondence which developed their romance.

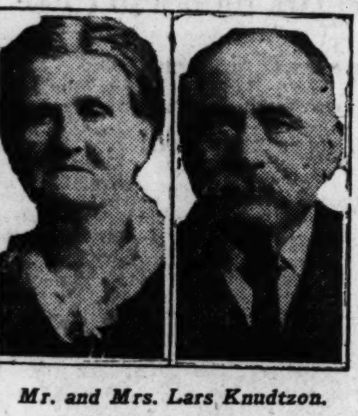
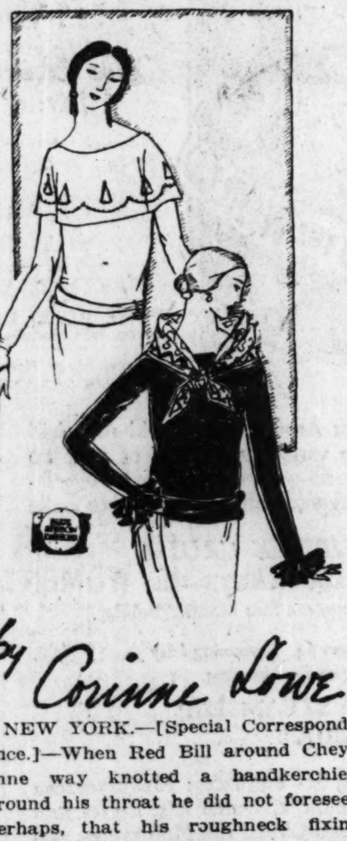
Their Golden Day



Mr. and Mrs. Lars Knudtzon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lars Knudtzon of 1901 North Mozart street, celebrate their golden wedding anniversary today at the Parish house, Lemoyne and California avenues. Mr. Knudtzon, who was captain on a vessel sailing from Stavanger, Norway, before coming to Chicago, was born at Birkrem-Skjeveland, Norway, in 1847, and Mrs. Knudtzon at Stavanger, Norway, in 1849. They came to Chicago in 1886 and have lived here ever since. They have six sons, all married, who are taking charge of the celebration, and a married daughter who lives in Detroit.

Long Tight Sleeves Featured in Many New Blouses



by Corinne Lowe

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—When Red Bill around Cheyenne way knotted a handkerchief around his throat he did not foresee, perhaps, that his roughneck fixin' would inspire Miss Van de Vere of 5th avenue. Yet it has. For some time since the ban has been lifted from bandanna and this brilliant handkerchief has been gracing both millinery and frocks.

We show today just what this touch does to a navy crepe blouse. Here the handkerchief is silk and it is printed in vivid tones of green, red, and blue.

The sleeves of this blouse are long and narrow. So are those of the upper model, an almond green crêpe de chine. Indeed, one may stress the fact that sleeves of this type keep gaining all the time a surer foothold and they are incorporated in both everyday models and elaborate types for afternoon. The upper model has one of the deep bertha collars now so much affected in this province, and the only trimming consists of hemstitching.

Legion Launches Intensive Drive for Funds Today

With practically every civic and patriotic organization in Chicago and Cook county indorsing its program, the Cook County Association of American Legion Posts today commences its active campaign for a $750,000 memorial home and relief fund.

The campaign was started a month ago, but the time was utilized in forming an organization that will start work today.

It is proposed to use half of the amount sought to buy, build, or lease an adequate building in the loop that will provide food, shelter, relief, and jobs for needy ex-service men and women, as well as a common meeting place for all of the 150 posts in the country, where the Legion's purpose of Americanization work, hospitalization, etc., will be carried on.

The remainder of the money will be used to sustain the relief work.

WHEAT IS LEADER IN GRAIN GAINS; EXPORT IS GOOD

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Development of a good export business in hard winter wheats via the Gulf with the removal of hedges against the sales resulted in a strong and advancing market.* At the outside December showed 3⅝c over the close of the previous day with general covering by shorts on the way up. Closing trades were a fraction under the top with net gains of 1⅜@3c. Coarse grains were stronger in sympathy with wheat, corn closing ¾ to 1½c and oats ⅜@¾c higher while rye was up ¾@1¼c.

At no time were wheat prices as low as the finish of the previous day. There was free buying early by houses with seaboard connections, which caught the local element either short or with no wheat, and prices advanced swiftly. Liverpool closed ¾@1¼d higher, and Winnipeg 1¼@1⅝c higher.

Local traders were inclined to be a little bearish on corn, but with December acting tight and no pressure except from the pit element, prices advanced slowly, with the best figures made about the close.

Bulk of the trade in oats was of a local character, with the action of other grains the dominating influence.

Reports of a big export business in rye, with free buying by houses with seaboard connections, put the December to even with the May. Sales of 480,000 bu to exporters in all positions in the west were confirmed by local handlers, part of the grain being at other points. The two northwestern markets had 78 cars.

A lack of support was apparent in October lard, which closed 15c lower. Strength in grains had some effect on the distant deliveries, and they lost only 5@7½c. Prices follow:

WORLD'S·GRAIN MARKET·NEWS

Strength in December grains and cash premiums is attracting increased attention and is having a good effect on the market by checking selling and inducing more buying. There is also undoing of spreads between the December and May. December wheat was 1⅝c over May, with corn a sixteenth premium over May at one time and oats only ⅛@½c discount, while in rye December and May were the same price at the close. Sentiment was bullish at the last, with traders mostly long and the short interest reduced.

Should Liverpool cables come higher today traders look for a further bulge in wheat. A few were inclined to predict that a break will follow the advance on week-end profit taking.

Eastern railroads are moving empty grain cars to the west in train loads. The Baltimore and Ohio started a train of ninety-five empty cars from Baltimore for Chicago on Thursday and is to send 500 cars at once to Chicago for distribution and for loading grain to be sent east. This will help exporters get grain from the west. Western railroads are sending cars to Iowa, Nebraska, Colorado, and Kansas for grain loading.

Creditors of W. A. Frazer & Co. received their final dividend yesterday. It was 3 per cent. The firm failed about twenty years ago. Its affairs have been in the bankruptcy court all that time. A creditors' committee should have handled its affairs, like they have those of E. W. Wagner & Co., who have paid 50 cents cash in eight months to 7,000 creditors and handled $7,000,000 of liabilities.

RUN DOWN PEOPLE NEED RICH BLOOD

YOU never heard a doctor say, "He is all run down, but his blood is pure and rich."

The best thing—the biggest thing—that Gude's Pepto-Mangan does is to purify and enrich your blood. Then those weary, run down, dragged out feelings will disappear, and the oldtime vim, "pep", ambition and energy will come back to you again.

Little children who are weak, thin, and backward are wonderfully helped by this famous tonic—and they like its pleasant flavor.

CASH·GRAIN NEWS

Sales of wheat in all positions at the seaboard yesterday were estimated by Russell's News at 700,000 bu, including 200,000 bu hard winter via the gulf, following sales estimated at 1,500,000 to 2,000,000 bu in all positions Thursday. The buying of futures suggested that sales during the day were larger than reported. England was reported as the buyer of hard winters and was after more. Rye sales were estimated at 500,000 bu, with Germany in the market. Moderate amounts of corn were sold.

Chicago handlers sold 125,000 bu hard winter wheat and 25,000 bu corn to exporters, while domestic sales were 95,000 bu wheat, 180,000 bu corn, 145,000 bu oats, and 10,000 bu barley. Charters were made for 220,000 bu corn to Georgian Bay.

Premiums on cash wheat at Chicago were very firm, with a good milling demand. No. 2 red was 7@8c and No. 2 hard 5@6½c over December. Receipts, 45 cars. St. Louis advanced 2@3c and Kansas City 1@2c, while premiums at Minneapolis were 1c higher.

Fifteen cars of new corn were received at Chicago. New No. 2 white sold at 70c, No. 3 white 67¾@68¾c, No. 4 white 66c, No. 5 white 63½c, No. 2 yellow 69½@70c, No. 4 yellow 66@66½c, No. 5 yellow 64c, No. 2 mixed 69½c, No. 3 mixed 67c, and No. 4 mixed 65c. Basis on old corn was firm, with No. 2 mixed and white 4@4¼c and yellow 4¼@4½c over December. Receipts, 206 cars. Outside markets were unchanged to 2c higher.

Offerings of oats were not large and sold fairly, with the basis firm. No. 2 white brought 2½@4c and No. 3 white 1@2c over December. Receipts, 104 cars.

FAIR TO OFFER PUBLIC STOCK IN BIG STORE

BY O. A. MATHER.

For the first time in the history of Chicago's great depatrment stores the public is to be invited to become stockholders in one of the largest of the State street establishments. The Fair store, owned by the Edward J. Lehmann estate, will be made an open corporation and recapitalized.

There will be two classes of stock. The preferred stock issue of $6,000,000 bearing dividends of 7 per cent will be offered publicly next week by a Chicago banking syndicate headed by Marshall Field, Glore, Ward & Co. The common stock will be nonpar and will be held by the Lehmann estate, which also will retain management of the store as at present under Edward J. and Otto Lehmann.

Plan for Expansion.

It is understood The Fair store will undertake a considerable campaign of expansion. A year or two ago the Lehmanns purchased the American Express building fronting on Monroe street between State and Dearborn streets and separated from The Fair store property by an alley. Plans recently completed call for a new structure to replace the American Express building, additional stories and subbasements to The Fair store building, and bridging the alley. This would make The Fair store one of the largest of the State street establishments.

The Fair store was founded by the late Edward J. Lehmann in 1871 on the present site, but in a small building fronting 16 feet on State street. The present building, covering half a block and fronting on State, Adams and Dearborn streets, was erected in 1896.

600 Per Cent Stock Disbursement.

Large stock dividends were declared by two corporations yesterday. The directors of the Victor Talking Machine company declared a stock dividend of 600 per cent, this action following the recent authorization by the stockholders to increase the common stock from $5,000,000 to $35,000,000. The dividend will be payable to stock of record Nov. 1, and new stock will be issued as soon as it is practicable to issue new certificates. It was stated that no change in cash dividend is anticipated. The directors plan extensive improvements and plant expansion.

The directors of the Hercules Powder company declared a stock dividend of 100 per cent out of surplus earnings, payable Nov. 25 to common stockholders of record Nov. 15. The company reports net earnings for the nine months ended Sept. 30 of $1,522,044 after taxes, depreciation, and interest, compared with $427,687 in the corresponding period last year.

N. Y. Central to Raise Dividend.

It may be stated authoritatively that the New York Central railroad is considering increasing the annual dividend rate from 5 to 6 per cent. The company is financially in position to make the change, but there also is a sentimental reason. Now that the Pennsylvania has restored its old 6 per cent rate it is understood to be the desire of the New York Central directors to establish a parity in dividends.

For the first time in two years the Pullman company in the last three months earned substantially more than dividend requirements. The increased earnings result from heavier Pullman traffic, as the car building operations have been rather disappointing.

The Texas company is contemplating no stock dividends nor any increase in cash dividends. Neither is it planning to acquire other oil companies. Earnings continue to run substantially above dividend requirements and the company is expanding its operations in the Wyoming oil field.

PRODUCE MARKETS

Butter prices were up ½c in all markets with top grades scarce and in demand. Cheese trade was fair and eastern markets firm.

Fresh eggs were again advanced 2 to 3c with no surplus offerings. Arrivals were 3,003 cases, against 2,668 cases last year. Live hens sold well at full prices.

Potatoes sold better with prices unchanged. Arrivals were 98 cars and 374 cars were on track.

The New York Times.

New York, Oct. 27.—[Special.]—The recovery which had been rather plainly foreshadowed by the exaggerated violence of the previous day's decline, occurred on nearly all markets today. It was the most emphatic in the case of foreign exchange; on the stock market it was irregularly distributed and offset by a few further downward movements, and in bonds it was hesitant.

With United States bonds, indeed, the decline continued. Some of the older war loans sold 1½ points below last week's closing, the Liberty 3½s below the high prices of the year, and the new 4¼ per cents touched 99, although this is purely a refunding operation which, in the course of a few months, will leave the sum total of outstanding government obligations exactly what it was before this last subscription.

To the recovery on the stock market there was considerable resistance from professional quarters, chiefly applied through active selling of one group of shares while "buying back short stock" in another. Taken as a whole, today's market gave no positive evidence of anything but a halt in the recent unchecked downward movement.

In sterling all previous loss incurred this week was cancelled; with francs the rate rose more than ¼ cent from Thursday's low figure. Exchange on every European market, without exception, shared in today's recovery, even the mark struggling up from 2¼ to 2⅝ hundredths of a cent.

ECONOMIC MEET OF ALL NATIONS URGED BY GARY

New York, Oct. 27.—Another international peace conference in Washington for the full and frank discussion of all unsettled financial, commercial, and industrial questions in which the United States is interested was suggested by Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, in a speech today at the semi-annual meeting of the American Iron and Steel institute, of which he is president.

Such a conference, he said, should be participated in by able, open minded, well disposed representatives from the different nations, such as those who appeared at the recent limitation of armament conference.

"If there shall be such a meeting," he declared, "and the delegates are all of the type referred to, there will result incalculable good to all who are parties.

"They would not decide or discuss how to abolish or overcome the old established law of supply and demand, how to avoid or repudiate existing obligations, but rather how and when to fulfill them without irreparable injury to any one or the sacrifice of principle."

Cancellation of Europe's war debts to the United States was opposed by the speaker. The debts, he said, were voluntary, openly and fairly contracted, and cannot be cancelled or disposed of on any other basis without doing violence to well recognized principles of justice and rule of propriety.

"To cancel these debts, or any part of them, without full payment," he asserted, "would be forced charity, and that is never agreeable to the donor and, as a rule, equally disagreeable to a self-respecting person or nation."

FINANCIAL NOTES

The report that Henry Ford is planning to electrify his Detroit, Toledo and Ironton railroad was held in transportation circles to be further indication of the trend of transportation development in the future. Although no definite information was obtainable, it was stated that Ford's recent embarrassment because of a shortage of coal led him to the conclusion that a future disarrangement of this sort could be obviated by certain electrical extensions. Ford's Banner Fork coal mine is some 200 miles from the terminus of his own road, it was explained, and although there was ample coal at the mine the connecting roads were not able to deliver it to Ford. It is understood that Ford's plans contemplated the purchase or lease of additional mines near the Ohio river, and that as a substitute for the services of connecting roads, he is going to generate electric power at the mouth of his mines and transmit it by alternating current to his road.

With the continued issuance of the individual earnings statements of the various class 1 railways for the month of September, railway quarters have been enabled to form some deductions as to the course of earnings in the different territories. According to estimates, the showing of the eastern carriers is showing up badly, as compared with a year ago, and tentative computations based on the reports of twenty-five class 1 roads are expected to show a substantial decrease under the figure made by the same roads in September, 1921.

Director of the Mint Scobey announced the purchase of 90,000 ounces of silver from the San Francisco mint under the Pittman act, making the total purchased to date 137,145,575 ounces.

The Court of Appeals at Albany granted a stay of order of the Appellate division for a new election of directors of the Remington Typewriter company.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER PLANS A $300,000 ANNEX

BY AL CHASE.

Growth of business has led the Calumet Baking Powder company, said to be the largest concern of its kind in the world, to buy 200x130 west of and adjoining its present plant on Fillmore street, between 41st and 42d avenues, and on this site it was announced last night a $300,000 addition will be built next spring. It will be five stories and cover the entire 200 feet frontage with a depth of 110 feet. The present plant is five stories and covers 275x110, which means the completed plant will be 475x110.

The advertising and printing departments will be moved into the new section, which also will house a cafeteria, assembly hall, rest rooms, and other welfare activities. The site was bought from O. C. Harrington through Willis & Frankenstein, for $45,000.

For the third time this year H. Walter Taylor of Hipple & Clarke, reports selling the store and flat property at 2850-56 North Clark and 2845-47 Abbott court, this time for Frederick H. Moore to Della Crandall, for $125,000, subject to $63,200.

The Glendora apartments, comprising twenty-four flats, at the northeast corner of Newgard and Arthur avenues, 100x122, have been sold by Frank F. Tunk to Jeremiah H. Carmody for $180,000, subject to $110,000, taking as part payment the Weare building at the southeast corner of 25th and Laramie, at $90,000, subject to $20,000. Elmer W. F. Jansson of the Ritchie Bond & Mortgage company represented both parties.

Victor C. Hasterlick, vice president of the Independence State bank, and Julian Bomash, assistant cashier, bought from William Perlman the southeast corner of Wentworth and 69th, improved with a two story white tile store and office building, for $101,000, subject to $66,000. Chutkow & Botham, brokers, also report selling the southeast corner of Michigan and 43d, 161x150, for Mr. Hasterlick to A. R. Reimenschneider for $35,000.

RAILWAY ORDERS FOR NEW CARS PASS OLD MARKS

Railroads of this country have placed orders for 122,953 new freight cars and 1,792 locomotives from Jan. 1 to Oct. 15, statistics compiled by the Railway Age show. The number of cars exceeds the average number ordered annually for the ten years ending with 1921, which was 106,469.

The average number of locomotives ordered during the same period was 2,118. Cars and locomotives scrapped annually during the last decade totaled 76,760 and 1,615, respectively.

The number of cars loaded with freight in the four weeks ending Oct. 14, 1922, was 2.9 per cent less than the number loaded in the corresponding weeks for 1920, the Railway Age reports. Shipments of grain and grain products were 21½ per cent larger than in 1920, and live stock 15½ per cent larger.

District Crop Report Shows Yield 1921 Equal

The October report of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago for the seventh federal reserve district shows crops to be in good condition, with the yield about the same as a year ago. The corn crop is out of danger from frost and the yield equal to or a little better than last year. Winter wheat acreage is practically the same as last year except in that part of Illinois embraced in the district's territory, which shows an increase. More hogs are being marketed in the district as a whole, although Iowa and Michigan remain nominal.

Hogs again went tobogganing yesterday, the top going down 15c to $9.10, while the average dropped 25c at $8.45. Trade was slow most of the session and closing sales were lowest of the day, with about 8,000 left in the pens. Some pigs reached $9.15, with a few 50@60 lb roasters at $9.50@10.00, which were no criterion of the general market. The Independent Packing company purchased 971 hogs averaging 338 lbs at a cost of $7.85. The general average last January went as low as $7.10 and in March up to $11.15, the extremes for the year.

Yesterday's cattle market was extremely dull, with many left over unsold. Offerings were poorer than usual in quality, there being practically no choice on sale. Nothing sold above $11.75, with few above the $10.00 mark. Prices were mostly 25c lower than Thursday, both beef steers and butcher stock sharing in the decline. Choicest beef steers are fully as high as a week ago, with others 15@50c lower and some off more.

Lambs Decline Further.

Further declines of 15@25c were enforced yesterday after a dull opening lamb market, with top early to city butchers equaling Thursday at $14.65, although packers secured choice stock late at $14.25. No range stock arrived yesterday, with fed western lambs cashing at $14.00@14.35. Sheep were scarce and met a strong outlet for feeding and slaughtering. Feeding lamb sales reflected the general decline, best light quotable to $14.25, while weightier kinds brought $13.50@13.75.

Receipts at Chicago for today are estimated at 3,000 cattle, 7,000 hogs, and 4,000 sheep, against 1,619 cattle, 7,973 hogs, and 3,457 sheep the corresponding Saturday a year ago.

Union Refrigerator Transit.

R. H.: The Union Refrigerator Transit company furnishes refrigerator cars to railways and shippers for transportation of perishable commodities and, with its predecessor, has been successfully in this business for thirty years. It is issuing $1,875,000 series A equipment trust 5 per cent serial certificates under the Philadelphia plan. They are secured by 1,000 new forty foot steel refrigerator cars costing $2,500,000. The company pays one-quarter of the purchase price with order and the title to the cars remains with the trustees until the issue is retired. Net earnings in 1921, after depreciation, taxes, and maintenance and replacement charges, were $361,890, or 3.8 times maximum annual dividend requirements on these certificates. For the last five years such earnings averaged $304,000, or over 3.2 times such requirements. Earnings in 1922 are said to be better than ever. These certificates are a sound investment.

Kansas City Power and Light.

B. H.: The Kansas City Power and Light company has called for redemption on Dec. 1, 1922, all outstanding series A 8 per cent bonds due Dec. 1, 1940, and series B 6s, due Dec. 1, 1945—the former at 107½ and accrued interest and the latter at 103 and accrued interest—both at the Chase National bank, New York, or the Continental and Commercial Trust and Savings bank, Chicago.

OFFICIAL WEATHER FORECAST.

EDGEWATER COURTS
IS NOW READY.
5019-35 Winthrop-av. [Near Argyle.]
3 and 4 room apartments.
RENTS, $90 TO $125.

For a number of years, on account of the popularity of small units, the builders have turned their attention to two, three, and four room apartments, with the result in many cases, on account of lack of experience in planning and lack of knowledge of the provisions essential to the comfortable occupation of apartments of this type, numbers of buildings have fallen short of public requirements.

The Edgewater Courts is the result of years of careful study and experience on the part of the builders, coupled with the services of one of the most able firms of architects in Chicago who in planning and building were given free rein to produce apartments that would satisfy the most exacting tenants.

Rogers Park

$795

PARTIAL IMPROVEMENTS INCLUDED IN PRICE.

$200 Cash, Balance $10 a Mo.

MONDAY, OCT. 30, EVERY LOT REMAINING UNSOLD IN OUR KENILWORTH-AV. ADDITIONS WILL BE INCREASED $200 AND MORE IN PRICE.

COME OUT SUNDAY.

Few people realize the rapid development which has taken place in the ROGERS PARK district. The proposed ELEVATED EXTENSION [see Tribune, Sept. 30], the new McCORMICK-BLVD. [see Tribune, Oct. 14 and 22] and other improvements now taking place and under contemplation, will increase this property value so rapidly that in a short time prices will be prohibitive to the average investor. Chicago is the fastest growing city in the world. The Rogers Park district is the only section of the north side where high class development can take place. The OPPORTUNITY we are offering you should be equally as good as the Wilson or Howard-av. districts.

REMEMBER, every property we have handled in the last twelve years has made money for our clients. Many people who followed our advice on the Lawrence-av., Roosevelt-rd., 63d and Halsted-sts. and other districts are now independently wealthy.

COME OUT SUNDAY.

THIS WILL BE YOUR LAST CHANCE AT THESE PRICES.

HOW TO GET THERE: TAKE "L" TO MORSE-AV. [ROGERS PARK] STATION; BROADWAY-CLARK OR CLARK-HOWARD CARS TO MORSE-AV. OUR REPRESENTATIVES WEARING RED BADGES WILL MEET YOU AND TAKE YOU TO PROPERTY WITHOUT OBLIGATION.

AUTO ROUTE: SHERIDAN-RD. TO LUNT-AV. WEST TO RIDGE-BLVD., NORTH TO KENILWORTH-AV. AND WEST TO OUR OFFICE ON PROPERTY.

NOTICE.

We do not allow our representative to use so-called high-pressure or strong-arm methods in urging you to buy.

HAYNES

1922 MODEL 75 HAYNES—Driven only 4,500 miles. Very seldom is a used car ever received that carries such a small mileage. It is perfectly upholstered in a military Blue broadcloth and the mechanical condition has been tuned up to perfection. It is equipped with radiator lock, motometer, bumper, and 5 almost new tires. This car cost $3,200 new and we have lowered the price $1,200 for the amount of depreciation. It carries our guarantee. Price........$2,000

THIS IS A 1921 MODEL 75 HAYNES, 7 Passenger Touring Car, which is noted for its long, low, flowing lines. It was given exceptionally good care in the hands of its recent owner and we have thoroughly overhauled it and given it a new California top, which alone cost $247. The paint is in wonderful condition and the car is equipped with bumper, lock, motometer. It has 5 only slightly used cord tires. Price........$1,350

1922 HAYNES, MODEL 55—5 Passenger Touring that carries dignity, refinement, and sportiness. The paint is a rich looking blue, with hardly a scratch on its newness. The motor has been rebuilt, the doors rehung, and the car put in new condition throughout. It has individual steps, Stewart bumper, Simplex Thiefproof wheel lock, motometer, and 5 cord tires in excellent condition. This car is priced at the exceedingly low figure of $950.

STUTZ, 1920, 6 Passenger Touring with its original coat of dark gray paint, not distinguishable from new; mechanical condition perfect. There are 5 wire wheels and 5 good cord tires, a full set of Westinghouse shock absorbers, bumper, and spotlight with Bausch lens. Very rarely is a car offered that looks and runs as well at such a low price......$950

HOW ABOUT PRICES?

A fair question and deserving of a frank answer, so let us get down to cold facts when we make comparison of our FALL PRICES as against those prevailing last spring.

Cars that brought from $350 to $650 in the month of April (and are still worth it) are on sale at $350 to $425. Closed cars that sold around $1,000 are now $700 to $750, and the condition and appearance of these FALL BARGAINS are such that no such reductions are warranted. However, we have set out to make a clean sweep of our entire stock, and we are not inclined to do things by halves. It has long been an established fact in automobile circles that

"WHEN WE CUT— WE CUT"

And reserve nothing. As an added inducement we have arranged the most liberal of credit plans, under which no person who has use for a car need longer walk. Our entire stock of SEVENTY CARS will be disposed of on the

NO CASH DOWN PAYMENT

Plan, used first in Chicago by this firm. This enables you to pick from our stock the car of your choice, to purchase it without the usual cash down payment, and to pay for it as you ride, on easy monthly payments.

JORDAN

Comparison of Models, Mechanical Condition and Prices will convince you that we are offering values that are absolutely without equal. The proof is here if you will take the time to look.

1921 HUPMOBILE SEDAN. One of those sturdy dependable 5 passenger closed cars that are so hard to find and that are always in A1 mechanical condition when found. This car has never been off the boulevard and with its new finish of Hupmobile Blue [black enameled hood] and its almost new cord tires it presents the appearance of a new car. Completely equipped with wire wheels, bumper, seat covers, motometer, heater, clock, and several other extras. $1,200.

COLE "8" SEDAN, 1921. A beautiful 6 passenger closed car known as the "Sportosine" which cost originally over $5,000. We don't believe you have ever seen a car that has more practical equipment than this one carries or one that has received as careful attention. Has Westinghouse Air Springs, seat covers, bumpers, Woodbury Cord tires, heater, sun visor, motometer and ornament and several other extras. Don't let the price we have placed on this car deceive you as its actual worth is several hundred dollars higher. Price, $1,400.

1917 JORDAN COUPE—A 4 passenger coupe whose intrinsic value cannot be measured in dollars and cents because of the future mechanical service it will render. The owner had it completely gone over in our shop less than a month ago, with the idea of driving it a number of years. But a change in his plans necessitated a larger car. This is a stylish coupe with current body lines and is upholstered in special tapestry cloth, giving it an interior finish seldom found. Five wire wheels and 5 cord tires that show no wear. $750.

1921 JORDAN 7 PASS., CALIFORNIA TOP EQUIPPED—An automobile for any season or weather condition, representing a value impossible to describe without an actual ride in the car. Finished beautifully in a Burgundy old wine, with black Artcraft top, and in new car condition mechanically. Equipment consists of bumpers, front and rear, heater, clock, automatic windshield wiper, step plates, motometer and lock, Wayne wheel lock, and U. S. Royal cord tires. $1,550.

1920 STEPHENS SPORT 4 PASS. In the original finish. In first class mechanical condition and equipped with 5 nearly new cord tires. This car represents a saving of $250 against the same type and model being offered in the present market. A demonstration will convince you. $500.

1917 STUDEBAKER TOURING. We are absolutely confident that this car's equal for mechanical condition cannot be found in the city at the price we have placed on it because of the unusual care the owner gave it since the date of its purchase. Has a $250 top, 5 very good cord tires. For quick sale, $200.

1920 BUICK TOURING, K-49, 7 PASS.—Will bear the most rigid mechanical inspection. Finish, tires, and upholstery are in good condition. Priced to sell immediately. $500.

1920 OAKLAND ROADSTER—Completely overhauled by the owner before turning it in. Exceptionally good cord tires, 2 spares, bumper, stoplight, several other extras. For quick sale, $350.

PACKARD

FRANKLIN TOURING SERIES 9-B. This is a late series car and is in excellent condition throughout. The top and upholstery show hardly any signs of use, the paint is in fine condition and no mechanical work is necessary. It is completely equipped with front and rear bumpers, spare tire, clock, etc. This is an ideal car for cold weather use and can be purchased at a very low figure, $650.

MARMON SPORT 1921 MODEL. Here is an opportunity to make a wonderful purchase. The motor and chassis have been thoroughly overhauled, the body refinished in rich blue, and all bright parts renickeled. Equipment is most complete and includes wire wheels, Hartford shock absorbers, spare tire with cover, stoplight, automatic windshield cleaner, rear vision mirror, Biflex bumper, motometer, etc. This car will not be available long at our price of $1,850.

PACKARD TWIN SIX TOURING. This is one of the best buys in a Packard that we have been able to offer in some time. It is a Model 1-25 seven passenger touring car. The motor was thoroughly rebuilt a short time ago, including new cylinders and pistons. It, of course, is in perfect condition today. We have refinished it in Dark Packard Blue, renickeled all bright parts, and redressed the top and upholstey. We advise an early inspection, as the price is only $600.

PACKARD SINGLE SIX TOURING. This is our new series in the seven passenger capacity. Our customer traded it in for an inclosed car of the same model after using it only a very short time. It shows absolutely no signs of use in any way. The car is most completely equipped with new spare tire and cover, front and rear Biflex bumpers, neutral lock, stop light, sun visor, motor mascot, spotlight, motometer, etc. This is an opportunity to purchase a practically new car with all the first year's heavy depreciation written off: $2,500.

PACKARD TWIN SIX TOURING. This is one of our late current model cars which has just been completed in our rebuilding shops. It is equipped with a practically new set of Woodbury Cord tires, Westinghouse shock absorbers, seat covers, bumper, etc. It has been repainted in dark Packard Blue with Cream Yellow wheels and is equivalent to a new car in every respect. We are offering it at the exceptionally low price of $2,500.

PACKARD TWIN SIX TOWN CAR. This is a special custom built creation by "Durham" of New York and is mounted on our present series chassis in the short wheelbase. The car has been entirely rebuilt mechanically and has just been received from our Paint Shop where all necessary coach work and refinishing was done. We have equipped it with a new set of Kelly-Springfield cord tires and it will be sold under our standard Packard new car guarantee. Our price is less than 50% of its original cost. $4,000.

3 Bargains AT THE Peerless FACTORY BRANCH.

SPECIALLY PRICED FOR IMMEDIATE SALE.

PEERLESS 8, 1917 TOURING CAR. This is another late model Peerless car that we are offering as a special bargain for today. The last one of this type that we had was sold before 10 o'clock on the morning it was advertised. This particular car is above the average in every respect, including mechanical and tire condition, and after you see and ride in it you will wonder how we can sell it so cheap. Do not pass judgment on this car without first seeing it, as it is not junk or a car that will not give service, but, on the contrary, we do not know where you can buy any car at the price that will give you the wonderful satisfaction and service that this one will give you. We have only one car of this type in stock and you will have to act at once if you want it. Priced specially today, $300.

PAIGE TOURING, 1921. If you can realize and picture in your mind a smart looking high grade, yet light and economical touring car, this one is all that and more. In appearance and condition it evidences the extreme fine care and attention that it has always had and the few miles of careful driving have tended only to better its condition and make it run smoothly and quietly. All of our used cars must be turned over quickly and for that reason we trade them on new Peerless cars at such prices that we can sell them at way below their market value. This particular one has all the equipment and accessories that you would expect to find on a car of this type and we really believe that in a Paige car of this description you will find it an exceptional buy. If interested act at once. Price $600.

PEERLESS 8 TOURING, 1921. We would like the opportunity of showing this car to a great number of people who are interested in the purchase of a high grade 7 passenger touring car. Whether you expect to buy a car at this time or not, this Peerless car is one that you should really see. It is not the ordinary used car that you see running up and down the street, but one that has actually seen such a very few miles of careful driving that it is safe to say that its condition is such that you cannot find fault with it in any respect. Mechanically it runs smoothly and quietly. The paint condition is excellent. Has our permanent semi-California top. Is equipped with a set of wire wheels with small tires which are all in fine condition, and, from all angles, it is the best 7 passenger touring car of this series that we have had to offer for a good many months. We know that if you see and ride in it you will appreciate its value. This automobile we will have to let go at a price that is way below its market value. It is being sacrificed for the exceptionally low price of $1,400.

CADILLAC'S SPECIALS

CADILLAC 8 TYPE 59 TOURING CAR. The ideal 7 passenger family car. This particular car has just been put through our shops and mechanically it will carry our warranty. We have refinished it in deep maroon with light red stripe and equipped it with 5 new cord tires, bumper, Klaxon horn, seat covers, and many other extras. The Cadillac is noted for its ease of handling and dependability and is a car that any member of the family can drive with confidence because of its mechanical perfection. We suggest early inspection of this fine car, as our price is only $1,700.

CADILLAC 8, TYPE 61, PHAETON. This beautiful latest series Cadillac 4 passenger Touring Car has had comparatively little use and was turned in by its original owner, who has ordered a Cadillac for future delivery. We have given it a rigid mechanical inspection and it will be sold with our new car warranty. Everything about the car is positively first class, in fact, we doubt if any one could distinguish it from new. The finish is in special Cadillac Gray and the car is equipped with 5 cord tires, 2 spring bumpers, step plates, spotlight, and other extras. This car can be duplicated today for approximately $3,500 as equipped—our price allows you a substantial saving. Price, $2,700.

CADILLAC 8, TYPE 61, VICTORIA COUPE. This beautiful high grade 4 passenger car is one of our latest series, has been refinished by us, and has every appearance of a new automobile. Mechanically it is perfect and will carry the same guarantee as given new Cadillacs. This particular car did not have a great deal of use and when received by us was checked mechanically. It is equipped with 5 new custom built cord tires, cover, seat covers, stoplight, Biflex bumper, and standard "61" equipment. Your opportunit to buy this car at a saving of approximately $750. Price, $3,500.

CADILLAC 8, TYPE 61, 5 PASS. COUPE. This car will appeal to the person who is looking for a new Cadillac 5 passenger Coupe. This particular car was used only 574 miles by the original owner, who turned it back to us only because he desired a 7 passenger enclosed Cadillac. It is positively like new throughout and the car is without mar, scratch, or blemish anywhere. It has much extra equipment, including spare cord which is new and cover, stoplight, bumper, etc. To be able to buy a month slightly used Cadillac is truly a rare opportunity. It carries our new car warranty and is offered at a price that allows of a decided saving. $3,750.

$125 BUYS:

PAIGE 6-38 TOURING—In good running condition; has 5 good tires; top and upholstery good. Don't think this car is junk—it is a very serviceable car.

$125 BUYS:

ELGIN TOURING—This is the best Elgin of this model we have ever seen. Is equipped with 5 very good tires, spotlight, etc. Paint is good. Although this is a ridiculously low figure for a light six economical car, many thousands of miles of good service may be expected from it. Act quickly.

$200 BUYS:

ALLEN "37" TOURING CAR—This car has been in storage for a considerable length of time and truly has had but very little mileage. Original paint is 100%. Upholstery shows no wear and the top is immaculate. Any one in the market for a dependable 4 cylinder car will surely appreciate this immense bargain. See it today.

$150 BUYS:

DODGE TOURING—Here is a 1917 model that has had good care. Although the paint is dull, the physical condition is good and we believe this car will give several seasons' good service.

$375 BUYS:

WINTON SIX TOURING—Mechanically very good; has wire wheels, good set of tires, motometer, etc. Suitable for cross country or rugged service.
